The fountains mingle with the river
And the rivers with the ocean,
The winds of heaven mix for ever
With a sweet emotion;
Nothing in the world is single,
All things by a law divine
In one another's being mingle—
Why not I with thine?

See the mountains kiss high heaven,
And the waves clasp one another;
No sister-flower would be forgiven
If it disdain'd its brother;
And the sunlight clasps the earth,
And the moonbeams kiss the sea—
What is all this sweet work worth
If thou kiss not me?

Percy Bysshe Shelley

dominate for its own sake and to dominate which has characterised the human species to date causing suffering both to itself and other life forms. The faculty of Imagination and the activity of compassion represents the next stage in human evolution and its awakening will enable mankind to develop beyond its current mental and spiritual limitations and the perils which plague it. The poems represent allegories addressing these issues and intimate the means by which we might continue to progress.

Love and the Politics of Intimacy Stanislava Dikova, Wendy McMahon, Jordan Savage, 2023-01-12

Love and the Politics of Intimacy articulates the concept of love within the relationship between the intimate and the social, rethinking how intimacy is conceived and experienced in the context of 21st century neoliberalism. Reflecting on experiences of intimate romantic and sexual love and the role of individual identity, these essays explore historical trajectories that have culminated in particular contemporary experiences of intimate love. Politically, this work links identity and articulation of the self to liberatory practices in the arenas of friendship, romance, and sex. This interdisciplinary exploration of what love means in the 21st century incorporates academic writing and original creative work from established and emerging scholars around the globe. Essays from across the humanities and social sciences, including literary studies, sociology, psychology, philosophy, and gender studies, interrogate the role of relational intimacy on topics of Love and Romance, Love and Liberation, and Love and Technologies of Intimacy. The volume looks at the past, present, and future in search of inspiration for transforming and re-charting the pathways of love, seeking a more diverse and emancipatory model of social life and what it would take to restore love to social and institutional spaces.
