PART I That is the eternal battle between the purposes of progress and building and the purposes of disintegration It goes on in your life and it goes on less bitterly in ours Help me build as we began toward the great unity This is the battle to which we call you and all who are for progress I PART II THE LESSONS The lessons came from great forces combined They represent unity of all purposes and were framed by the cooperation and agreement of the greatest forces of each constructive purpose to reach the consciousness of men in general terms of your plane PART III Science is the ladder by which life may quickly ascend but until science recognizes a spiritual force as the one essential force of which all other forces are incidental phenomena progress must be limited We have purpose to progress beyond the vision of man but even material progress to be constructive and permanent must be governed by a vision beyond the day We are trying to extend that vision

possible survival of the individual was so suddenly and pathetically increased and one heard on every hand of attempts to establish communication with those gone before I resolved to experiment again with planchette but it was not until our friend V expressed a desire to try it with me sometime in 1917 that I really bought one For almost a year it lay untouched in its box and when finally we found opportunity to test it we had no success It did not move from the spot where we placed it and I made no attempt to try it alone About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
