Image and Identity Dauvit

Broun, 2001-01-01 This volume looks at the way that perceptions of Scottish identity have changed through the centuries from early medieval to modern times The idea of Scotland as a single country corresponding to the realm of the king of Scots and of the Scots as all the kingdom's inhabitants may only have taken root during the 13th century Dauvit Broun The 18th century is marked by a period of often competing Scottish identities and the emergence of the British state as a complicating factor in the equation R J Finlay Scottish identity has never been a fixed immutable idea whether held in the head or in the gut some of the most enduring myths of Scotland's Protestant identity were like Ireland's Catholic identity creations of the 19th century they included Jenny Geddes as a Protestant Dame Scotia throwing a stool into the works of an Anglican style church and the Magdalen Chapel in Edinburgh the home of a staunchly Catholic graft guild throughout much of the 1560s becoming the workshop of the Reformation in John Knox's time Michael Lynch Scotland Through the Ages Michael Jenner, 1987 Scotland's Populations from the 1850s to Today Michael Anderson, 2018-03-01 Scotland's Populations is a coherent and comprehensive description and analysis of the most recent 170 years of Scottish population history With its coverage of both national and local themes set in the context of changes in Scottish economy and society this study is an essential and definitive source for anyone teaching or writing on modern Scottish history sociology or geography Michael Anderson explores subjects such as population growth and decline rural settlement and depopulation and migration and emigration It sets current and recent population changes in their long term context exploring how the legacies of past demographic change have combined with a history of weak industrial investment employment insecurity deprivation and poor living conditions to produce the population profiles and changes of Scotland today While focussing on Scottish data Anderson engages in a rigorous treatment of comparisons of Scotland with its neighbours in the British Isles and elsewhere in Europe which ensures that this is more than a one country study

In 1067 William the Conqueror appointed Honfroi de Insula de Llle as the Dominus of the area around the feudal village of Combe Wiltshire He permitted Honfroi to live and build a motte and bailey castle there to assist in keeping the peace The front image is Castle Combe as it appears today
