Overcoming Racial Prejudice National Spiritual Assembly of the Bahá'ís of South Africa, 1994      Overcoming Racial Prejudice, 1997?      Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2000 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature providing access by subject groupings as well as author and subject indexes Contents Racial Attitudes Racism and Poverty Hate Groups Racial Justice Racism and Politics Race Discrimination Racial Identity Racism Around the World      A Concise Encyclopedia of the Baha'i Faith Peter Smith, 2013-10-01 Written by a well known author in the field of Baha i studies this is a comprehensive and accessible encyclopedia to the youngest of the world religions Regarded as the second most widespread faith after Christianity with adherents in almost every country around the globe the Baha i faith is nevertheless unfamiliar to many here Dr Smith traces the origins and development of the religion from 19th century Iran to the modern day introducing its central figures and major historical events combining breadth with a readable yet concise style he provides a balanced overview of Baha i scriptures doctrines and practices social teachings and organization This reference work presents a clear and knowledgeable view of a fascinating new religion      The Bahá'í World, 1994

South African National Bibliography, 1994      Histories of a Radical Book Antoinette Burton, Stephanie Fortado, 2020-11-01 For better or worse E P Thompson's monumental book The Making of the English Working Class has played an essential role in shaping the intellectual lives of generations of readers since its original publication in 1963 This collected volume explores the complex impact of Thompson's book both as an intellectual project and material object relating it to the social and cultural history of the book form itself an enduring artifact of English history      Joint Acquisitions List of Africana, 1996      Teacher Education and the Challenge of Diversity in South Africa Crispin Hemson, 2006 Conflicts in schools over race fees or language frequently make headlines in South Africa Such conflicts reflect the multifaceted issue of learner diversity encompassing racial class gender religious linguistic physical and other differences The need to handle such differences in equitable ways poses new challenges for teachers and teacher education How are teacher education institutions preparing students for teaching in schools that are different from the ones they experienced as learners What kinds of skills are they providing to enable teachers to deal with diversity and difference amongst learners      A Battlement of Spears Bernard Botes Kruger, 2006-05 A century ago one of the five most recognizable names in the world was arguably that of Paul Kruger president of the Transvaal Republic a small Southern African country inhabited by a white tribe who took on the overwhelming superiority of the mighty British Empire in defense of his people's sovereign independence It was a David and Goliath story As most of the world including the US cheered the Boers on they fought a desperate war to the bitter end 1899-1902 against colonialism until their country lay smoldering in ruins and an estimated 27 929 Boer women and children as well as an untold number of blacks had died in British concentration camps Yet within little more than half a century those same Afrikaners had squandered their political capital and gone from being the world's favorite underdog to one of the most reviled names in history Their subsequent social engineering project known as apartheid became an abhorrent concept in the eyes of the international community Bernard Botes Kruger is a fifth generation descendant of the wartime president Paul Kruger He is an Afrikaner who lived most of his life in the turmoil and conflict that has dominated his country's history His new historical novel A Battlement of Spears tells the remarkable story of how not only the Afrikaners but also the many other former sovereign nations within the redrawn borders of the postwar South Africa struggled to come to terms with a common identity often with devastating consequences What cruel twist of tectonic irony caused the deepest scar on the earth's surface across the face of that continent that would also suffer the most appalling of human tragedies the author asks Set against the backdrop of the timeless mountain called in Zulu uKhahlamba Barrier of Spears a dramatic geographic boundary that divided nations throughout history A Battlement of Spears is an epic story spanning twenty four years and two continents of two young men with similar interests but vastly different cultural backgrounds who become unlikely friends In a tragic series of events they will discover what sacrifices are exacted from those who would dwell in the symbolic no man's land of the summit where fog often obscures the vision and deprivation dulls the senses until it becomes all too easy to drift into hostile territory or stumble into the jaws of the precipice In the process they will become separated spending a lifetime before finding each other again a world away on a different continent But in the course of their respective journeys they will also learn that barriers are not always what they seem and that choices are sometimes inevitable with far reaching consequences In that hauntingly beautiful land it is never merely about survival but about the things that make it truly worthwhile such as loyalty friendship and honor regardless of the price Do not go into this story expecting to encounter the usual themes of race To consider South Africa synonymous with racial hatred would be an oversimplification This story is not about race In fact despite the elaborately drawn details highlighting many of the customs of traditional cultures Portuguese Zulus KhoiSan Afrikaners rural and urban conservative and revolutionary the story is not even uniquely South African It is not about apartheid or about Blacks or Whites Rather it is about the countless gray people of many different cultures ordinary individuals simply looking to survive who become trapped in the consummation of historical inevitabilities that are neither of their doing nor of their choosing Written in a style that endeavors to entertain while enlightening the uninformed about South A

Faith, Race and Inequality amongst Young Adults in South Africa Nadine Bowers Du Toit, 2022-07-04 For many young South African adults often called born frees who were born just before or just after the demise of political apartheid the ongoing realities of poverty and inequality bring to light the question of whether they truly are free in contemporary South Africa Their lived experiences of poverty and inequality seem to be in conflict with theologically laden concepts that remain prominent in social and political life such as reconciliation forgiveness justice and restitution This leads to a bi directional process of contesting and being contested by such notions and discourses Furthermore in light of the double legacy of both the church and youth as resisting injustice this publication seeks to explore the many perspectives from which the Christian faith race and inequality amongst youth can be brought to light Sport and Challenges to Racism J. Long,K. perpetrators in Paris were European citizens A sought after commentator in France and a widely respected international scholar of radical Islam Farhad Khosrokhavar has spent years studying the path towards radicalization focusing particularly on the key role of prisons based on interviews with dozens of Islamic radicals as incubators of a particular brand of outrage that has yielded so many attacks over the past decade Khosrokhavar argues that the root problem of radicalization is not a particular ideology but rather a set of steps that young men and women follow steps he distills clearly in this deeply researched account one that spans both Europe and the United States With insights that apply equally to far right terrorists and Islamic radicals Khosrokhavar argues that our security focused solutions are pruning the branches rather than attacking the roots which lie in the breakdown of social institutions the expansion of prisons and the rise of joblessness which create disaffected communities with a sharp sense of grievance against the mainstream
