A Dragon Defanged Robert Lockwood, 2012-10-31 Democratic President Earl Eastwood seeks re-election against the formidable Connecticut Governor Sophia Kallias, a Republican moderate with winning appeal to the critical independent vote. A unified Third World influenced by China offers him the global presidency at the United Nations if he loses the US race. Eastwood's dependency on China curdles his loyalties. He needs China's endorsement for the UN job. And Chinese foreign investment is the only viable source of job growth in a badly recessed US economy. The Chinese recruit the financial wizardry of Swiss-based Nikos Rallis to fashion a Swiss-Brazilian network of equity funds. The network launders US investments of Chinese-owned Brazilian companies. They covertly acquire control of Canadian and US shale oil and gas stakes and their pipeline conduits. The network then infiltrates critical US defense technology sources. Eastwood, a brilliant political tactician and the first African American president, must act forcefully as he learns of the Chinese scheme. His rigid West Point ethics are challenged by ambition and his complicated romantic life.
