Deductive and Object-Oriented Databases Tok W. Ling, Alberto O. Mendelzon, Laurent Vieille, 1995-11-15 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 4th International Conference on Deductive and Object Oriented Databases DOOD 95 held in Singapore in December 1995 Besides two keynote papers by Stefano Ceri and Michael Kifer the book contains revised full versions of 28 papers selected from a total of 88 submissions The volume gives a highly competent state of the art report on DOOD research and advanced applications The papers are organized in sections on active databases query processing semantic query optimization transaction management authorization implementation and applications Next Generation Information Technologies and Systems Ron Y. Pinter, Shalom Tsur, 2003-07-31 The Next Generation Information Technologies and Systems NGITS workshop series is a biannual event held in Israel since 1993 Like its predecessors NGITS 99 brings together active members of the international research community interested in information technology and knowledge based systems Many of the base technologies in the traditional areas of database management systems information retrieval and resource optimization are being deployed nowadays in novel systems and applications that flourish with the astonishing increase in computational power storage capacity communication and of course the advent of the world wide web These new fronts in turn present an ever growing set of challenges to the technologies such as data availability information integrity and knowledge extraction fuelling an exciting set of activities Our workshop clearly reflects this trend offering a rich sample of the state of the art at the close of the millennium and a glimpse of what is to come in the next one In response to the call for papers we received 34 high quality submissions 22 of which were carefully selected by the Program Committee for presentation at the workshop and inclusion in these proceedings These include 17 full length papers as well as 5 short papers that will be accompanied by demonstrations during the workshop In addition it is our pleasure to feature two invited talks given by Professor J Ullman of Stanford University and IBM Fellow C Mohan Developments in the Acquisition of Clitics Kleanthes K. Grohmann, Theoni Neokleous, 2014-03-17 The present volume presents new theoretical and empirical findings on the acquisition and development of clitics in and across different languages It features ten chapters that largely emerged from the CYCL1A Workshop on the Acquisition of Clitics held in Nicosia Cyprus in May 2012 These chapters explore issues pertaining to the first L1 and second language L2 acquisition of clitic pronouns There is an emphasis on Greek with the first four chapters discussing mono and bilingual acquisition of clitics in Cypriot Greek and the next two chapters on Standard Modern Greek Three contributions focus on Albanian Serbo Croatian and European Portuguese respectively The last chapter of this volume is an invited contribution by Ken Wexler on the Unique Checking Constraint as an explanation of clitic omission in normal and SLI development This volume will constitute a valuable reference guide for current work on the acquisition of clitic pronouns Queer Objects Guy Davidson, Monique Rooney, 2020-06-29 Pursuing the discursive or material effects of relational queerness this book reflects on how objects can illuminate affect and animate

queer modes of being In the early 1990s the queer theorist Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick defined queer as multiply transitive relational and strange rather than a fixed identity In spite of this much of the queer theoretical scholarship of the last three decades has used queer as a synonym for anti normative sexual identities The contributions to this volume return to the idea of transitivity exploring what happens when queer is thought of as a turning toward or turning away from a diverse range of objects including bodily waste frozen cats archival ephemera the writing of Virginia Woolf the Pop art of Ray Johnson the podcast S Town and Maggie Nelson s memoir The Argonauts Relevant to those studying queer theory this book will also be of wider interest to those researching identity and the way in which it is represented in a variety of artistic disciplines This book was originally published as a special issue of Angelaki Mothers of Promise Tammi J. Schneider, 2008-08-01 Eve Noah s wife Sarah Tamar Asenath and others played a critical role in shaping the nation and faith of Israel But we need to look closely at their stories to fully understand their impact Respected Hebrew scholar and archaeologist Tammi Schneider takes us into the biblical account by carefully reading the stories of all the women in Genesis and illuminating the text with cultural background and archaeological insights Her careful and creative approach challenges traditional ways of seeing these women and gives a fresh perspective on familiar stories The result is a readable thoughtful and biblically grounded look at the roles and functions of Genesis women and a solid resource for studies of Genesis women in the Bible and women s issues

Mobile Agents Gian P. Picco, 2003-06-30 Recent years have witnessed the appearance of new paradigms for designing distributed applications where the application components can be relocated namicallly across the hosts of the network This form of code mobility lays the foundation for a new generation of technologies architectures models and plications in which the location at which the code is executed comes under the control of the designer rather than simply being a con guration accident Among the various avors of mobile code the mobile agent paradigm has become particularly popular Mobile agents are programs able to determine tonomously their own migration to a di erent host and still retain their code and state or at least a portion thereof Thus distributed computations do not necessarily unfold as a sequence of requests and replies between clients and mote servers rather they encompass one or more visits of one or more mobile agents to the nodes involved Mobile code and mobile agents hold the potential to shape the next gene tion of technologies and models for distributed computation The rst steps of this process are already evident today Web applets provide a case for the least sophisticated form of mobile code Java based distributed middleware makes creasing use of mobile code and the rst commercial applications using mobile agents are starting to appear Grammar for Grown-ups Katherine Fry, Rowena Kirton, 2012-09-06 A comprehensive but light hearted guide to grammar for the twenty first century Agitated about apostrophes Struggling with spelling Dithering over dangling participles Stumped by the subjunctive Relax Help is at hand For native English speakers who realise that there is more to good English than meets the eye but don t know where to start for parents struggling to explain the finer details to their kids and for English language students everywhere this is the only

book you need Grammar for Grown Ups guides you through the perils pitfalls and problematic aspects of the English language with fun test yourself sections all the way

Answerable Style Arnold Stein, 1953-01-01 Answerable Style was first published in 1953 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions By the use of both new and traditional techniques of critical analysis Arnold Stein presents in this volume of six essays a fresh interpretation of Milton's epic Beginning with the assumption that style is answerable to idea he has tried to trace Milton's epic vision as it is bodied forth in patterns of structure the ideas tested in action and patterns of expression the ideas tested in style Mr Stein explains My approach is in part based on an attempt to accept as fact both that I am a twentieth century reader and that this is a seventeenth century poem Milton is I think illuminated by some modern critical considerations and some of those considerations are in turn illuminated and some are found wanting

The Logic of Intentional Objects Jacek

Pasniczek, 2013-03-14 Intentionality is one of the most frequently discussed topics in contemporary phenomenology and analytic philosophy This book investigates intentionality from the point of view of intentional objects According to the classical approach to this concept whatever can be consciously experienced is regarded as an intentional object Thus not only ordinary existing individuals but also various kinds of non existents and non individuals are considered as intentional including such bizarre entities as quantifier objects some dog every dog Alexius Meinong an Austrian philosopher is particularly well known as the inventor of an abundant ontology of objects among which even incomplete and impossible ones like the round square find their place Drawing inspirations from Meinong's ideas the author develops a simple logic of intentional objects M logic M logic closely resembles classical first order logic and as opposed to the formally complicated contemporary theories of non existent objects it is much more friendly in apprehending and applications However despite this resemblance the ontological content of M logic far exceeds that of classical logic In this book formal investigations are intertwined with philosophical analyses On the one hand M logic is used as a tool for investigating formal features of intentional objects On the other hand the study of intentionality phenomena suggests further ways of extending and modifying M logic Audience The book is addressed to logicians cognitive scientists philosophers of language and metaphysics with either a phenomenological or an analytic background

Freud's Jaw and Other Lost Objects Lana Lin, 2017-11-07

What does it mean to live with life threatening illness How does one respond to loss Freud's Jaw and Other Lost Objects attempts to answer these questions and as such illuminates the vulnerabilities of the human body and how human beings suffer harm In particular it examines how cancer disrupts feelings of bodily integrity and agency Employing psychoanalytic theory and literary analysis Lana Lin tracks three exemplary figures psychoanalyst Sigmund Freud poet Audre Lorde and literary and queer theorist Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick Freud's sixteen year ordeal with a prosthetic jaw the result of oral cancer demonstrates the powers and failures of prosthetic objects in warding off physical and psychic fragmentation Lorde's life writing reveals how losing a breast to cancer is experienced as yet another attack directed toward her racially and sexually vilified body Sedgwick's memoir and breast cancer advice column negotiate her morbidity by disseminating a public discourse of love and pedagogy Lin concludes with an analysis of reparative efforts at the rival Freud Museums in London and Vienna The disassembled Freudian archive like the subjectivities in dissolution upon which the book focuses shows how the labor of integration is tethered to persistent discontinuities Freud's Jaw asks what are the psychic effects of surviving in proximity to one's mortality and it suggests that violences stemming from social cultural and biological environments condition the burden of such injury Drawing on psychoanalyst Melanie Klein's concept of reparation wherein constructive forces are harnessed to repair damage to internal psychic objects Lin proposes that the prospect of imminent destruction paradoxically incites creativity The afflicted are obliged to devise means to reinstate at least temporarily their destabilized physical and psychic unity through creative reparative projects of love and writing

Large-Scale Parallel Data Mining

Mohammed J. Zaki, Ching-Tien Ho, 2003-07-31 With the unprecedented growth rate at which data is being collected and stored electronically today in almost all fields of human endeavor the efficient extraction of useful information from the data available is becoming an increasing scientific challenge and a massive economic need This book presents thoroughly reviewed and revised full versions of papers presented at a workshop on the topic held during KDD 99 in San Diego California USA in August 1999 complemented by several invited chapters and a detailed introductory survey in order to provide complete coverage of the relevant issues The contributions presented cover all major tasks in data mining including parallel and distributed mining frameworks associations sequences clustering and classification All in all the volume presents the state of the art in the young and dynamic field of parallel and distributed data mining methods It will be a valuable source of reference for researchers and professionals

Medusa's Mirrors Julia M. Walker, 1998 The question of selfhood in Renaissance texts constitutes a scholarly and critical debate of almost unmanageable proportions The author of this work begins by questioning the strategies with which male writers depict powerful women Although Spenser's Britomart Shakespeare's Cleopatra and Milton's Eve figure selfhood very differently and to very different ends they do have two significant elements in common mirrors and transformations that diminish the power of the female self

Reading

Sedgwick Lauren Berlant, 2019-10-29 Over the course of her long career Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick became one of the most important voices in queer theory and her calls for reparative criticism and reading practices grounded in affect and performance have transformed understandings of affect intimacy politics and identity With marked tenderness the contributors to Reading Sedgwick reflect on Sedgwick's many critical inventions from her elucidation of poetry's close relation to criticism and development of new versions of queer performativity to highlighting the power of writing to engender new forms of life As the essays in Reading Sedgwick demonstrate Sedgwick's work is not only an ongoing vital force in queer theory and affect theory it can help us build a more positive world in the midst of the bleak contemporary

Transhumanism and the Church Steve Donaldson, Ron Cole-Turner, 2018-08-02 Christians have always been concerned with enhancement now they are faced with significant questions about how technology can help or harm genuine spiritual transformation What makes traditional and technological enhancement different from each other Are there theological insights and spiritual practices that can help Christians face the challenge of living in a technological world without being dangerously conformed to its values This book calls on Christians to understand and engage the deep issues facing the church in a technological transhumanist future Eve's Revenge Lilian Calles Barger, 2003-03 Explores the tension women
