Mad Puppetstown Molly Keane, 2013-05-02 She was marvellous GUARDIAN I admired many authors But Molly I loved DIANA ATHILL A writer of genius WALL STREET JOURNAL In the early 1900s Easter lives with her Aunt Brenda her cousins Evelyn and Basil and their Great Aunt Dicksie in an imposing country house Puppetstown which casts a spell over their childhood Here they spend carefree days taunting the peacocks in Aunt Dicksie's garden shooting snipe and woodcock hunting and playing with Patsy the boot boy But the house and its inhabitants are not immune to the little bitter forgotten war in Ireland and when it finally touches their lives all flee to England All except Aunt Dicksie who refuses to surrender Puppetstown's magic She stays on with Patsy living in a corner of the deserted house while in England the cousins are groomed for Society But for two of them those wild lost Puppetstown years cannot be forgotten Mad Puppetstown M. J. Farrell, 1985 In the early 1900s Easter lives with her Aunt Brenda her cousins Evelyn and Basil and their Great Aunt Dicksie in an imposing country house Puppetstown which casts a spell over their childhood Here they spend carefree days taunting the peacocks in Aunt Dicksie's garden shooting snipe and woodcock hunting and playing with Patsy the boot boy But the house and its inhabitants are not immune to the little bitter forgotten war in Ireland and when it finally touches their lives all flee to England All except Aunt Dicksie who refuses to surrender Puppetstown's magic She stays on with Patsy living in a corner of the deserted house while in England the cousins are groomed for Society But for two of them those wild lost Puppetstown years cannot be forgotten Mad Puppetstown Molly Keane, 1986 Mad Puppetstown. [A Novel.] M. J. Farrell (pseud.), 1931 The Cambridge Companion to the Irish Novel John Wilson Foster, 2006-12-14 This is the perfect overview of the Irish novel from the seventeenth century to the present day MAD PUPPETSTOWN. BY M. J. FARRELL. Molly Keane, 1931 A History of Irish Literature and the Environment Malcolm Sen, 2022-07-28 From Gaelic annals and medieval poetry to contemporary Irish literature A History of Irish Literature and the Environment examines the connections between the Irish environment and Irish literary culture Themes such as Ireland's island ecology the ecological history of colonial era plantation and deforestation the Great Famine cultural attitudes towards animals and towards the land the postcolonial politics of food and energy generation and the Covid 19 pandemic this book shows how these factors determine not only a history of the Irish environment but also provide fresh perspectives from which to understand and analyze Irish literature An international team of contributors provides a comprehensive analysis of Irish literature to show how the literary has always been deeply engaged with environmental questions in Ireland a crucial new perspective in an age of climate crisis A History of Irish Literature and the Environment reveals the socio cultural racial and gendered aspects embedded in questions of the Irish environment The History of British Women's Writing, 1920-1945 M. Joannou, 2016-01-03 Featuring sixteen contributions from recognized authorities in their respective fields this superb new mapping of women's writing ranges from feminine middlebrow novels to Virginia Woolf's modernist aesthetics from women's literary journalism to crime

fiction and from West End drama to the literature of Scotland Ireland and Wales A History of Irish Modernism Gregory Castle, Patrick Bixby, 2019-01-24 A History of Irish Modernism examines a wide variety of artworks from the 1890s to the 1970s including examples from literature film painting music radio and architecture Each chapter considers a particular aspect of Irish culture and reflects on its contribution to modernism at large In addition to new research on the Irish Revival and cultural nationalism which places them squarely in the modernist arena chapters offer transnational and transdisciplinary perspectives that place Irish cultural production in new contexts At the same time the historical standpoint adopted in each chapter enables the contributors to examine how modernist practices developed across geographical and temporal distances A History of Irish Modernism thus attests to the unique development of modernism in Ireland driven by political as well as artistic concerns even as it embodies aesthetic principles that are the hallmark of modernism in Europe the Americas and beyond Molly Keane Sally Phipps, 2017-01-26 Molly Keane 1904-96 was an Irish novelist and playwright born in County Kildare most famous for Good Behaviour which was shortlisted for the Man Booker Prize Hailed as the Irish Nancy Mitford in her day as well as writing books she was the leading playwright of the 30s her work directed by John Gielgud Between 1928 and 1956 she wrote eleven novels and some of her earlier plays under the pseudonym M J Farrell In 1981 aged seventy she published Good Behaviour under her own name The manuscript which had languished in a drawer for many years was lent to a visitor the actress Peggy Ashcroft who encouraged Keane to publish it Molly Keane's novels reflect the world she inhabited she was from a rather serious hunting and fishing church going family She was educated as was the custom in Anglo Irish households by a series of governesses and then at boarding school Distant and awkward relationships between children and their parents would prove to be a recurring theme for Keane Maggie O Farrell wrote that she writes better than anyone else about the mother daughter relationship in all its thorny fraught inescapable complexity Here for the first time is her biography and written by one of her two daughters it provides an honest portrait of a fascinating complicated woman who was a brilliant writer and a portrait of the Anglo Irish world of the first half of the twentieth century

Two Days In Aragon Molly Keane, 2013-05-02 FROM THE AUTHOR SHORTLISTED FOR THE MAN BOOKER PRIZE She was marvellous GUARDIAN I admired many authors But Molly I loved DIANA ATHILL Keane's distinctive blend of elegant savagery and deep affection EVENING STANDARD Grania and Sylvia Fox live in the Georgian house of Aragon with their mother their Aunt Pidgie and Nan O'Neill the family nurse Grania is conducting a secret affair with Nan's son Foley a wily horse breeder whilst Sylvia who is pretty in the right and accepted way falls for the charms of Captain Purvis Attending Aragon's strawberry teas the British Army Officers can almost forget the reason for their presence in Ireland But the days of dignified calm at Aragon are numbered for Foley is a member of Sinn Féin "Blighted Beginnings" Jonathan Bolton, 2010 This book also looks at how authors have persistently used the bildungsroman to complicate and challenge the idealization of the family exposing the divorce ban as symptomatic of an unrealistic notion of domestic inviolability This study concludes with a discussion of the future of the bildungsroman in a country that has transcended many of its formative crises This chapter considers Doyle's A Star Called Henry as a text that inaugurates a new phase in Irish coming of age narratives in which many of the problems of Irish life formerly treated so earnestly and tragically can be a source of play and humor By looking at a comprehensive range of novels by writers like Sean O Faolain Elizabeth Bowen Edna O'Brien and William Trevor as well as lesser known figures like Eimar O Duffy Francis MacManus and Mary Morrissy Blighted Beginnings traces the evolving concerns of Irish writers as they pushed for a greater accommodation of individual freedoms and aspirations

A History of Irish Autobiography Liam Harte, 2018-03-01 A History of Irish Autobiography is the first ever critical survey of autobiographical self representation in Ireland from its recoverable beginnings to the twenty first century The book draws on a wealth of original scholarship by leading experts to provide an authoritative examination of autobiographical writing in the English and Irish languages Beginning with a comprehensive overview of autobiography theory and criticism in Ireland the History guides the reader through seventeen centuries of Irish achievement in autobiography a category that incorporates diverse literary forms from religious tracts and travelogues to letters diaries and online journals This ambitious book is rich in insight Chapters are structured around key subgenres themes texts and practitioners each featuring a guide to recommended further reading The volume's extensive coverage is complemented by a detailed chronology of Irish autobiography from the fifth century to the contemporary era the first of its kind to be published

Irish Women Writers Elke D'hoker, 2010 After a decade in which women writers have gradually been given more recognition in the study of Irish literature this collection proposes a reappraisal of Irish women's writing by inviting dialogues with new or hitherto marginalised critical frameworks

as well as with foreign and transnational literary traditions Several essays explore how Irish women writers engaged with European themes and traditions through the genres of travel writing the historical novel the monologue and the fairy tale Other contributions are concerned with the British context in which some texts were published and argue for the existence of Irish inflections of phenomena such as the New Woman suffragism or vegetarianism Further chapters emphasise the transnational character of Irish women's writing by applying continental theory and French feminist thinking to various texts in other chapters new developments in theory are applied to Irish texts for the first time Casting the efforts of Irish women in a new light the collection also includes explorations of the work of neglected or emerging authors who have remained comparatively ignored by Irish literary criticism

Loving And Giving Molly Keane, 2015-01-22 FROM THE SHORTLISTED AUTHOR FOR THE MAN BOOKER PRIZE Molly Keane is astonishing an exquisitely written black comedy with a shock ending GUARDIAN Quite the best book she has written DAILY TELEGRAPH I admired many authors But Molly I loved DIANA ATHILL In 1914 when Nicandra is eight all is well in the grand Irish estate Deer Forest Maman is beautiful and adored Dada silent and small mooches contendedly around the stables Aunt Tossie of the giant heart and bosom is widowed but looks splendid in weeds The butler the groom the landsteward the maids the men each as a place and knows it Then astonishingly the perfect surface is shattered Maman does something too dreadful ever to be spoken of What next Who to love asks Nicaranda And through her growing up and marriage her answer is to swamp those around her with kindness while gradually the great house crumbles under a weight of manners and misunderstanding

Ireland's Gramophones Zan Cammack, 2021-08-10 Because gramophonic technology grew up alongside Ireland's progressively more outspoken and violent struggles for political autonomy and national stability Irish Modernism inherently links the gramophone to representations of these dramatic cultural upheavals Many key works of Irish literary modernism like those by James Joyce Elizabeth Bowen and Sean O Casey depend upon the gramophone for their ability to record Irish cultural traumas both symbolically and literally during one of the country's most fraught developmental eras In each work the gramophone testifies of its own complexity as a physical object and its multiform value in the artistic development of textual material In each work too the object seems virtually self placed less an aesthetic device than a thing belonging primordially to the text The machine is also often an agent and counterpart to literary characters Thus the gramophone points to a deeper connection between object and culture than we perceive if we consider it as only an image enhancement or instrument This book examines the gramophone as an object that refuses to remain in the background of scenes in which it appears forcing us to confront its mnemonic heritage during a period of Irish history burdened with political and cultural turbulence

Catalogue of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1931 Young Entry Molly Keane, 2013-05-02 She was marvellous GUARDIAN I admired many authors But Molly I loved DIANA ATHILL Keane's distinctive blend of elegant savagery and deep affection EVENING STANDARD Prudence at nineteen is reckless laughing wild the despair of her elderly guardians With her best friend the subversive but very female Peter she racks round the Irish countryside among her beloved horses and dogs But she feels betrayed by Peter's growing interest in the new Master of Hounds Saxon Major Anthony Countless And what is Prudence to make of handsome Toby Sage neighbour huntsman and accredited flirt Or of an inexplicable haunting First published in 1928 This high spirited novel with its subtle erotic undercurrents is a glorious story of a ramshackle tolerant society and of Prudence's turbulent coming of age

Irish Novels 1890-1940 John Wilson Foster, 2008-02-21

Studies of Irish fiction are still scanty in contrast to studies of Irish poetry and drama Attempting to fill a large critical vacancy Irish Novels 1890-1940 is a comprehensive survey of popular and minor fiction mainly novels published between 1890 and 1922 a crucial period in Irish cultural and political history Since the bulk of these sixty odd writers have never been written about certainly beyond brief mentions the book opens up for further exploration a literary landscape hitherto neglected perhaps even unsuspected This new landscape should alter the familiar perspectives on Irish literature of the period first of all by adding genre fiction science fiction detective novels ghost stories New Woman fiction and Great War novels to the Irish syllabus secondly by demonstrating the immense contribution of women writers to popular and mainstream Irish fiction Among the popular and prolific female writers discussed are Mrs J H Riddell B M Croker M E Francis Sarah Grand Katharine Tynan Ella MacMahon Katherine Cecil Thurston W M Letts and Hannah Lynch Indeed a critical inference of the survey is that if there is a discernible tradition of the Irish novel it is largely a female tradition A substantial postscript surveys novels by Irish women between 1922 and 1940 and relates them to the work of their female antecedents This ground breaking survey should also alter the familiar perspectives on the Ireland of 1890-1922 Many of the popular works were problem novels and hence throw light on contemporary thinking and debate on the Irish Question After the Irish Literary Revival and creation of the Free State much popular and mainstream fiction became a lost archive neglected evidence indeed of a lost Ireland
