No Less A Man Masculist Art In A Feminist Age:

No Less a Man Douglas Robinson,1994 Through close readings of these three figures Robinson argues that more is going on among American men than meets the casual eye and that much of what is going on is reflected in the most popular of our art forms detective novels action movies and rock music No Less a Man Doug Robinson,1994-01-01 Robert B Parker s detective Spenser John Rambo created by David Morrell and played on the silver screen by Sylvester Stallone Bruce Springsteen All three Douglas Robinson claims are central figures in a new form of popular men s art art that explores what it means to be a man in a feminist age Robinson develops a three stage transformation myth out of Joseph Campbell s studies of hero mythology the road of trials on which repressive normality is tested and found lacking Spenser a symbolic death in which defensive rational ego structures are surrendered the Rambo of First Blood and regeneration and return the gradual rebirth of masculinity in a redemptive transformation Springsteen Ecce Homo Kent L. Brintnall,2024-05-31 Images of suffering male bodies permeate Western culture from Francis Bacon s paintings and Robert Mapplethorpe s photographs to the battered heroes of action movies Drawing on perspectives from a range of disciplines including religious studies gender and queer studies psychoanalysis art history and film theory Ecce Homo explores the complex ambiguous meanings of the enduring figure of the male body in pain Acknowledging that representations of men confronting violence and pain can reinforce ideas of manly tenacity Kent L Brintnall also argues that they reveal the vulnerability of men s bodies and open them up to eroticization Locating the roots of our cultural fascination with male pain in the crucifixion he analyzes the way narratives of Christ s death and resurrection both support and subvert cultural fantasies of masculine power and privilege Through stimulating readings of works by Georges Bataille Kaja Silverman and more Brintnall delineates the redemptive power of representations of male suffering and violence Ecce Homo Kent Brintnall,2011 Drawing on perspectives from a range of disciplinesa including religious studies gender and queer studies psychoanalysis art history and film theory Ecce Homo explores the complex ambiguous meanings of the enduring figure of the male body in pain Booze and the Private Eye Rita Elizabeth Rippetoe,2015-01-24 The hard bitten PI with a bottle of bourbon in his desk drawer it s an image as old as the genre of hard boiled detective fiction itself Alcohol has long been an important element of detective fiction but it is no mere prop Rather the treatment of alcohol within the works informs and illustrates the detective s moral code and casts light upon the society s attitudes towards drink This examination of the role of alcohol in hard boiled detective fiction begins with the genre s birth in an era strongly influenced and affected by prohibition and follows both the genre s development and its relation to our changing understanding of and attitudes towards alcohol and alcoholism It discusses the works of Dashiell Hammett Raymond Chandler Mickey Spillane Robert B Parker Lawrence Sanders Marcia Muller Karen Kijewski and Sue Grafton There are bibliographies of both the primary and critical texts and an index of authors and works The Promise Keepers Dane S. Claussen,2000 Now nearly 15 years old during which time it exploded in size then declined and has now plateaued the Promise Keepers and its policies have invited reactions ranging from celebration to suspicion Many see the Christian men s organization as a powerful tool to encourage and equip Christian men to face a morally complex future Others view the group as sexist or even heretical This book was the first and in most ways still the only objective analysis of the Promise Keepers and the many reactions to it Contributors to this collection of critical essays hail from the fields of political science history sociology religion and theology journalism and mass communication speech English women s studies American studies and sports science The responses range from supportive to skeptical and cover topics that go beyond the Promise Keepers to issues of evangelical Christianity gender roles men s organizations mass media and social movements
