History of American Industrial Science Courtney Robert Hall,1972 Philosophy and Technology Roger Fellows,1995-12-14 This collection of essays examines the philosophical and cultural aspects of technology from a variety of perspectives Chemical Achievers Mary Ellen Bowden,1997 This book was designed to help teachers supplement science curricula with human stories of discovery in the chemical sciences Chemical Achievers presents the lives and work of two types of achievers First are the historical greats those chemical scientists most often referred to in introductory courses Second are those scientists who made contributions in areas of the chemical sciences that are of special relevance to modern life and the career choices students will make The human faces summarized in this book range from Robert Boyle to Glenn Seaborg and Stephanie Kwolek In this lively and comprehensive collection of photographs and biographies Bowden illuminates how much the chemical sciences owe to the individual achiever Over 150 images can be easily reproduced as overhead transparencies or other visual teaching aids African Science Education Jamaine Abidogun,2018-03-15 Based on interrogation and review of historical and current cultural and indigenous knowledge combined with extensive curriculum and classroom analysis this book identifies how indigenous science gender roles may be utilized to provide a more gender balanced and indigenous centered learning experience The book argues for the integration of African indigenous science into the secondary school curriculum as a way to strengthen students science comprehension by affirming their society s science contributions making clear connections between Indigenous and Western science and also as a way to promote female representation in the sciences This book will be of interest to scholars and practitioners of science education African education and indigenous knowledge

The Projected and Prophetic: Humanity in Cyberculture, Cyberspace, and Science Fiction Jordan J. Copeland, 2020-03-31 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2011 The papers collected in this volume document the exchange and development of ideas that comprised the 5th Global Conference on Visions of Humanity in Cyberculture Cyberspace and Science Fiction hosted at Mansfield College Oxford United Kingdom in July 2010 As in the past the conference was driven by questions related to how cyberculture cyberspace and science fiction can provide new insights into the nature of what it is to be human and the understanding of what it means for human beings to live in communities In addition to these recurring themes there is just as importantly a disposition that is shared by those participating in this volume The authors as well the writers thinkers and filmmakers they consider in their essays demonstrate an intrepid and inquisitive approach that tests age old questions within the rapidly expanding but still vaguely defined spaces that new technologies have afforded us Moreover in many ways the conference and present volume reflect their subject which has always been situated self consciously and comfortably between the receding boundaries that have traditionally served both to delineate various academic disciplines and to distinguish real scholarship from popular discourse Thus as evidenced in the chapters of this volume the conference benefited from the participation of delegates who represented a variety of fields methodologies and perspectives

Tradition and Modernity Kwame Gyekye, 1997-08-28 In this important and pioneering book Kwame Gyekye examines postcolonial African experience from a viewpoint receptive to aspects of both traditional African cultures and Western political and moral theory African people in their attempt to evolve ways of life compatible with an increasingly globalized world cultural intellectual and political scene face a number of unique societal challenges some stemming Gyekye argues from traditional African values and practices others representing the legacy of European colonialism Enlisting Western political and philosophic concepts to clear comparative advantage Gyekye addresses a wide range of concrete problems afflicting postcolonial African states such as ethnicity and nation building the relationship of tradition to modernity the relationship of the nation state to community the nature of political authority and political legitimation political corruption and the threat to traditional moral and social values practices and institutions in the wake of rapid social change With striking flexibility and rare insight Gyekye assesses the value of both traditional and non African cultural components for the future of African societies and proposes alternative social and political models capable of forging a modernity appropriate for Africa The resulting book Tradition and Modernity Philosophical Reflections on the African Experience is a brilliant new contribution to postcolonial theory and will be of deep interest to scholars of political and moral philosophy cultural studies and African philosophy and politics and to anyone else concerned with the efforts of non Western societies to properly modernize Technology and Employment United States.
