Performing Place in French and Italian Queer Documentary Film Oliver Brett, 2018-10-11 This book explores the space of queer documentary through the modernist optic of Marcel Proust's le lieu factice, artificial place, a perspective that problematizes the location of place in a post-postmodern world with a dispersed sense of the real. The practice of queer documentary in France and Italy from the beginning of the new millennium onwards is seen to re-write the coherence of place through a range of emerging queer realities. Proposing the post-queer as a way of contending with the spatial dynamics of these contexts, analysis of key texts positions place as mourned, conceded, and intersectional. The performance of place as agency is considered through the notional film, the radical archive of documentary, the enactment of politics, queer indeterminacy, and a phenomenology of the object, the frame, and queer mobility. The central themes of family, gender, dislocation, invisibility, and representation question blind investment in the integrity of being emplaced.

In a Queer Time and Place J. Jack Halberstam, Judith Halberstam, 2005 The first full-length study of transgender representations in art, fiction, film, video, and music. In her first book since the critically acclaimed Female Masculinity, Judith Halberstam examines the significance of the transgender body in a provocative collection of essays on queer time and space. She presents a series of case studies focused on the meanings of masculinity in its dominant and alternative forms, especially female and trans masculinities as they exist within subcultures and are appropriated within mainstream culture. In a Queer Time and Place opens with a probing analysis of the life and death of Brandon Teena, a young transgender man who was brutally murdered in small-town Nebraska. After looking at mainstream representations of the transgender body as exhibited in the media frenzy surrounding this highly visible case and the Oscar-winning film based on Brandon's story, Boys Don't Cry, Halberstam turns her attention to the cultural and artistic production of queers themselves. She examines the transgender gaze as rendered in small art-house films like By Hook or By Crook as well as figurations of ambiguous embodiment in the art of Del LaGrace Volcano Jenny Saville Eva Hesse Shirin Neshat and others She then exposes the influence of lesbian drag king cultures upon hetero male comic films such as Austin Powers and The Full Monty and finally points to dyke subcultures as one site for the development of queer counterpublics and queer temporalities Considering the sudden visibility of the transgender body in the early twenty first century against the backdrop of changing conceptions of space and time In a Queer Time and Place is the first full length study of transgender representations in art fiction film video and music This pioneering book offers both a jumping off point for future analysis of transgenderism and an important new way to understand cultural constructions of time and place American Queer, Now and Then David Shneer, Caryn Aviv, 2015-12-03
