military technology and trade from Ming China contributed to the emergence of Northern Mainland Southeast Asia between the 1430s and 1530s which was epitomized in the rise of the Maw Shans the decisive defeat of Champa by Dai Viet Dai Viet's long march as far as the Irrawaddy River the prosperity and military strength of Lan Na the rise of Mongmit and Mohnyin and the sack of Ava by Mohnyin and the expansion of the Ahoms However after the arrival of European military technology via the maritime route after the early sixteenth century the tables were turned Southern Mainland Southeast Asia as represented by Burma Myanmar started its northward and eastward expansion at the expense of Northern Mainland Southeast Asia Without denying internal dynamics this dissertation demonstrates that the shift of external stimuli in particular military technology changed the orientation of mainland Southeast Asian history and Sino Southeast Asian overland interactions Dai People's Indigenous Knowledge System of Communal Irrigation Vinya Sysamouth, 2005

Mon-Khmer: Peoples of the Mekong Region Ronald D. Renard, Kr. Anchalee Singhanetra Renard, 2015-03-01 The Mon Khmer project took a long journey before it was turned into a final product the first comprehensive collection of articles on Mon Khmer peoples of the Mekong Region The project was started in 2001 by the first editor of the book Dr Ronald D Renard who unfortunately did not see the final product of his valuable work During 1995 1996 Dr Ron Renard as the manager of the UNDP Highland People project and I travelled to Northeast Cambodia Vietnam and Laos to explain to representatives of ethnic communities the aim of the project and how the ethnic minorities many of whom are Mon Khmer could be involved and benefit from it It may well be that this encounter with these ethnic groups made him expand his intellectual interest to study them in addition to the Karen in Thailand whose history of integration into the Siamese state he had studied for his dissertation completed in 1980 According to my last conversation with Ron it was during the time when he worked for the Journal of Siam Society in the late 1990s that he decided to embark upon the Mon Khmer project which preoccupied the last part of his academic life
