Magdas Daughter A Hidden Childs Journey Home:

Magda's Daughter Evi Blaikie, 2003 To survive the long shadow of the Third Reich many children were placed in hiding forced to keep their true identities names religion places of birth even gender secret Among these hidden children was Evelyn Juliette born in Paris to privileged Hungarian immigrants of high intellect and great passion Scarcely a year following her birth France would fall to the Nazis plunging Europe further into chaos and placing Evi's family among hundreds of thousands on the run Her father forced to go underground never again emerged Her mother the indomitable Magda managed to send her young daughter to temporary safety before being imprisoned in a forced labor camp Evi just barely three was eventually brought by an aunt to Budapest under her cousin's passport Claude Pollak would be only the first of many false identities assumed to protect the shattered remnants of this young child's life Brimming with novelistic detail vivid characterizations and a sharply observed emotional terrain Magda's Daughter depicts in the words of the author herself the life of a perpetual refugee forced by historical circumstance to live in rootless exile while yearning for something she never really knew life before Evi Blaikie a gifted storyteller writes against the limits of language and defies traditional definitions of survivorship while reminding us that no war is ever over until the last survivor is gone Comparative Central European Holocaust Studies Louise Olga Vasvári, Steven Tötösy de Zepetnek, 2009 The work presented in the volume in fields of the humanities and social sciences is based on 1 the notion of the existence and the describability and analysis of a culture including e.g. history literature society the arts etc specific of to the region designated as Central Europe 2 the relevance of a field designated as Central European Holocaust studies and 3 the relevance in the study of culture of the comparative and contextual approach designated as comparative cultural studies Papers in the volume are by scholars working in Holocaust Studies in Australia Germany Hungary Israel Serbia the United Kingdom and the US The Dance of the Demons Esther Singer Kreitman, 2009-05-01 A semi autobiographical portrait of the original Yentl and an important contribution to the vastly neglected genre of feminist Yiddish literature Booklist In this autobiographical novel originally published in Yiddish as Der Sheydim Tanz in 1936 Esther Kreitman lovingly depicts a world replete with rabbis yeshiva students beggars farmers gangsters seamstresses and socialists as seen through the eyes of the girl who served as Isaac Bashevis Singer's inspiration for the story Yentl the Yeshiva Boy Barred from the studies at which her idealistic rabbi father and precocious brother excel Deborah revels in the books she hides behind the kitchen stove her brief forays outside the household and her clandestine attraction to a young Warsaw rebel But her family confines and blunts her dreams as they navigate the constraints of Jewish life in a world that tolerates but does not approve their presence Forced into an arranged marriage Deborah runs away on the eve of World War into a world that would offer more than she ever dreamed This edition includes memorial pieces by Kreitman's son and granddaughter The Stories of Fannie Hurst Fannie Hurst, 2004 A long overdue rediscovery of one of America's most prolific important and essential 20th century women writers Women on War Daniela Gioseffi, 2003 An international anthology of women's writings from antiquity to the present     Trajectories of Memory Christina Guenther, Beth A. Griech-Polelle, 2008 This volume which grew out of a conference of the same name held at Bowling Green State University in March 2006 represents new scholarly perspectives on the way in which the Holocaust is remembered in history literary studies and theatre It is a response to changing representations of the Holocaust across generations disciplines and in various cultural and national contexts The contributions address the following questions How do historians artists scholars and teachers negotiate the language of the Holocaust as survivors die leaving future generations to respond to the dictum Never again How do children and grandchildren of survivors perpetrators bystanders transmit the difficult legacy of the Holocaust in American Israeli French German Swiss and Austrian contexts while navigating feelings of transgenerational guilt or victimhood How can we do justice to survivor testimony when the survivors can no longer speak directly or mediate the testimony to us How does transferred and multiply mediated knowledge translate into meaningful artifacts for the next generations The collection features an interview about interdisciplinarity within Holocaust studies conducted at the conference with keynote speakers Marianne Hirsch and Leo Spitzer The articles in the first section explore the complex relationship between memory oral history and historiography in cross cultural contexts The second section includes articles on texts by Cynthia Ozick Thane Rosenbaum Daniel Handler W G Sebald Monika Maron Stephan Wackwitz Jonathan Foer Art Spiegelman Georges Arthur Goldstein Benjamin Wilkomirski Elfriede Jelinek Thomas Bernhard Tim Blake Nelson and Diane Samuel     New Books on Women and Feminism ,2003     Re-examining the Holocaust Through Literature Aukje Kluge, Benn E. Williams, 2009 In the late 1980s Holocaust literature emerged as a provocative but poorly defined scholarly field The essays in this volume reflect the increasingly international and pluridisciplinary nature of this scholarship and the widening of the definition of Holocaust literature to include comic books fiction film and poetry as well as the more traditional diaries memoirs and journals Ten contributors from four countries engage issues of authenticity evangelicalism morality representation personal experience and wish fulfillment in Holocaust literature which have been the subject of controversies in the US Europe and the Middle East Of interest to students and instructors of antisemitism national and comparative literatures theater film history literary criticism religion and Holocaust studies this book also contains an extensive bibliography with references in over twenty languages which seeks to inspire further research in an international context     Lilith ,2003     Index to Jewish Periodicals ,2004 An author and subject index to selected and American Anglo Jewish journals of general and scholarly interests     The Publishers Weekly ,2003     Folktales and Fairy Tales Anne E. Duggan Ph.D., Donald Haase Ph.D., Helen J. Callow, 2016-02-12 Encyclopedic in its coverage this one of a kind reference is ideal for students scholars and others who need reliable up to date information on folk and fairy tales past and present Folktales and fairy tales have long played an important role in cultures around the world They pass customs and lore from generation to generation provide insights into the peoples who created them and offer inspiration to creative artists working in media that now include television film manga photography and computer games This second expanded edition of an award winning reference will help students and teachers as well as storytellers writers and creative artists delve into this enchanting world and keep pace with its past and its many new facets Alphabetically organized and global in scope the work is the only multivolume reference in English to offer encyclopedic coverage of this subject matter The four volume collection covers national cultural regional and linguistic traditions from around the world as well as motifs themes characters and tale types Writers and illustrators are included as are filmmakers and composers and of course the tales themselves The expert entries within volumes 1 through 3 are based on the latest research and developments while the contents of volume 4 comprises tales and texts While most books either present readers with tales from certain countries or cultures or with thematic entries this encyclopedia stands alone in that it does both making it a truly unique one stop resource
