Toby's Very Important Question Jean Lemieux,2011-07-27 On the morning after Christmas Toby's family begins the day like any other holiday. All of a sudden everything changes when someone phones to tell them that Toby's aunt has died in a car accident. They pack up and drive to his grandparents' house in the country where all the family are gathered. After the ceremony at the funeral home everyone goes to the family home. Toby notices that although everyone is very sad they are also able to smile, chat and even sing. He wonders why people can be both happy and sad. He also wants to know what happens when a person dies. This story brings out all the questions a curious child might ask when someone dies in a family.

Featherless A.G. Mojtabai,2024-11-26 Plato famously defined a human being as a featherless biped. It's hard not to sense the ironic humor in this definition, a reminder that for all our talk about human dignity our condition is contingent, vulnerable and at some level even comic. Perhaps that's why the writer A.G. Mojtabai, known for her dry understated subtly humorous but ultimately honest and courageous depictions of the human condition, chose the name for her latest novel set in the confines of Shady Rest Home for the Aged. Mojtabai offers us a varied cast of characters at Shady Rest including Eli who fancies himself a ladies man, Elora anxious about her wayward nephew, the aloof but lonely scholar Wiktor and Maddie a bit eccentric, true but more wise and compassionate than most. At the center of
