Lovers Discourse Fragments:

A Lover's Discourse Roland Barthes, 2002 May be the most detailed painstaking anatomy of desire that we are ever likely to see or need again An ecstatic celebration of love and language Washington Post The language we use when we are in love is not a language we speak It is a language addressed to ourselves and to our imaginary beloved It is a language of solitude of mythology of what Barthes calls an image repertoire Reviving the notion of the amorous subject beyond psychological or clinical enterprises Barthes A Lover's Discourse is a book for everyone who has ever been in love or indeed thought themselves to be immune to its power

A Lover's Discourse Roland Barthes, 1979-06-01 Barthes's most popular and unusual performance as a writer is A Lover's Discourse a writing out of the discourse of love This language primarily the complaints and reflections of the lover when alone not exchanges of a lover with his or her partner is unfashionable Thought it is spoken by millions of people diffused in our popular romances and television programs as well as in serious literature there is no institution that explores maintains modifies judges repeats and otherwise assumes responsibility for this discourse Writing out the figures of a neglected discourse Barthes surprises us in A Lover's Discourse by making love in its most absurd and sentimental forms an object of interest Jonathan Culler

Fragments D'un Discours Amoureux. English . a Lover's Discourse : Fragments Roland Barthes, 1979 A Lover's Discourse Professor Roland Barthes, 2010-07 Traditional Chinese edition of A Lover's Discourse Fragments A study of the heart and the discourses that occur when a lover is on his or her own apart from the other person Special Issue: Roland Barthes' Fragments of a Lover's Discourse Patrick Ffrench, Timothy Mathews, 2023 The intertextuality of Roland Barthes's "The Lover's Discourse" in Jeffrey Eugenides novel "The Marriage Plot" Olena Brandes, 2022-08-31 Seminar paper from the year 2021 in the subject Literature Comparative Literature grade 1.7 University of Göttingen language English abstract The aim of this paper is to explore the different intertextual links between the two literary works While the main character Madeleine deconstructs Barthes's deconstruction of love in her term paper and applies it to her own life the narrator deconstructs Madeleine's love life and this paper should deconstruct the narration's deconstruction of the relationship If the concept of love is to be seen as an architectural building consisting of a foundation roofs walls floors stairs openings standing in a specific location and having a personal interior design it can be disassembled into its individual parts Even though most buildings are different and fewest are identical they all share the same basic elements they are built of The French philosopher Roland Barthes breaks down the concept of love into its fragments in his work A Lover's Discourse 1977 34 years later the American novelist Jeffrey Eugenides publishes a romance novel The Marriage Plot 2011 where Barthes's fragments are a reference point to the narrator Some of these fragments are direct quotes but most remain unsaid lying under the surface Finding all fragments would go beyond the constraints of this paper Thus the focus should be on only a few fragments In particular focusing on the most prominent main character's perspective while the plot contains two more discourses on love from the main character's love interests Paralyses John Culbert, 2010-01-01 Modernity has long been equated with motion travel and change from Marx's critical diagnoses of economic instability to the Futurists glorification of speed Likewise metaphors of travel serve widely in discussions of empire cultural contact translation and globalization from Deleuze's nomadology to James Clifford's traveling cultures John Culbert in contrast argues that the key texts of modernity and postmodernity may be approached through figures and narratives of paralysis motion is no more defining of modern travel than fixations resistance and impasse concepts and figures of travel he posits must be rethought in this more static light Focusing on the French and Francophone context in which paralyzed travel is a persistent motif Culbert also offers new insights into French critical theory and its often paradoxical figures of mobility from Blanchot's pas au del and Barthes's dérive to Derrida's aporias and Glissant's diversions Here we see that paralysis is not merely the failure of transport but rather the condition in which travel by coming to a crisis calls into question both mobility and stasis in the language of desire and the order of knowledge Paralyses provides a close analysis of the rhetoric of empire and the economy of tourism precisely at their points of breakdown which in turn enables a deconstruction of master narratives of exploration conquest and exoticism A reassessment of key authors of French modernity from Nerval and Gautier to Fromentin Paulhan Beckett Leiris and Boudjedra Paralyses also constitutes a new theoretical intervention in debates on travel translation ethics and postcoloniality Encounters with the Other Martin Calder, 2021-12-28 Encounters with the Other brings together a range of eighteenth century texts in which the exploration of lingua incognita figures as a prominent topos Drawing mostly on a corpus of French texts but also including a number of works in English Martin Calder attempts to realign well known texts with more canonically marginalized works The originality of the perspectives offered by this book lies in the comparative reading of works not previously conjoined Encounters with otherness are marked by a transgression of the limits of language occurring when language becomes alien or unfamiliar Alterity may take various forms a foreign language a familiar language marked by the traits of foreignness something unrecognizable as language or even one's own language breaking down as in madness Unfamiliar language may be produced by a foreigner by a child who cannot yet speak in extreme cases by something unrecognizably human in all cases by an agency somehow marked by difference Narratives of encounters with otherness have written into them narratives of the discovery of the self Implicitly informed by the reading techniques associated with literary theory Encounters with the Other offers an insightful commentary on issues surrounding colonialism cultural difference gender and the importance of language to identity Martin Calder's work challenges certain Eurocentric notions and exposes the problematic links between Enlightenment rationality and colonial expansion This book is of interest both to undergraduate students and to academic researchers and to a more general readership concerned with understanding the relationship between Europe the West and a wider world Universal (In the Realm of the Sensible) Dorothea Olkowski, 2007-03-02 The Universal In the realm of the sensible Beyond Continental Philosophy proposes a radical new philosophical system that moves from ontology to ethics Dorothea Olkowski develops the concept of an ontological unconscious a connection arising from our sensible relation to the world that conditions encounters with the environment and with others This fundamental ontology rethinks the space time relations opened by Irigaray s notion of the interval Bergson s recollection Merleau Ponty s idea of the flesh and Deleuze s plane of immanence Writing in an original style inspired by literature and the arts Olkowski locates a realm of the senses a field of vulnerability felt as pleasures and pains This presents an aesthetic sense of something universal to all human kind as well as to the organic and inorganic world In addition to this proposal for a wider ontology the relation between traditional ontologies and politics is examined as a means of opening politics beyond a no exit or limit cycle Instead a multiplicity of self organized emergent perspectives emerges eliminating the need for the connections conjunctions and disjunctions of the Kantian paradigm at work in contemporary continental philosophy This is a timely controversial and important book that will contribute enormously to the study of Deleuze and Continental Philosophy

Discourses of Desire Linda S. Kauffman, 1988 Kauffman looks at a neglected genre the love letter written by literary heroines Tracing the development of the genre from Ovid to the twentieth century novel she explores the important implications of these amatory discourses for an understanding of fictive representation in general

The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
