The Space of Sex Shelton Waldrep, 2021-05-20 As film and television become ever more focused on the pornographic gaze of the camera the human body undergoes a metamorphosis becoming both landscape and building part of an architectonic design in which the erotics of the body spread beyond the body itself to influence the design of the film or televisual shot The body becomes the mise en scene of contemporary moving imagery Opening The Space of Sex Shelton Waldrep sets up some important tropes for the book the movement between high and low art the emphasis on the body looking and framing the general intermedial and interdisciplinary methodology of the book as a whole The Space of Sex's second half focuses on how sex gender and sexuality are represented in several recent films including Paul Schrader's The Canyons 2013 Oliver Stone's Savages 2012 Steven Soderbergh's Magic Mike 2012 Lars Von Trier's Nymphomaniac 2013 and Joseph Gordon Levitt's Don Jon 2013 Each of these mainstream or independent movies and several more are examined for the ways they have attempted to absorb pornography if not the pornography industry specifically into their plot According to Waldrep the utopian elements of seventies porn get reprocessed in a complex way in the twenty first century as both a utopian impulse the desire to have sex on the screen to re eroticize sex as something positive and lacking in shame with a mixed feeling about pornography itself with an industry that can be seen in a dystopian light In other words sex in our contemporary world still does not come without compromise

Robinson, Maria Elena Buszek, 2019-06-27 Original essays offering fresh ideas and global perspectives on contemporary feminist art The term feminist art is often misused when viewed as a codification within the discipline of Art History a codification that includes restrictive definitions of geography chronology style materials influence and other definitions inherent to Art Historical and museological classifications Employing a different approach A Companion to Feminist Art defines art as a dynamic set of material and theoretical practices in the realm of culture and feminism as an equally dynamic set of activist and theoretical practices in the realm of politics Feminist art therefore is not a simple classification of a type of art but rather the space where feminist politics and the domain of art making intersect The Companion provides readers with an overview of the developments concepts trends influences and activities within the space of contemporary feminist art in different locations ways of making and ways of thinking Newly commissioned essays focus on the recent history of and current discussions within feminist art Diverse in scope and style these contributions range from essays on the questions and challenges of large sectors of artists such as configurations of feminism and gender in post Cold War Europe to more focused conversations with women artists on Afropean decoloniality Ranging from discussions of essentialism and feminist aesthetics to examinations of political activism and curatorial practice the Companion informs and questions readers introduces new concepts and fresh perspectives and illustrates just how much more there is to discover within the realm of feminist art Addresses the intersection between feminist thinking and major theories that have influenced art theory Incorporates diverse voices from around the world to offer viewpoints on global feminisms from scholars who live and work in the regions about which they write Examines how feminist art intersects with considerations of collectivity war maternal relationships desire men and relational aesthetics Explores the myriad ways in which the experience of inhabiting and perceiving aged raced and gendered bodies relates to feminist politics in the art world Discusses a range practices in feminism such as activism language education and different ways of making art The intersection of feminist art making and feminist politics are not merely components of a unified whole they sometimes diverge and divide A Companion to Feminist Art is an indispensable resource for artists critics scholars curators and anyone seeking greater strength on the subject through informed critique and debate

Provoking Religion Anthony Michael Petro, Petro, 2025 In the late twentieth century artists were on the front lines of the culture wars Leaders of the Christian Right in the U S made a national spectacle out of feminist and queer art blasting it as sacrilegious or pornographic and sometimes both On the bully pulpits of television and talk radio as well as in the halls of Congress conservatives denounced artists ranging from Robert Mapplethorpe and Judy Chicago to Marlon Riggs and David Wojnarowicz Conservatives alarmed by shifting sex and gender norms collided with progressive artists who were confronting sexism homophobia and racism In Provoking Religion Anthony Petro offers a compelling new history of the culture wars that places competing moralities of gender and sexuality alongside competing visions of the sacred The modern culture wars he shows are best understood not as contests pitting religious conservatives against secular activists but as a series of ongoing historical struggles to define the relationship between the sacred and the political Through captivating case studies of subversive artists Provoking Religion illuminates the underside of the culture wars revealing how progressive artists and activists rendered from those most apparently profane aspects of human life the stuff of conservatives worst nightmares their own haunting visions of the sacred

Pop Modernism Juan A. Suárez, 2022-08-15 Pop Modernism examines the popular roots of modernism in the United States Drawing on a wide range of materials including experimental movies pop songs photographs and well known poems and paintings Juan A Su rez reveals that experimental art in the early twentieth century was centrally concerned with the reinvention of everyday life Su rez demonstrates how modernist writers and artists reworked pop images and sounds old fashioned and factory made objects city spaces and the languages and styles of queer and ethnic others Along the way he reinterprets many of modernism s major figures and argues for the centrality of relatively marginal ones such as Vachel Lindsay Charles Henri Ford Helen Levitt and James Agee As Su rez shows what s at stake is not just an antiquarian impulse to rescue forgotten past moments and works but a desire to establish an archaeology of our present art culture and activism

Asian American Sexualities Russell Leong, 2014-06-17 Asian American Sexualities works to dispel the stereotype of oriental sexual decadence as well as the model minority heterosexual Asian sterotype in the US Writing from an impressive array of interdisciplinary perspectives the contributors discuss a variety of topics including sexuality and identity politics community activism and gay activism transnational aspects of love between women in Thailand queer South Asian culture in the US gay and lesbian filmmakers same sex sexuality in Pacific literature and Asian American male homosexuality and AIDS The relationship of the gay and lesbian experience to Asian American studies and Ethnic Studies is also explored

Art Reviews and Commentaries by Robert L. Pincus, Art Critic, Snipped from the San Diego Union: 1988-1991 Robert L. Pincus, 1994

Writing and Desire Jonathan Alexander, 2023-06-06 Writing and Desire is a sustained multimovement exploration of how writers particularly queer writers think and feel through desire as central to their writing practice In a time of political social global and ecological unrest how might we understand desire the desire for things to be different the desire for a better world as a crucial dimension of contemporary human experience What might such a recentering of desire offer us personally and politically And how is writing itself as one of the primary ways through which we express and explore ourselves central to the expression and exploration of desire Drawing on recent theoretical work in queer theory and the new materialism Jonathan Alexander studies a range of queer and trans writers and artists who center desire in their practice and argues that conceptualizing writing as desire allows us to reexperience both writing and our world as saturated with our dreams and wishes for change In a book both elegant and unsettling and by turns personal analytic and experimental Alexander challenges us and himself to think about desire and writing as the deepest manifestation of our hopes for the future
