Olsons Push Origin Black Mountain And Recent American Poetry:

Olson's Push Sherman Paul, 1978-01-01 The New American Poetry John R. Woznicki, 2013-12-24 The New American Poetry Fifty Years Later is a collection of critical essays on Donald Allen's 1960 seminal anthology The New American Poetry an anthology that Marjorie Perloff once called the fountainhead of radical American poetics The New American Poetry is referred to in every literary history of post World War II American poetry Allen's anthology has reached its fiftieth anniversary providing a unique time for reflection and reevaluation of this preeminent collection As we know Allen's anthology was groundbreaking it was the first to distribute widely the poetry and theoretical positions of poets such as Charles Olson Allen Ginsberg and the Beats and it was the first to categorize these poets by the schools Black Mountain New York School San Francisco Renaissance and the Beats by which they are known today Over the course of fifty years this categorization of poets into schools has become one of the major if not only way that The New American Poetry is remembered or valued one certain goal of this volume as one reviewer invites is to pry The New American Poetry out from the hoary platitudes that have encrusted it To this point critics mostly have examined The New American Poetry as an anthology former treatments of The New American Poetry look at it intently as a whole Though the almost singularly focused study of its construction and less often reception has lent a great deal of documented highly visible and debated material in which to consider we have been left with certain notions about its relevance that have become imbued ultimately in the collective critical consciousness of postmodernity This volume however goes beyond the analysis of construction and reception and achieves something distinctive extending those former treatments by treading on the paths they create This volume aims to discover another sense of radical that Perloff articulated rather than a radical that departs markedly from the usual we invite consideration of The New American Poetry that is radical in the sense of root of harboring something fundamental something inherent as we uncover and trace further elements correlated with its widespread influence over the last fifty years The Anthology of Black Mountain College Poetry Blake Hobby, Alessandro Porco, Joseph Bathanti, 2025-02-05 Founded in 1933 near Asheville North Carolina Black Mountain College fostered experimentation and interdisciplinary learning placing the arts at the heart of its curriculum As such the college was home to and served as inspiration for many modern and postmodern American poets Some of them including Charles Olson Robert Creeley and Denise Levertov appeared in Donald Allen's groundbreaking New American Poetry anthology published in 1960 later becoming part of the American poetry canon However many writers affiliated with Black Mountain College have been overlooked The Anthology of Black Mountain College Poetry features over fifty poets selected with an expansive historical and critical lens including those not typically considered as poets such as composer John Cage architect Buckminster Fuller and visual artist Josef Albers Many years in the making this book presents the clearest picture of the poetry and poetics of Black Mountain College yet The Poetry of Charles Olson Thomas F. Merrill, 1982 Encyclopedia of American Poetry:

The Twentieth Century Eric L. Haralson, 2014-01-21 The Encyclopedia of American Poetry The Twentieth Century contains over 400 entries that treat a broad range of individual poets and poems along with many articles devoted to topics schools or periods of American verse in the century Entries fall into three main categories poet entries which provide biographical and cultural contexts for the author's career entries on individual works which offer closer explication of the most resonant poems in the 20th century canon and topical entries which offer analyses of a given period of literary production school thematically constructed category or other verse tradition that historically has been in dialogue with the poetry of the United States

Staying Open: Charles Olson's Sources and Influences Joshua S. Hoeynck, 2019-05-03 Staying Open Charles Olson's Sources and Influences investigates the inter disciplinary influences on the work of the mid Century American poet Charles Olson This edited collection of essays covers Olson's diverse non literary interests including his engagement with the music of John Cage and Pierre Boulez his interests in abstract expressionism and his readings of philosopher Alfred North Whitehead The essays also examine Olson's pedagogy which he developed in the experimental environment at Black Mountain College as well as his six month archeological journey through the Yucatan Peninsula in 1950 to explore the culture of the Maya This book will therefore be a strong research aid to scholars working in diverse fields music archeology pedagogy philosophy art and psychology as it outlines methods for close inter disciplinary work that can uncover the mechanics of Olson's creative literary processes Building on the straightforward scholarship of George Butterick whose Guide to the Maximus Poems remains indispensable for readers of Olson's work the essays in this volume will also guide readers through the thick allusions within The Maximus Poems itself New interest in the wide ranging and non literary nature of Olson's thought in several recent academic works makes this book both timely and necessary Physics Envy American Poetry and Science in the Cold War and After by Peter Middleton as well as Contemporary Olson edited by David Herd have started the process of uncovering the extent to which Olson's inter disciplinary interests inflected his poetic compositions Staying Open extends the preliminary investigations of Olson's non literary sources in those volumes by bringing together a community of scholars working across disciplines and within a wide variety of humanistic concerns

Circling the Canon, Volume I Marjorie Perloff, 2019-11-15 Circling the Canon Volume I covers roughly the first half of Perloff's career beginning with her first ever review on Anthony Hecht's The Hard Hours

Radical Affections Miriam Nichols, 2010 In 1950 the poet Charles Olson published his influential essay Projective Verse in which he proposed a poetry of open field composition to replace traditional closed poetic forms with improvised forms that would reflect exactly the content of the poem The poets and poetry that have followed in the wake of the projectivist movement the Black Mountain group the New York School the San Francisco Renaissance and the Language poets have since been studied at length But more often than not they have been studied through the lens of continental theory with the effect that these high

Poetic Community Stephen Joyce, 2013-01-01 Poetic Community examines the relationship between poetry and community formation in the decades after the Second World War In four detailed case studies of Black Mountain College in North Carolina the Caribbean Artists Movement in London the Women s Liberation Movement at sites throughout the US and the Toronto Research Group in Canada the book documents and compares a diverse group of social models small press networks and cultural coalitions informing literary practice during the Cold War era Drawing on a wealth of unpublished archival materials Stephen Voyle offers new and insightful comparative analysis of poets such as John Cage Charles Olson Adrienne Rich Kamau Brathwaite and bpNichol In contrast with prevailing critical tendencies that read mid century poetry in terms of expressive modes of individualism Poetic Community demonstrates that the most important literary innovations of the post war period were the results of intensive collaboration and social action opposing the Cold War s ideological enclosures All Poets Welcome Daniel Kane,2003-03-26 This landmark book together with its accompanying CD captures the heady excitement of the vibrant irreverent poetry scene of New York s Lower East Side in the 1960s Drawing from personal interviews with many of the participants from unpublished letters and from rare sound recordings Daniel Kane brings together for the first time the people political events and poetic roots that coalesced into a highly influential community From the poetry reading venues of the early sixties such as those at the Les Deux M gots and Le Metro coffeehouses to The Poetry Project at St Mark s Church a vital forum for poets to this day Kane traces the history of this literary renaissance showing how it was born from a culture of publicly performed poetry The Lower East Side in the sixties proved foundational in American verse culture a defining era for the artistic and political avant garde The voices and works of John Ashbery Amiri Baraka Charles Bernstein Bill Berkson Ted Berrigan Kenneth Koch Bernadette Mayer Ron Padgett Denise Levertov Paul Blackburn Frank O Hara and many others enliven these pages and the thirty five track CD includes recordings of several of the poets reading from their work in the sixties and seventies The Lower East Side s cafes coffeehouses and salons brought together poets of various aesthetic sensibilities including writers associated with the so called New York School Beats Black Mountain Deep Image San Francisco Renaissance Umbra and others Kane shows that the significance for literary history of this loosely defined community of poets and artists lies in part in its reclaiming an orally centered poetic tradition adapted specifically to open up the possibilities for an aesthetically daring playful poetics and a politics of joy and resistance Poems Containing History Gary Grieve-Carlson,2013-11-08 Ezra Pound s definition of an epic as a poem containing history raises questions how can a poem contain history And if it can does it help us to think about history in ways that conventional historiography cannot Poems Containing History Twentieth Century American Poetry s Engagement with the Past by Gary Grieve Carlson argues that twentieth century American poetry has contained and helped its readers to think about history in a variety of provocative and powerful ways Tracing the discussion of the relationship between poetry and history from Aristotle s Poetics to Norman Mailer s The Armies of the Night and Hayden White s Metahistory the book shows that even as history evolves into a professional academic discipline in the late nineteenth century and as its practitioners emphasize the scientific aspects of their work and minimize its literary aspects twentieth century American poets continue to take history as the subject of their major poems Sometimes they endorse the views of mainstream historians as Stephen Vincent Ben t does in John Brown s Body but more often they challenge them as do Robert Penn Warren in Brother to Dragons Ezra Pound in TheCantos or Charles Olson in TheMaximus Poems In Conquistador Archibald MacLeish illustrates Aristotle s claim that poetry tells more philosophical truths about the past than history does while in Paterson William Carlos Williams develops a Nietzschean suspicion of history s value Three major American poets T S Eliot in Four Quartets Hart Crane in TheBridge and Carolyn Forch in The Angel of History present different challenges to professional historiography s assumption that the past is best understood in strictly material terms Poems Containing History devotes chapters to each of these poets and offers a clear sense of the seriousness with which American poetry has engaged the past as well as the great variety of those engagements

The Mind's Landscape David Clippinger,2006 Throughout the latter half of the twentieth century the poet WilliamBronk 1918 1999 was a significant voice in the American literarylandscape Even though he spent nearly all of his life in Hudson Falls NY Bronk was a vital presence in American poetry as evidenced byhis connections to Robert Frost Charles Olson George Oppen RobertCreeley Wallace Stevens Susan Howe Rosemarie Waldrop andothers The Mind s Landscape attempts to present a freshperspective of twentieth century literary history as seen through the lens of Bronk s life as a writer

Fieldworks Lytle Shaw,2013-01-22 Fieldworks offers a historical account of the social rhetorical and material attempts to ground art and poetry in the physicality of a site Arguing that place oriented inquiries allowed poets and artists to develop new experimental models of historiography and ethnography Lytle Shaw draws out the shifting terms of this practice from World War II to the present through a series of illuminating case studies Beginning with the alternate national genealogies unearthed by William Carlos Williams in Paterson and Charles Olson in Gloucester Shaw demonstrates how subsequent poets sought to ground such inquiries in concrete social formations to in effect live the poetics of place Gary Snyder in his back to the land familial compound Kitkitdizze Amiri Baraka in a black nationalist community in Newark Robert Creeley and the poets of Bolinas California in the capacious now of their poet run town Turning to the work of Robert Smithson who called one of his essays an appendix to Paterson and who in turn has exerted a major influence on poets since the 1970s Shaw then traces the emergence of site specific art in relation both to the poetics of place and to the larger linguistic turn in the humanities considering poets including Clark Coolidge Bernadette Mayer and Lisa Robertson By putting the poetics of place into dialog with site specificity in art Shaw demonstrates how poets and artists became experimental explicators not just of concrete locations and their histories but of the discourses used to interpret sites more broadly It is this dual sense of fieldwork that organizes Shaw s groundbreaking history of site specific poetry The Cambridge Introduction to American Poetry since 1945 Andrew Epstein,2022-12-15 Contemporary American poetry can often seem intimidating and daunting in its variety and complexity This engaging and accessible book provides the first comprehensive introduction to the rich body of American poetry that has flourished since 1945 and offers a useful map to its current landscape By exploring the major poets movements and landmark poems at the heart of this era this book presents a compelling new version of the history of American poetry that takes into account its variety and breadth its recent evolution in the new millennium its ever increasing diversity and its ongoing engagement with politics and culture Combining illuminating close readings of a wide range of representative poems with detailed discussion of historical political and aesthetic contexts this book examines how poets have tirelessly invented new forms and styles to respond to the complex realities of American life and culture

Historical Dictionary of the Beat Movement Paul Varner, 2012-06-21 The Beat Movement was one of the most radical and innovative literary and arts movements of the 20th century and the history of the Beat Movement is still being written in the early years of the 21st century Unlike other kinds of literary and artistic movements the Beat Movement is self perpetuating After the 1950s generation headlined by Jack Kerouac Allen Ginsberg and William S Burroughs a new generation arose in the 1960s led by writers such as Diane Wakoski Anne Waldman and poets from the East Side Scene In the 1970s and 1980s writers from the Poetry Project at St Mark s Church and contributors to World magazine continued the movement The 1980s and 1990s Language Movement saw itself as an outgrowth and progression of previous Beat aesthetics Today poets and writers in San Francisco still gather at City Lights Bookstore and in Boulder at the Jack Kerouac School of Disembodied Poetics and continue the movement It is now a postmodern movement and probably would be unrecognizable to the earliest Beats It may even be in the process of finally shedding the name Beat But the Movement continues The Historical Dictionary of the Beat Movement covers the movement s history through a chronology an introductory essay and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on significant people themes critical issues and the most significant novels poems and volumes of poetry and prose that have formed the Beat canon This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Beat Movement

Modernist Montage P. Adams Sitney, 1990 Tracing the history of modernism in cinema this study provides readings of a range of classic films made between 1925 and 1980 by such filmmakers as Carl Dreyer Ingmar Bergman and Robert Bresson It argues that the act of vision and visual experience are problematized in literary modernism

A Companion to Twentieth-Century Poetry Neil Roberts, 2008-06-09 In the twentieth century more people spoke English and more people wrote poetry than in the whole of previous history and this Companion strives to make sense of this crowded poetical era The original contributions by leading international scholars and practising poets were written as the contributors adjusted to the idea that the possibilities of twentieth century poetry were exhausted and finite However the volume also looks forward to the poetry and readings that the new century will bring The Companion embraces the extraordinary development of poetry over the century in twenty English speaking countries a century which began with a bipolar transatlantic connection in modernism and ended with the decentred heterogeneity of post colonialism Representation of the canonical and the marginal is therefore balanced including the full integration of women poets and feminist approaches and the in depth treatment of post colonial poets from various national traditions Discussion of context intertextualities and formal approaches illustrates the increasing self consciousness and self reflexivity of the period whilst a Readings section offers new readings of key selected texts The volume as a whole offers critical and contextual coverage of the full range of English language poetry in the last century Cross-Cultural Ezra Pound Walter Baumann,John Gery,David McKnight,2021-05-15 This volume offers new interpretations of Pound s poetics as well as new perspectives on his critical reception globally It covers Pound s work from his beginnings as a young poet in Philadelphia in the first decade of the century through his most productive years as a poet critic and translator to the first critical treatments of his work in the 1940s and 50s and on to translations of The Cantos spanning the last fifty years

Imagining Persons Robert Duncan,2017-12-15 Robert Duncan s nine lectures on Charles Olson delivered intermittently from 1961 to 1983 explore the modernist literary background and influences of Olson s influential 1950 essay Projective Verse These transcribed talks pay tribute to Olson and expand our knowledge of Duncan s vision of modernist writing

Writing in Real Time Paul Jaussen,2017-07-03 From Walt Whitman to the contemporary period the long poem has been one of the more dynamic intricate and yet challenging literary practices of modernity Addressing those challenges Writing in Real Time combines systems theory literary history and recent debates in poetics to interpret a broad range of American long poems as emergent systems capable of adaptation and transformation in response to environmental change Due to these emergent properties the long poem performs essential cultural work offering a unique experience of history that remains valuable for our rapidly transforming digital age Moving across a broad range of literary and theoretical texts Writing in Real Time demonstrates that the study of emergence can enhance literary scholarship just as literature provides unique insights into emergent properties making this book a key resource for scholars graduate students and undergraduate students alike
