Solid Bluestone Foundations Kathleen Fitzpatrick,2015-09-08 Hughenden the seaside mansion of Kathleen s grandparents provided the solid bluestone foundations of her somewhat peripatetic youth offering her

a haven of emotional security and material abundance The puzzled observations and alert curiosity of a highly intelligent child are vividly recreated in these beautifully written recollections which paint an evocative picture of middle class life in Melbourne in the early years of the twentieth century The divisions between her Catholic and Protestant grandparents and the contrast between the dedicated civil servants on one side of the family and the energetic entrepreneurs on the other are depicted with the sharp eyed acuity of youth Kathleen s mediocre schooling the awakening of her feminist consciousness her discovery at the University of Melbourne of her true vocation as a historian and her unhappy experiences at Oxford are major themes of her memoir The book is greatly enhanced by Susan Davies Introduction family tree and other materials offering valuable new insights and information for historians those interested in women s lives and scholars of Australian autobiography First time readers as well as those already familiar with Solid Bluestone Foundations will welcome this elegant new edition of Kathleen Fitzpatrick s charming recollection of an Australian childhood

Sand in Our Souls Leone Huntsman, 2001 Images of the beach pervade Australian popular culture However the deeper significance of the experience of the beach and its influence on Australian culture generally have not yet been seriously explored How why and when did the beach become part of the Australian way of life In Sand in our Souls Leone Huntsman describes the forces and pressures that encouraged or impeded Australians enjoyment of sand and surf from early enjoyment of bathing through nearly a century of repressive restrictions to freedom won in the face of drawn out opposition The ways in which artists writers film makers and the advertising industry have depicted the beach are examined for the light they throw on the beach s significance She traces the development of a distinctively Australian way of being at the beach suggesting that the beach experience has been absorbed into our emerging culture and continues to shape it in subtle ways Huntsman s provocative arguments will stimulate debate on the concept of national identity appropriate for a new Australian century and promote a deeper understanding of an aspect of life in Australia that is cherished by many of those who live here
