Mental Maps Janne Holmén, Norbert Götz, 2021-11-28 The concept of mental maps is used in several disciplines including geography psychology history linguistics economics anthropology political science and computer game design However until now there has been little communication between these disciplines and methodological schools involved in mental mapping Mental Maps Geographical and Historical Perspectives addresses this situation by bringing together scholars from some of the related fields Ute Schneider examines the development of German geographer Heinrich Schiffers mental maps using his books on Africa from the 1930s to the 1970s Efrat Ben Ze'ev and Chloé Yvroux investigate conceptions of Israel and Palestine particularly the West Bank held by French and Israeli students By superimposing large numbers of sketch maps Clarisse Didelon Loiseau Sophie de Ruffray and Nicolas Lambert identify soft and hard macro regions on the mental maps of geography students across the world Janne Holmén investigates whether the Baltic and the Mediterranean Seas are seen as links or divisions between the countries that line their shores according to the mental maps of high school seniors Similarly Dario Musolino maps regional preferences of Italian entrepreneurs Finally Lars Erik Edlund offers an essayistic account of mental mapping based on memories of maps in his own family This edited volume book uses printed maps survey data and hand drawn maps as sources contributing to the study of human perception of space from the perspectives of different disciplines The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Cultural Geography      First Encounters Howard B. The Origins of Ethnic Conflict in Africa Tsega Etefa, 2019-02-01 From Darfur to the Rwandan genocide journalists policymakers and scholars have blamed armed conflicts in Africa on ancient hatreds or competition for resources Here Tsega Etefa compares three such cases the Darfur conflict between Arabs and non Arabs the Gumuz and Oromo clashes in Western Oromia and the Oromo Pokomo conflict in the Tana Delta in order to offer a fuller picture of how ethnic violence in Africa begins Diverse communities in Sudan Ethiopia and Kenya alike have long histories of peacefully sharing resources intermarrying and resolving disputes As he argues ethnic conflicts are fundamentally political conflicts driven by non inclusive political systems the monopolization of state resources and the manipulation of ethnicity for political gain coupled with the lack of democratic mechanisms for redressing grievances Two Thousand Years with the Word C. Geographical Teacher ,1958 Includes section Reviews and other bibliographical material The History of Africa Molefi Kete Asante,2014-10-10 There is a paradox about Africa it remains a subject that attracts considerable attention yet rarely is there a full appreciation of its complexity African historiography has typically consisted of writing Africa for Europe instead of writing Africa for itself as itself from its own perspectives The History of Africa redresses this by letting the perspectives of Africans themselves take center stage Authoritative and comprehensive this book provides a wide ranging history of Africa from earliest prehistory to the present day using the cultural social political and economic lenses of Africa as instruments to illuminate the ordinary lives of Africans The result is a fresh survey that includes a wealth of indigenous ideas African concepts and traditional outlooks that have escaped the writing of African history in the West The new edition includes information on the Arab Spring the rise of FrancAfrica the presence of the Chinese in Africa and the birth of South Sudan The chapters go up to the present day addressing US President Barack Obama s policies toward Africa A new companion website provides students and scholars of Africa with access to a wealth of supporting resources for each chapter including images video and audio clips and links to sites for further research This straightforward illustrated and factual text allows the reader to access the major developments personalities and events on the African continent This groundbreaking survey is an indispensable guide to African history Geography ,1958 Includes section Reviews and other bibliographical material National Museums in Africa Raymond Silverman,George Abungu,Peter Probst,2021-08-30 National Museums in Africa brings the voices of African museum professionals into dialogue with scholars and by so doing is able to consider the state of African national museums from fresh perspectives Covering all regions of the continent the volume s thirteen chapters allow for a deep and nuanced understanding of the intricate interplay between past and present in contemporary Africa Taking stock of the shifting museum landscape in Africa with new players like China and South Korea challenging the conditions of cultural exchange the book demonstrates that national museums are being rediscovered as important sites of political engagement and cultural negotiation This is the first book to critically examine the roles national museums in Africa have played in the societies in which they are situated but it is also the first to consider the roles that national museums might play in current debates concerning the restitution and repatriation of cultural patrimony taken from Africa during the colonial era Informed by a comparative and interdisciplinary perspective this ground breaking book will appeal to anyone interested in museums in Africa It will be particularly useful to scholars and students working in the areas of museum and heritage studies African studies anthropology archaeology history art history and cultural studies      Research Catalogue
