Madeleine's War Peter Watson,2016-07-12 When Colonel Matthew Hammond was posted to the European theater during World War II he sustained a serious injury on the front lines that cost him a lung Now he is back in England unable to fight but continuing to serve his country by training new resistance fighters in SC2 a specialist sabotage outfit One of the recruits under his tutelage is the spellbinding Madeleine Dirac an exotic French Canadian nurse Despite protocols discouraging romance they fall deeply in love Matthew is torn about putting Madeleine s life in danger he has mixed duty and pleasure before with tragic results his former lover Celestine was killed in an attempt to assassinate a Nazi doctor But the Allies are mustering all their resources for crucial beach landings in Normandy and Matthew knows his unit will be needed to parachute its agents in behind Nazi lines Vivid and unforgettable Madeleine s War is a gripping tale of love in wartime and of men and women caught in the sweep of history      Madeleine's Trial, and Other Stories Elise Françoise Louise Déhault de Pressensé,1870      French Women Poets of Nine Centuries Norman R. Shapiro,2008-09-22 Original texts and translations are presented on facing pages allowing readers to appreciate the vigor and variety of the French and the fidelity of the English versions Divided into three chronological sections spanning the Middle Ages through the sixteenth century the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries and the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the volume includes introductory essays by noted scholars of each era s poetry along with biographical sketches and bibliographical references for each poet BOOK

JACKET      Watching in Tongues: Multilingualism on American Television in the 21st Century James G.

Mitchell,2020-09-01 This book explores ideas and issues related to second language L2 speakers and L2 use as portrayed on American television It examines many examples of television depictions of L2 speakers and L2 use collected in the first decades of the 21st century The book is divided into four three chapter sections Humor and Homicide looks at two aspects of the inclusion of L2 speakers and L2 use on television L2 use or speakers depicted to create humor in various ways especially through miscommunication or misunderstanding and L2 knowledge used to solve crimes in the detective police procedural genre The section describes the reasons behind these phenomena how they work and the messages they convey to viewers Language Learning explores how both adult and child language acquisition is represented and misrepresented on American television with analysis of realistic vs non realistic depictions Subtitles and Stereotypes explores the ways in which L2 speakers are often negatively depicted on television their portrayal based on stereotypes This work specifically investigates the role that subtitles play in leading viewers to such conclusions employing the idea of language subordination a process that devalues non standard language while validating the norms and beliefs of the dominant group Also considered are ways in which stereotypes are sometimes used to undermine negative perspectives on L2 speakers Language Attitudes and Mediation evaluates depictions of second languages used as tools of mediation in both historical and satirical terms as well as the feelings these portrayals engender in viewers In short this work asks questions that have not previously been posed about L2 use on television and it provides answers that not only shed light on issues of the representation of language learning and language use but also constitute a lens through which American society as a whole might be understood

The Mademoiselle Alliance Natasha Lester, 2025-04-08 How did a young Parisian mother celebrated for her beauty and glamour come to lead the largest spy network in occupied France A passionate fiery tribute to a historical woman so extraordinary she almost defies belief Kate Quinn New York Times bestselling author of The Alice Network and The Briar Club Morocco 1928 Marie Madeleine M ric is not the kind of woman who stays quietly at her husband s side Polyglot pianist and pilot she is a woman of many skills with unconventional interests like driving in car rallies that earn her a daredevil reputation But dabbling in intelligence work to assist her military officer husband and the French government helps her recognize who she is at heart an adventurer Paris 1936 As Europe teeters on the brink of war Marie Madeleine is living in France her marriage now in shambles when a chance encounter with an enigmatic spy turns her life upside down He recruits her to help build a resistance network and she conceals her identity and gender as she navigates a perilous double life Eventually she steps into the role of leader of what is now known as Alliance despite the naysayers who doubt in a woman s ability to do so Capture and death are only a heartbeat away for both Marie Madeleine and the agents under her care At the helm of Alliance she achieves seemingly impossible feats of espionage that help turn the tide of the war But the most impossible and dangerous feat of them all Falling in love New York Times bestselling author Natasha Lester beautifully brings Marie Madeleine M ric Fourcade s story to life in this powerful heartbreaking tale of resilience that reminds us what it means to cherish those we love and fight for them with every breath

In Between Margit Grieb, Yves-Antoine Clemmen, Will Lehman, 2019 The essays in this anthology probe and comment on the space time issue between in aesthetic or linguistic productions in a variety of cultures For over three decades the Southeast Conference on Foreign Languages Literatures and Film SCFLLF which convenes biennially has been and continues to be a showcase for scholarship in the Humanities with a special emphasis on non English language area studies In 2018 at the 23rd SCFLLF fifty three national and international scholars presented their research on linguistics literature film culture and language pedagogy The essays we selected to showcase all probe and comment on the space time issue between in aesthetic or linguistic productions in a variety of cultures We have organized these contributions in three parts entitled Part I Between Fiction and Reality Part II Between Continuity and Transformation and Part III Between Conformity and Resistance      Dominic Penterne Godfrey Burchett,1888      The A to Z of French Cinema Dayna Oscherwitz,MaryEllen Higgins,2009-09-02 It can be argued that cinema was created in France by Louis Lumière in 1895 with the invention of the cinématographe the first true motion picture camera and projector While there were other cameras and devices invented earlier that were capable of projecting intermittent motion of images the cinématographe was the first device capable of recording and externally projecting images in such a way as to convey motion Early films such as Lumière's La Sortie de l'usine a minute long film of workers leaving the Lumière factory captured the imagination of the nation and quickly inspired the likes of Georges Méliès Alice Guy and Charles Pathé Through the years French cinema has been responsible for producing some of the world's best directors Jean Renoir Jean-Luc Godard François Truffaut and Louis Malle and actors Charles Boyer Catherine Deneuve Gérard Depardieu and Audrey Tautou The A to Z of French Cinema covers the history of French film from the silent era to the present in a concise and up to date volume detailing the development of French cinema and major theoretical and cultural issues related to it This is done through a chronology an introduction photographs a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on many of the major actors directors films movements producers and studios associated with French cinema Going beyond mere biographical information entries also discuss the impact and significance of each individual film movement or studio included This detailed scholarly analysis of the development of film in France is useful to both the novice and the expert alike      The American Cyclopaedia George Ripley,Charles Anderson Dana,1883      Madeleine's Children Sue Peabody,2017-09-01 Madeleine's Children uncovers a multigenerational saga of an enslaved family in India and two islands Réunion and Mauritius in the eastern empires of France and Britain during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries A tale of legal intrigue it reveals the lives and secret relationships between slaves and free people that have remained obscure for two centuries As a child Madeleine was pawned by her impoverished family and became the slave of a French woman in Bengal She accompanied her mistress to France as a teenager but she did not challenge her enslavement there on the basis of France's Free Soil principle a consideration that did not come to light until future lawyers investigated her story In France a new master and mistress purchased her despite laws prohibiting the sale of slaves within the kingdom The couple transported Madeleine across the ocean to their plantation in the Indian Ocean colonies where she eventually gave birth to three children Maurice Constance and Furcy One died a slave and two eventually became free but under very different circumstances On 21 November 1817 Furcy exited the gates of his master's mansion and declared himself a free man The lawsuit waged by Furcy to challenge his wrongful enslavement ultimately brought him before the Royal Court of Paris despite the extreme measures that his putative master Joseph Lory deployed to retain him as his slave A meticulous work of archival detection Madeleine's Children investigates the cunning clandestine and brutal strategies that masters devised to keep slaves under their control and paints a vivid picture of the unique and evolving meanings of slavery and freedom in the Indian Ocean world      Love Is Karine-Marie Amiot,2019
