Stories of the Eucharist Heidi Hess Saxton, 2024-05-06 Throughout the Church's history holy men and women have found that one of the best and most reliable ways to get close to Jesus is through the Eucharist. By reading and sharing their stories in our families we can imitate Jesus in a very important way extending his mercy again and again that the Kingdom of God might shine a little more brightly in the world. Stories of the Eucharist invites families to celebrate the transforming power of the Eucharist in our lives by exploring eucharistic miracles and saints who had deep devotion to the Real Presence of Jesus. This book celebrates in word and illustration forty people and events that reveal how Christ has bestowed graces and even miracles on his people through the Eucharist. As you read these stories from the span of Christian tradition with your family you will experience in a new way the power of the Eucharist and teach your children to open their hearts to the greatest mystery of our Faith.

The Earth Shakers of Madagascar Oliver Woolley, 2020-08-29 An analysis of how the complex rituals of Sahafatra culture are used to transform a once barren landscape into agricultural land.

Nenilava, Prophetess of Madagascar James B. Vigen, Sarah Hinlicky Wilson, 2021-12-17 Before she was baptized or knew anything about Christ young Nenilava was called by Jesus to preach and exorcise in his name. At the age of twenty newly married to a Lutheran catechist she heard Jesus prompting her to intervene in a case of demon possession and from there her ministry spread like wildfire. She spent the next sixty years of her life traveling around her native Madagascar proclaiming Jesus victory over sin guilt and evil and bringing countless people to faith. In this book her firsthand account of her early ministry as told to a Malagasy pastor appears for the first time in English. Complementing the immediacy of her narrative former missionary in Madagascar James B. Vigen recounts the last thirty years of Nenilava's life and describes the extraordinary impact of this illiterate peasant woman on African Christianity. Sarah Hinlicky Wilson concludes the book with a far reaching exploration of demon possession healing from illness and sin emergent offices of ministry and the relevance of Nenilava for Western Christianity.

Living the Great Commission in Madagascar Carl E. Braaten, 2023-03-12 Clara Agnes Braaten kept a diary from the year she married the author's father Torstein Folkvard Braaten in 1922 until she was ninety four years old. Three weeks after they were married they departed Minneapolis by train for New York City to board the Stavangerfjord a fine Norwegian ocean liner to cross the Atlantic Ocean on their way to Bergen Norway. The author's father had accepted a call from the Foreign Mission Board of the Norwegian Lutheran Church in America to become a missionary to Madagascar. The couple decided to visit Norway on their way to Paris France where they were to spend one year learning the French language. In this book the author draws on his mother's diaries to highlight why his parents obeyed the Great Commission and how they lived it every day in Madagascar. The book includes excerpts selected from his mother's diary as well as a brief narrative of what the author remembers about growing up in Madagascar. Whether you're interested in missionary life the
