Journal are stories about Santa's adventures that are not restricted to only the holiday in December. They tell about his part in spreading the Christmas spirit but they also reveal that he's known to other timelines and places where he performs simple acts of kindness and resolves a surprising assortment of dilemmas. Customarily Santa's headquarters are in the North Pole and his mate is Mrs. Claus. His helpers are craftspeople and artisans commonly referred to as Elves. But Santa doesn't describe such a group of talented, skilled, and willing staff as elves, although they do seem to be magical in meeting the launch deadline every Christmas Eve. In addition, the stories you'll explore make it known that Santa has the best of technical equipment, resources, communications, and support devices available for the sole purpose of keeping his annual operations spot on. Mrs. Claus obviously recorded much of Santa's narrations, but these few accounts are all that could be restored of her journal. If she kept other such books, they have yet to be found. It is indeed a blessing that what you'll read are just some of the untouched records of Santa's life and good works that have never ever been disclosed before. You can check your computer for more information about the father of Christmas, his origins, history, and folklore, some notably under that of Saint Nicholas and possibly even relative to the Magi of biblical times. Santa crosses over so many cultures and traditions, so his names include Claawwss from the animal kingdom, St. Nick, Kris Kringle, Pelznickel, Papa Noel, Sunty Clus, No Ojisan, Grandfather Frost, Kerstman, Sinterklaas, Christkindl, Father Frost, Babbo Natale, Pere Noel, The Wonder Worker, and countless others worldwide. For the inner child in all of us, happy journeys! G.F. A to Zoo Rebecca L. Thomas, 2018-06-21

In this classic Little Golden Book from the illustrator of Tootle, The Little Red Caboose, and Scuffy the Tugboat, it's Farmer Brown's birthday, and the animals are deciding what they'll do for him on his special day. Cluck! I will give him eggs, said the hen. Said the rooster, I'll wake him in the mornings. Then Baa! We'll give him wool, said the sheep. For our fleece is soft and warm and deep. Kitty's New Doll Dorothy Kunhardt, 2011-10-26 KITTY AND HER mother go to the toy store for her very
