Dutton, 2013-05-13 This work provides access to information on the rich and often little known legacy of anthropological scholarship preserved in a diversity of archives libraries and museums Selected anthropological manuscripts papers fieldnotes site reports photographs and sound recordings in more than 150 repositories are described Coverage of resources in North American repositories is extensive while Great Britain France the Netherlands Australia and certain other countries are more selectively represented Entries are arranged by repository location and most contributors draw upon a special knowledge of the resources described Contributors include James R Glenn National Anthropological Archives Elizabeth Edwards and Veronica Lawrence Pitt Rivers Museum University of Oxford Francisco Demetrio S J Museum and Archives Xavier University Philippines and many others The guide covers selected documentation in social and cultural anthropology physical anthropology archaeology and folklore Some major area studies collections such as the Asia Collections Cornell University Libraries and the Melanesian Archive at the University of California San Diego are also represented Web URLs have been cited when available and personal and ethnic name indexes are provided Silent Teachers Nil Ö.

Palabıyık, 2023-03-17 Silent Teachers considers for the first time the influence of Ottoman scholarly practices and reference tools on oriental learning in early modern Europe Telling the story of oriental studies through the annotations study notes and correspondence of European scholars it demonstrates the central but often overlooked role that Turkish language manuscripts played in the achievements of early orientalists Dispersing the myths and misunderstandings found in previous scholarship this book offers a fresh history of Turkish studies in Europe and new insights into how Renaissance intellectuals studied Arabic and Persian through contemporaneous Turkish sources This story hardly has any dull moments the reader will encounter many larger than life figures including an armchair expert who turned his alleged captivity under the Ottomans into bestselling books a drunken dragoman who preferred enjoying the fruits of the vine to his duties at the Sublime Porte and a curmudgeonly German physician whose pugnacious pamphlets led to the erasure of his name from history Taking its title from the celebrated humanist Joseph Scaliger s comment that books from the Muslim world are silent teachers and need to be explained orally to be understood this study gives voice to the many and varied Turkish language books that circulated in early modern Europe and proposes a paradigm shift in our understanding of early modern erudite culture

Transforming Medical Education Delia Gavrus, Susan Lamb, 2022-04-11 In recent decades researchers have studied the cultures of medicine and the ways in which context and identity shape both individual experiences and structural barriers in medical education The essays in this collection offer new insights into the deep histories of these processes across time and around the globe Transforming Medical Education compiles twenty one historical case studies that foreground processes of learning teaching and defining medical communities in educational contexts The chapters are organized around the themes of knowledge transmission social justice identity pedagogy and the surprising affinities between medical and historical practice By juxtaposing original research on diverse geographies and eras from medieval Japan to twentieth century Canada and from colonial Cameroon to early Republican China the volume disrupts traditional historiographies of medical education by making room for schools of medicine for revolutionaries digital cadavers emotional medical students and the world's first mandatory Indigenous community placement in an accredited medical curriculum This unique collection of international scholarship honours historian physician and professor Jacalyn Duffin for her outstanding contributions to the history of medicine and medical education An invaluable scholarly resource and teaching tool Transforming Medical Education offers a provocative study of what it means to teach learn and belong in medicine Current Catalog ,1988 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965-70 Routledge Revivals: Medieval Islamic Civilization (2006) Josef Meri,2018-01-12 Islamic civilization flourished in the Middle Ages across a vast geographical area that spans today's Middle and Near East First published in 2006 Medieval Islamic Civilization examines the socio-cultural history of the regions where Islam took hold between the 7th and 16th centuries This important two volume work contains over 700 alphabetically arranged entries contributed and signed by international scholars and experts in fields such as Arabic languages Arabic literature architecture history of science Islamic arts Islamic studies Middle Eastern studies Near Eastern studies politics religion Semitic studies theology and more Entries also explore the importance of interfaith relations and the permeation of persons ideas and objects across geographical and intellectual boundaries between Europe and the Islamic world This reference work provides an exhaustive and vivid portrait of Islamic civilization and brings together in one authoritative text all aspects of Islamic civilization during the Middle Ages Accessible to scholars students and non-specialists this resource will be of great use in research and understanding of the roots of today's Islamic society as well as the rich and vivid culture of medieval Islamic civilization Middle East Sources Ian Richard Netton,2013-11-19 Middle East Sources provides an invaluable resource for the busy librarian student or scholar with Middle Eastern interests It aims to guide readers to the major collections of books and other materials on the subject in the UK and Ireland as well as to some lesser known but nonetheless interesting collections in smaller libraries Entries are fully up to date and include information on addresses including telephone fax and e-mail details brief descriptions of collections held along with references to relevant catalogue material and other directories The guide also highlights the extent of collections and gives help in accessing The MELCOM Area Specialisation Scheme MASS designation of the collections is also included where relevant A Directory of History of Medicine Collections ,1993 Prognostication in the Medieval World Matthias Heiduk,Klaus Herbers,Hans-Christian Lehner,2020-11-09 Two opposing views of the future in the Middle Ages dominate recent historical scholarship According to one opinion medieval societies were expecting the near end of the world and therefore had no concept of the future According to the other opinion the expectation of the near end created a drive to change the world for the better and thus for innovation Close inspection of the history of prognostication reveals the continuous attempts and multifold methods to recognize and interpret God's will the prodigies of nature and the patterns of time That proves on the one hand the constant human uncertainty facing the contingencies of the future On the other hand it demonstrates the firm believe during the Middle Ages in a future which could be shaped and even manipulated The handbook provides the first overview of current historical research on medieval prognostication It considers the entangled influences and transmissions between Christian Jewish Islamic and non monotheistic societies during the period from a wide range of perspectives An international team of 63 renowned authors from about a dozen different academic disciplines contributed to this comprehensive overview Muslim Bodies Susanne Kurz, Claudia Preckel, Stefan Reichmuth, 2016 Der Sammelband ist aus einem Panel beim Deutschen Orientalistentag in Marburg 2010 hervorgegangen und beleuchtet aus unterschiedlichen Perspektiven Körpererfahrungen kulturen diskurse und techniken in islamisch geprägten Kulturen der Vergangenheit und Gegenwart Leitgedanke ist dabei die Frage danach wie Individuen ihr Wissen über Körper Sexualität im sozialen Feld konstruieren und welche Deutungssysteme z B Islam graeco islamische Medizin dabei wirksam werden The present volume product of a conference panel at the German Orientalists Conference in Marburg 2010 aims at throwing light on the experiences discourses and body techniques prevailing in Muslim bodily culture It combines historical with contemporary case studies and explores the individual and collective patterns of knowledge construction related to body and sexuality in a social field where different and sometimes conflicting knowledge systems e g Islam Graeco Islamic Medicine can be found at work The Athenaeum ,1914 Athenaeum ,1845
