Color Codes Charles A. Riley (II.),Charles A. Riley,1995 A multidisciplinary look at the role of color in contemporary aesthetics Post-Impressionists Linda Bolton,2002-10-01 Discusses the characteristics of the Post Impressionism movement which began in the late 1880s and presents biographies of fifteen Post Impressionist artists Symbolist Art Theories Henri Dorra,1994 Presents the development and the aesthetic theories of the symbolist movement in art and literature The Nabis Albert Kostenevitch,2014-05-10 Pierre Bonnard was the leader of the group of post impressionist painters who called themselves the Nabis from the Hebrew word for prophet Influenced by Odilon Redon Puvis de Chavannes popular imagery and Japanese woodblock printing Bonnard Vuillard Vallotton and Denis to name the most prominent members revolutionised the spirit of decorative technique during one of the richest periods in French painting Although the increasing individualism of their works often threatened to weaken their unity the Nabis were above all a group of close friends The artwork presented in this book varying between Bonnard s guilelessness Vuillard s ornamental and mysterious works Denis s soft languor and Vallotton s almost bitter roughness plunges us into the deep source of their creative talents

Primitivism in Modern Art Robert Goldwater,1986 This now classic study maps the profound effect of primitive art on modern as well as the primitivizing strain in modern art itself Robert Goldwater describes how and why works by primitive artists attracted modern painters and sculptors and he delineates the differences between what is truly primitive or archaic and what intentionally embodies such elements His analysis distinguishes the romanticism of Gauguin an emotional primitivism exemplified by the Brücke and Blaue Reiter groups in Germany the intellectual primitivism of Picasso and Modigliani and a primitivism of the subconscious in Miró Klee and Dalí Two of Goldwater s related essays Judgments of Primitive Art 1905 1965 and Art History and Anthropology have been added for this new paperback edition Nature's Experiments and the Search for Symbolist Form Allison Morehead, 2017-02-27 This provocative study argues that some of the most inventive artwork of the 1890s was strongly influenced by the methods of experimental science and ultimately foreshadowed twentieth century modernist practices Looking at avant garde figures such as Maurice Denis douard Vuillard August Strindberg and Edvard Munch Allison Morehead considers the conjunction of art making and experimentalism to illuminate how artists echoed the spirit of an increasingly explorative scientific culture in their work and processes She shows how the concept of nature s experiments the belief that the study of pathologies led to an understanding of scientific truths above all about the human mind and body extended from the scientific realm into the world of art underpinned artists solutions to the problem of symbolist form and provided a ready made methodology for fin de si cle truth seekers By using experimental methods to transform symbolist theories into visual form these artists broke from naturalist modes and interrogated concepts such as deformation automatism the arabesque and madness to create modern works that were radically and usefully strange Focusing on the scientific psychological and experimental tactics of symbolism Nature s Experiments and the Search for Symbolist Form demystifies the avant garde value of experimentation and reveals new and important insights into a foundational period for the development of European modernism Paul Sérusier ,
