

Violette Leduc Mad in Pursuit

It was with La Bâtarde, published in the mid-sixties, that the extraordinary personality of Violette Leduc first took its rightful place among the world's most original autobiographers. Now, with Mad in Pursuit, Mme Leduc continues the life story which has prompted so many readers to regard her as a kind of female Genet. The comparison arises, perhaps, from a shared subject matter, an elective affinity that Mme Leduc confesses Genet's writings have for her; but this comparison is not really valid. Violette Leduc's qualities are specifically and incomparably her own.
