Women, Identity and Private Life in Britain, 1900-50 Andrew Gamble, Gillian Peele, 1995-04-10 Women Identity and Private Life in Britain 1900 50 explores the meanings and experience of home and private life for women who grew up in England before 1950 It considers the extent to which class suburbanisation and historical moment as well as gender constructed women s understanding of domesticity and discusses the part played by conceptions of home and private life in the shaping of identities Oral narratives fiction autobiography and diaries are used in conjunction with psychoanalytic linguistic and historical explanations of women s lives to map a psychological as well as a social history of women s relationship to the home in the early part of this century

The Penguin Guide to the Superstitions of Britain and Ireland Steve Roud, 2006-04-06 Are black cats lucky or unlucky What should you do when you hear the first cuckoo Since when have people believed that it s unlucky to shoot an albatross Why does breaking a mirror lead to misfortune This fascinating collection answers these and many other questions about the world of superstitions and forms an endlessly browsable guide to a subject that continues to obsess and intrigue

Garlands, Conkers and Mother-Die Roy Vickery, 2010-09-02 Plants have had symbolic as well as practical meanings and uses since the beginning of human civilisation This vivid account introduces readers to a rich variety of British and Irish plant folklore drawing on Roy Vickery s own unsurpassed archives collated over forty years and a wide range of historical and contemporary literature Unlike other books which re use material collected in the Victorian era this book is based on new material collected by the author and shows that while some of the wilder superstitions have faded we still cling to the symbolic importance of plants Putting conkers in wardrobes keeps moths away and parsley the Devil s plant only germinates if sown on Good Friday A potato in the bed helps do away with cramp and in Cornwall crawling under a bramble bush was considered a cure for blackheads From plants that foretold births and deaths to herbal remedies planting and harvesting rituals friendship bushes and festive garlands this is a book of rich and living social history and folklore Cohabitation and Non-Marital Births in England and Wales, 1600-2012 R. Probert, 2014-06-23 Today cohabiting relationships account for most births outside marriage But what was the situation in earlier centuries Bringing together leading historians demographers and lawyers this interdisciplinary collection draws on a wide range of sources to examine the changing context of non marital child bearing in England and Wales since 1600 Genealogies Cataloged by the Library of Congress Since 1986 Library of Congress, 1991 The bibliographic holdings of family histories at the Library of Congress Entries are arranged alphabetically of the works of those involved in Genealogy and also items available through the Library of Congress Healing the Hospital Environment Liz Haggard, Sarah Hosking, 2003-09-02 Healing the Hospital Environment identifies why many healthcare premises do not look or feel welcoming and why even well intentioned efforts to make improvements are unsuccessful The authors show that significant improvements can be made within limited resources if hospitals recognise what can be achieved set standards and invest in the relevant design expertise It gives a wide range of examples of effective improvement in design maintenance and management of all types of hospital and healthcare premises and their surrounding land Oral History, 1991 Fraudulent Lives Steven King, 2024-11-15 The Western welfare state model is beset with structural financial and moral crises So called scroungers cheats and disability fakers persistently occupy the centre of public policy discussions even as official statistics suggest that relatively small amounts of money are lost to such schemes In Fraudulent Lives Steven King focuses on the British case in the first ever long term analysis of the scale meaning and consequences of welfare fraud in Western nations King argues that an expectation of dishonesty on the part of claimants was written into the basic fabric of the founding statutes of the British welfare state in 1601 and that nothing has subsequently changed Efforts throughout history to detect and punish fraud have been superficial at best because he argues it has never been in the interests of the three main stakeholders claimants the general public and officials and policymakers to eliminate it Tracing a substantial underbelly of fraud from the seventeenth century to today King finds remarkable continuities and historical parallels in public attitudes towards the honesty of welfare recipients patterns that hold true across Western welfare states London Theatre Record, 1985 The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books, 1986 to 1987 British Library, 1988 Women in Context Barbara Kanner, 1997 A comprehensive and versatile source for researchers in a broad range of disciplines Women in Context is a biographical analytical and critical bibliography of narrative autobiographies written by over eight hundred women born in the United Kingdom and British territories from the mid eighteenth century to mid twentieth centuries Each entry provides publication and catalog information a brief biographical sketch an analysis of the topical content and a critical comment on style tone and purpose of the autobiography The love Letters of Mary Queen of Scots to James Earl of Bothwell Maria (Schottland,
