Gilman, 2017-09-08 Diseases and Diagnoses discusses why such social problems as addiction sexually transmitted diseases racial predisposition for illness surgery and beauty and electrotherapy all of which concerned thinkers a hundred years ago are reappearing at a staggering rate and in diverse national contexts In the twentieth century such problems were viewed as only historical concerns Yet in the twenty first century we once again find ourselves confronting their implications In this fascinating volume Gilman looks at historical and contemporary debates about the stigma associated with biologically transmitted diseases He shows that there is no indisputable way to measure when a disease or therapy will reappear or how it may be perceived at any given moment in time Consequently Gilman focuses on the socio cultural and political implications that the reappearance of such diseases has had on contemporary society His approach is to show how culture embedded in cultural objects both feeds and is fed by the claims of medical science as for example the reappearance of race as a cultural as well as a medical category If the twentieth century was the age of physics in the latter part of the past century and certainly in the twenty first century biological concerns are recapturing central stage Achievements of the biological sciences are changing the public s sense of what constitutes cutting edge science and medicine None has captured the public imagination more effectively than the mapping of the human genome and the promise of genetic manipulation which fuel what Gilman calls a second age of biology Although not without controversy the role of genetics appears to be key Gilman puts contemporary debates in historical context showing how they feed social and cultural concerns as well as medical possibilities

American Short Story since 1950 Kasia Boddy,2010-08-31 The American Short Story since 1950 offers a reappraisal and contextualisation of a critically underrated genre during a particularly rich period in its history It offers new readings of important stories by key writers including Flannery O Connor John Cheever Donald Barthelme Raymond Carver Lorrie Moore and Grace Paley These readings are related throughout to the various contexts in which stories are written and published including creative writing schools story writing handbooks mass market and little magazines

If the Sky Falls Nicholas Montemarano,2005-10-01 If the Sky Falls is the debut short story collection from award winning fiction writer Nicholas Montemarano These eleven stories show why Jayne Anne Phillips has called Montemarano an American stylist capable of redeeming our darkest dreams Redemption in these intense and sometimes violent stories is found in the lyrical prose in the act of storytelling itself A young man tries to rescue his sister from her abusive lover and in the process must revisit his own family s violent history Note to Future Self a home healthcare worker pops pills and takes two men with cerebral palsy to a strip club The Usual Human Disabilities a man has a breakdown years after witnessing a brutal murder and doing nothing to help the victim The Other Man In The November Fifteen a man is taken from his home and tortured though he has no idea why when he returns home he finds a different kind of torture awaiting him Two of the stories Shift and the Pushcart Prize winning The Worst Degree of Unforgivable are stylistic tours de force But style in this collection is always at the service of story Montemarano s fiction maintains that rare balance between traditional storytelling and experimentation his work is innovative without being flashy sincere without being sentimental In an age of hype If the Sky Falls truly is the real thing an original and important achievement in the short story form

Barnstorm Raphael Kadushin,2005-02-28 Though the best American writers live everywhere now a popular fiction persists our strongest literary voices are strictly bi coastal ones Barnstorm sets out to disprove that cliché and to undermine another one as well the sense of regional fiction as something quaint slightly regressive and full of local color The stories in this collection capture our global reality with a ruthless unaffected voice Lorrie Moore s The Jewish Hunter is a dark romance that s by turns cynical and guileless Mack Friedman catches the smoking feel of first love in his Setting the Lawn on Fire and Jesse Lee Kercheval s Brazil is a raucous ultimately mournful road trip For Jane

Hamilton Wisconsin is a gorgeous but bittersweet homecoming and for Kelly Cherry in her achingly elegiac As It Is in Heaven it's the hopeful new world juxtaposed with a bleak tweedy England Dwight Allen's The Green Suit evokes the young man edging toward adulthood in a New York that's as flamboyant as an opera and Tenaya Darlington in her A Patch of Skin constructs a pure horror story because the horror of loneliness is something we all know Together Barnstorm's eclectic voices suggest that every coast now even the Great Lakes shores are at the very center of our best and truest national literature Not for sale in the United Kingdom
