Bowker,1988 De Facto States and Land-for-Peace Agreements Eiki Berg,Shpend Kursani,2021-12-21 This book presents an analytical framework which assesses how land for peace agreements can be achieved in the context of territorial conflicts between de facto states and their respective parent states The volume examines geographic solutions to resolving ongoing conflicts that stand between the principle of self determination prompted by de facto states and the principle of territorial integrity prompted by parent states The authors investigate the conditions under which territorial adjustments can bring about a possibility for peace between de facto states and their parent states It does so by interrogating the possibility of land for peace agreements in four de facto state parent state pairs namely Kosovo Serbia Nagorno Karabakh Azerbaijan Northern Cyprus Republic of Cyprus and Abkhazia Georgia The book suggests that the value that parties put on land to be exchanged and peace to be achieved stand at odds for land for peace agreements to materialise The book brings theoretical and empirical insights that open several avenues for discussions on the conservative stance that the international community has held on territorial changes in the post 1945 international order This book will be of much interest to students of statebuilding state formation secessionism political geography and international relations In Search of a Peace Settlement M. Gat, 2012-06-28 This is the first examination of the Israeli and Egyptian peace process between 1967 1973 which highlights the rise and fall of Soviet influence after the Six Day War and explores how the increasing importance of America's political leadership affected the region The Search for Peace in the Middle East Samuel Merlin, 1969 Educators Guide to Free Social Studies Materials, 1994 Encyclopedia of Public International Law Max-Planck-Institut für Ausländisches Öffentliches Recht und Völkerrecht, 1981 The Middle East in Search of Peace Cathryn J.
