Man's Place in Nature, 1863 Thomas Henry Huxley, 2003 Huxley was one of the first adherents to Darwin's theory of evolution by natural selection and advanced its acceptance by scientists and the public Man's Place in Nature was explicitly directed against Richard Owen who had claimed that there were distinct differences between human brains and those of apes Huxley demonstrated that ape and human brains were fundamentally similar in every anatomical detail thus applying evolution to the human race A Journey of Miracles Pastor Virgil Wynia, Pastor Becky Wynia, 2012-09-29 He's dead Virgil thought searching Chris face He just couldn't shake the thought that he must keep praying He continued despite not seeing any sign that the guy was responding while good friend and recent medical student Chris continued to pray fervently also while watching for signs of life The two men knew life was God's gift and death came from the enemy They continued their quest for several minutes while the woman who was with the dead man carried on screaming hysterically There were no signs of life He was clearly not responding They were on a remote bank of Craine Prairie Reservoir in Central Oregon's high country There were no cell phones and there was no way to call for help The two men were in a dingy searching for the perfect spot to fish when they heard the woman's cries for help and responded They continued their quest for the man's life when suddenly he stirred Virgil was sure the dead man moved The Bekaa Ray Sproule, 2024-07-08 An adventure tale with murder intrigue treasure and romance amid intimations of a past where Phoenician triremes sailed the Mediterranean Sea set in 1957 strife-ridden Lebanon It follows freelance journalist Matthew Thorne from Montreal Paris and Beirut to Lebanon's Bekaa Valley in pursuit of the murder of an old mercurial college friend The Working Man's Friend, and Family Instructor, 1852 Christianity in Evolution Jack Mahoney, 2011-08-01 Evolution has provided a new understanding of reality with revolutionary consequences for Christianity In an evolutionary perspective the incarnation involved God entering the evolving human species to help it imitate the trinitarian altruism in whose image it was created and counter its tendency to self-absorption Primarily however the evolutionary achievement of Jesus was to confront and overcome death in an act of cosmic significance ushering humanity into the culminating stage of its evolutionary destiny the full sharing of God's inner life Previously such doctrines as original sin the fall sacrifice and atonement stemmed from viewing death as the penalty for sin and are shown not only to have serious difficulties in themselves but also to emerge from a Jewish culture preoccupied with sin and sacrifice that could not otherwise account for death The death of Jesus on the cross is now seen as saving humanity not from sin but from individual extinction and meaninglessness Death is now seen as a normal process that affects all living things and the religious doctrines connected with explaining it in humans are no longer required or justified Similar evolutionary implications are explored affecting other subjects of Christian belief including the Church the Eucharist priesthood and moral behavior Chamber's Journal of Popular Literature, Science and Arts, 1868 The Encyclopaedia Britannica, 1855 Causes of General Depression in Labor and Business United States.
