Lucy Orta:

LUCY ORTA. ,2001 Lucy Orta Roberto Pinto,Nicolas Bourriaud, Lucy Orta, Maia Damianovic,2003-11 An introduction to the artist s merging of architecture fashion and social activism Designing for the 21st Century Tom Inns,2021-09-02 As we become familiar with the 21st century we can see that what we are designing is changing new technologies support the creation of new forms of product and service and new pressures on business and society demand the design of solutions to increasingly complex problems sometimes local often global in nature Customers users and stakeholders are no longer passive recipients of design expectations are higher and increased participation is often essential This book explores these issues through the work of 21 research teams Over a twelve month period each of these groups held a series of workshops and events to examine different facets of future design activity as part of the UK s research council supported Designing for the 21st Century Research Initiative Each of these 21 contributions describes the context of enquiry the journey taken by the research team and key insights generated through discourse Editor and Initiative Director Tom Inns provides an introductory chapter that suggests ways that the reader might navigate these different viewpoints Process of Transformation Lucy Orta,Pierre Restany,1998 Text by Joachim Pissarro Visual Activism in the 21st Century Stephanie Hartle,Darcy White,2022-07-28 The world is in crisis bringing activists and protesters onto the streets and into the public eye More than ever activism relies on spectacle and visibility in order to be noticed in the era of globalized capitalism and networked media At the same time a growing number of artists employ creative strategies to critique the establishment act in resistance and demand change Visual activism of this kind is not new but it is rapidly evolving This anthology presents 16 case studies of visual activism from across the globe providing an up to date picture of the impact of contemporary visual and art activism and combining a scholarly interrogation of visual activism with an examination of how it works in practice The case studies address a wide range of issues including human rights abuses state violence gender and sexuality racism migration and climate breakdown They examine a range of approaches from playful carnivalesque parades to extreme practices such as lip sewing and are drawn from a wide range of international contexts from Europe and the US to Iran India Pakistan Tunisia and China This diverse scope enables readers to consider examples comparatively noticing emerging trends and key differences to reveal how geopolitical and cultural factors play an important role in shaping activist practices This rich and timely collection provides a fresh perspective on the possibilities limitations and politics of visual activism as activists artists and curators respond to the changing world around them in this most uncertain of times Landscapes of Mobility Jennifer Johung,2016-04-22 Our world is unquestionably one in which ubiquitous movements of people goods technologies media money and ideas produce systems of flows Comparing case studies from across the world including those from Benin the United States India Mali Senegal Japan Haiti and Romania this book focuses on quotidian landscapes of mobility Despite their seemingly familiar and innocuous appearances these spaces exert tremendous control over our behavior and activities

By examining and mapping the politics of place and motion this book analyzes human beings embodied engagements with their built world and provides diverse perspectives on the ideological and political underpinnings of landscapes of mobility In order to describe landscapes of mobility as a historically socially and politically constructed condition the book is divided into three sections objects contacts and flows The first section looks at elements that constitute such landscapes including mobile bodies buildings and practices across multiple geographical scales As these variable landscapes are reconstituted under particular social economic ecological and political conditions the second section turns to the particular practices that catalyze embodied relations within and across such spaces Finally the last section explores how the flows of objects bodies interactions and ecologies are represented presenting a critical comparison of the means by which relations processes and exchanges are captured depicted reproduced and re embodied

Ecodramaturgies Lisa Woynarski, 2020-11-25 This book addresses theatre's contribution to the way we think about ecology our relationship to the environment and what it means to be human in the context of climate change It offers a detailed study of the ways in which contemporary performance has critiqued and re imagined everyday ecological relationships in more just and equitable ways The broad spectrum of ecologically oriented theatre and performance included here largely from the UK US Canada Europe and Mexico have problematised reframed and upended the pervasive and reductive images of climate change that tend to dominate the ecological imagination Taking an inclusive approach this book foregrounds marginalised perspectives and the multiple social and political forces that shape climate change and related ecological crises framing understandings of the earth as home Recent works by Fevered Sleep Rimini Protokoll Violeta Luna Deke Weaver Metis Arts Lucy Jorge Orta as well as Indigenous activist movements such as NoDAPL and Idle No More are described in detail alternative paths through conventional landscapes Featuring twenty three interviews with new and established international designers this collection covers everything from coats designed to protect digital privacy to high performing jeans that combat air pollution and to hi vis cyclewear as a response to urban harassment The interviews in Wearable Utopias are organized into six key themes addressing a selection of pressing civic issues expanding wearables that push physical social and political boundaries moving wearables that enable participation in a wider range of sport and activities concealing wearables that defend privacy or keep secrets connecting wearables that link individuals to large scale issues leaking wearables that challenge the idea that urinating and menstruating are problematic or taboo and working wearables that address inequalities in the workplace Wearable Utopias offers insight and inspiration for students researchers designers and anyone making things to wear who is frustrated with daily inequities and normative limitations and wants to do things differently This book is part of the European Research Council funded project Politics of Patents POP Reimagining Citizenship via Clothing Inventions hosted at Goldsmiths University of London led by Kat Jungnickel with Ellen Fowles Research Assistant Katja May Postdoctoral Fellow and Nikki Pugh Research Assistant Wearable Utopias offers insight and inspiration for students researchers designers and anyone making things to wear who is frustrated with daily inequities and normative limitations and wants to do things differently

It's Not Personal Susan Best, 2021-06-17 How does something as potent and evocative as the body become a relatively neutral artistic material From the 1960s much body art and performance conformed to the anti expressive ethos of minimalism and conceptualism whilst still using the compelling human form But how is this strange mismatch of vigour and impersonality able to transform the body into an expressive medium for visual art Focusing on renowned artists such as Lygia Clark Marina Abramovic and Angelica Mesiti Susan Best examines how bodies are configured in late modern and contemporary art She identifies three main ways in which they are used as material and argues that these formulations allow for the exposure of pressing social and psychological issues In skilfully aligning this new typology for body art and performance with critical theory she raises questions pertaining to gender inter subjectivity relation and community that continue to dominate both our artistic and cultural conversation
