Nuances of Blackness in the Canadian Academy Awad Ibrahim,Tamari Kitossa,Malinda S. Smith,Handel Kashope Wright,2022-02-02 The essays in Nuances of Blackness in the Canadian Academy make visible the submerged stories of Black life in academia They offer fresh historical social and cultural insights into what it means to teach learn research and work while Black In daring to shift from margin to centre the book s contributors confront two overlapping themes First they resist a singular construction of Blackness that masks the nuances and multiplicity of what it means to be and experience the academy as Black people Second they challenge the stubborn durability of anti Black tropes the dehumanization of Blackness persistent deficit ideologies and the tyranny of low expectations that permeate the dominant idea of Blackness in the white colonial imagination Operating at the intersections of discourse and experience contributors reflect on how Blackness shapes academic pathways ignites complicated and often difficult conversations and reimagines Black pasts presents and futures This unique collection contributes to the articulation of more nuanced understandings of the ways in which Blackness is made unmade and remade in the academy and the implications for interrelated dynamics across and within post secondary education Black communities in Canada and global Black diasporas British Books ,1903 The Publisher ,1902

The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1897 Another Kind of Justice Chris Madsen,2011-11-01 Another Kind of Justice is the first historical survey of Canadian military law providing insights into military justice in Canada the purpose of military law and the level of legal professionalism within the Canadian military Drawing on a wide range of materials Chris Madsen traces the development of military law from 1867 to 1997 After delving into the British roots of Canadian military law he brings his discussion up to date with analysis of recent sexual discrimination cases and the Somalia inquiry He explains how the law has served a strictly functional purpose in maintaining discipline and demonstrates how it claims its legitimacy and distinct status in relation to civil law It becomes clear that military law has responded to pragmatic needs in a reactive rather than a planned manner Another Kind of Justice describes the statutes and regulations that govern Canada s armed forces the institutions responsible for overseeing military law and how knowledge about military law is disseminated Madsen concludes that longstanding organizational problems and training deficiencies bear some of the responsibility for the unfortunate behaviour of Canadian soldiers in Somalia War Memory and Commemoration Brad West,2016-07-15 In a period characterised by an unprecedented cultural engagement with the past individuals groups and nations are debating and experimenting with commemoration in order to find culturally relevant ways of remembering warfare genocide and terrorism This book examines such remembrances and the political consequences of these rites In particular the volume focuses on the ways in which recent social and technological forces including digital archiving transnational flows of historical knowledge shifts in academic practice changes in commemorative forms and consumerist engagements with history affect the shaping of new collective memories and our understanding of the social world Presenting studies of commemorative practices from Africa Asia Australia Europe and the Middle East War Memory and Commemoration illustrates the power of new commemorative forms to shape the world and highlights the ways in which social actors use them in promoting a range of understandings of the past The volume will appeal to scholars of sociology history cultural studies and journalism with an interest in commemoration heritage and or collective memory
