What English Language Teachers Need to Know Volume I Denise E. Murray, Mary Ann Christison, 2019-02-01 Designed for pre service teachers and teachers new to the field of ELT What English Teachers Need to Know Volumes I II and III are companion textbooks organized around the key question What do teachers need to know and be able to do in order for their students to learn English In the Second Edition of Volume I Murray and Christison return to this essential question and call attention to emerging trends and challenges affecting the contemporary classroom Addressing new skills and strategies that EFL teachers require to meet the needs of their shifting student populations who are impacted by changing demographics digital environments and globalization this book which is grounded in current research offers a strong emphasis on practical applications for classroom teaching This updated and expanded Second Edition features a new chapter on technology in TESOL new and updated classroom examples throughout discussions of how teachers can prepare for contemporary challenges such as population mobility and globalization. The comprehensive texts work for teachers across different contexts where English is the dominant language an official language or a foreign language for different levels elementary primary secondary university or adult education and for different learning purposes general English workplace English English for academic purposes or English for specific purposes Architecture, Art and Identity in Venice and its Territories, 1450-1750 Dr Nebahat Avcioglu, 2013-12-23 Inspired by Deborah Howard's leading role in fostering a historically grounded and interdisciplinary approach to the art and architecture of Venice the essays here examine the connections and rapports between art and identity through the discussion of patronage space domestic and ecclesiastical and dissemination of architectural knowledge as well as models within Venice its territories and beyond The SAGE Handbook of Nations and Nationalism Gerard Delanty, Krishan Kumar, 2006-06-14 With its list of distinguished contributors and its wide range of topics the handbook is surely destined to become an invaluable resource for all serious students of nationalism Michael Billig Professor of Social Sciences at Loughborough University and author of Banal Nationalism SAGE 1995 The persistence some would say revival of nationalism across the recent history of modernity in particular the past two decades has taken many scholars in the social sciences by surprise In response interest in the analysis of nationalism has increased and given rise to a great variety of new angles under which to study the phenomenon What was missing in the cacophony of voices addressing nationalism was a volume that brought them together and confronted them with each other This handbook does just that It deserves particular praise for the wide range of approaches and topic included and for the systematic attempt at studying nationalism as a phenomenon of our time not a remnant from the past Peter Wagner Professor of Social and Political Theory European University Institute and Professor of Sociology University of Warwick For students concerned with the contemporary study of nationalism this will be an invaluable publication. The three fold division into approaches themes and cases is a very solid and sensible one The editors have commissioned essays from leading scholars in the field and this handbook provides the best single volume overview of contemporary nationalism John Breuilly Professor of Nationalism and Ethnicity London School of Economics Nationalism has long excited debate in political social and cultural theory and remains a key field of enquiry among historians anthropologists sociologists as well as political scientists It is also one of the critical media issues of our time There are however surprisingly few volumes that bring together the best of this intellectual diversity into one collection This Handbook gives readers a critical survey of the latest theories and debates and provides a glimpse of the issues that will shape their future Its three sections guide the reader through the theoretical approaches to this field of study its major themes from modernity to memory migration and genocide and the diversity of nationalisms found around the globe The overall aim of this Handbook is to relate theories and debates within and across a range of disciplines illuminate themes and issues of central importance in both historical and contemporary contexts and show how nationalism has impacted upon and interacted with other political and social forms and forces This book provides a much needed resource for scholars in international relations political science social theory and sociology Formations of Colonial Modernity in East Asia Tani E. Barlow, 1997 The essays in Formations of Colonial Modernity in East Asia challenge the idea that notions of modernity and colonialism are mere imports from the West and show how colonial modernity has evolved from and into unique forms throughout Asia Although the modernity of non European colonies is as indisputable as the colonial core of European modernity until recently East Asian scholarship has tried to view Asian colonialism through the paradigm of colonial India for instance failing to recognize anti imperialist nationalist impulses within differing Asian countries and regions Demonstrating an impatience with social science models of knowledge the contributors show that binary categories focused on during the Cold War are no longer central to the project of history writing By bringing together articles previously published in the journal positions east asia cultures critique editor Tani Barlow has demonstrated how scholars construct identity and history providing cultural critics with new ways to think about these concepts in the context of Asia and beyond Chapters address topics such as the making of imperial subjects in Okinawa politics and the body social in colonial Hong Kong and the discourse of decolonization and popular memory in South Korea This is an invaluable collection for students and scholars of Asian studies postcolonial studies and anthropology Contributors Charles K Armstrong Tani E Barlow Fred Y L Chiu Chungmoo Choi Alan S Christy Craig Clunas James A Fujii James L Hevia Charles Shiro Inouye Lydia H Liu Miriam Silverberg Tomiyama Ichiro Wang Hui Modern Education, Textbooks, and the Image of the Nation Yoonmi Lee, 2012-08-21 By reinterpreting the way that Korean reformers confronted the process of modernization Westernization between 1880 and 1910 this study challenges the failure thesis which maintains that subsequent Japanese colonization is an indication that the early modernization process in Korea was unsuccessful "Architecture, Art and Identity in Venice and its Territories, 1450?750 " Nebahat Avcioglu, 2017-07-05 Cities are shaped as much by a repertoire of buildings works and objects as by cultural institutions ideas and interactions between forms and practices entangled in identity formations

This is particularly true when seen through a city as forceful and splendid as Venice The essays in this volume investigate these connections between art and identity through discussions of patronage space and the dissemination of architectural models and knowledge in Venice its territories and beyond They celebrate Professor Deborah Howard's leading role in fostering a historically grounded and interdisciplinary approach to the art and architecture of Venice Based on an examination and re interpretation of a wide range of archival material and primary sources the contributing authors approach the notion of identity in its many guises as self representation as strong sub currents of spatial strategies as visual and semantic discourses and as political and imperial aspirations Employing interdisciplinary modes of interpretation these studies offer ground breaking analyses of canonical sites and works of art diverse groups of patrons as well as the life and oeuvre of leading architects such as Jacopo Sansovino and Andrea Palladio In so doing they link together citizens and nobles past and present the real and the symbolic space and sound religion and power the city and its parts Venice and the Stato da Mar the Serenissima and the Sublime Port Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century Gary L. Gaile, Cort J. Willmott, 2005 Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century surveys American geographers current research in their specialty areas and tracks trends and innovations in the many subfields of geography As such it is both a state of the discipline assessment and a topical reference It includes an introduction by the editors and 47 chapters each on a specific specialty The authors of each chapter were chosen by their specialty group of the American Association of Geographers AAG Based on a process of review and revision the chapters in this volume have become truly representative of the recent scholarship of American geographers While it focuses on work since 1990 it additionally includes related prior work and work by non American geographers The initial Geography in America was published in 1989 and has become a benchmark reference of American geographical research during the 1980s This latest volume is completely new and features a preface written by the eminent geographer Gilbert White Current Issues in Clinical Psychology Eric Karas, 2012-12-06 This is the third volume in the series of books based on the Annual Merseyside Course in Clinical Psychology In common with its predecessors its aim is to present a number of topics of interest to practitioners researchers trainers and trainees in the field with the intent not only to inform but variously also to question and to guide further enquiry Selection for this volume has taken a somewhat different stance to the previous two Whereas in former volumes an attempt has been made to cover standard areas of general and scientific interest to psychologists and others in related professions such as anorexia nervosa forensic issues long term care mental handicap community psychology anxiety and de pression in this one issues which are of equal relevance but not necessarily of equal prominence in psychological texts are included We have not however neglected those areas more readily recognized as of major clinical import which are being progressively covered in this series This year we have the section Bereavement and the Care of the Dying Although for many this may not be a main focus it is a subject that few helpers do not encounter either directly or indirectly with their clients It would be impossible for this subject to not

Anttonen, 2005-02-06 In their study of social practices deemed traditional scholars tend to use the concept and idea of tradition as an element of meaning in the practices under investigation But just whose meaning is it Is it a meaning generated by those who study tradition or those whose traditions are being studied In both cases particular criteria for traditionality are employed whether these are explicated or not Individuals and groups will no doubt continue to uphold their traditional practices or refer to their practices as traditional While they are in no way obliged to explicate in analytical terms their criteria for traditionality the same cannot be said for those who make the study of traditions their profession In scholarly analysis traditions need to be explained instead of used as explanations for apparent repetitions and replications or symbolic linking in social practice values history and heritage politics. This book takes a closer look at tradition and folklore in order to conceptualize them within discourses on modernity and modernism The first section discusses modern and traditional as modern concepts and the study of folklore as a modern trajectory. The underlying tenet here is that non modernity cannot be represented without modern mediation which therefore makes the representations of non modernity epistemologically modern The second section focuses on the nation state of Finland and the nationalistic use of folk traditions in the discursive production of Finnish modernity and its Others The insights are applicable worldwide in discussions on cultural representation Cultures nationales et identité communautaire Marloes Beers, Jenny Raflik, 2010 La question de l'identit europ enne a souvent t soulev e par les historiens sous l'angle de la civilisation et de l'h ritage historique et culturel commun Mais l'identit europ enne n a que rarement t abord e travers une grille de lecture li e l'mergence d'un espace public europ en et d une exp rience de vivre ensemble Cet ouvrage se propose donc de croiser les comp tences multiples de jeunes chercheurs europ ens afin d identifier les vecteurs porteurs d une identit europ enne et de mesurer leur r alit ou leurs insuffisances Ce faisant il propose des pistes de d veloppement pour cette identit europ enne encore en gestation afin d en d terminer les enjeux pour l Europe la fois objectif et handicap dans l histoire des communaut s europ ennes la question identitaire semble tre un enjeu majeur pour aujourd hui comme pour demain The issue of a common European identity has been the subject of academic research from diverse perspectives This book approaches the theme of European identity through the interpretive lens of both European public space and the experience of living together Young scholars in the field of European studies identify instruments for the development of a European identity and analyse their characteristics and shortcomings These proceedings offer a spectrum of perspectives on the development of a European identity Dance Discourses Susanne Franco, Marina Nordera, 2016-04-29 Focusing on politics gender and identities a group of international dance scholars provide a broad overview of new methodological approaches with specific case studies and how they can be applied to the study of ballet and modern dance With an introduction exploring the history of dance studies and the development of central themes and areas of concerns in the field the book is then divided into three parts politics explores Ausdruckstanz an expressive dance tradition first formulated in the 1920s by dancer Mary Wigman and carried forward in the work of Pina Bausch and others gender examines eighteenth century theatrical dance a time when elaborate sets costumes and plots examined racial and sexual stereotypes identity is concerned with modern dance Exploring contemporary analytical approaches to understanding performance traditions Dance Discourses pedagogical structure makes it ideal for courses in performing arts and humanities New Regionalism in Australia Mardelene Grobbelaar, 2018-01-18 New Regionalism promoted as a new paradigm of development by the OECD suggests that globalization is bringing together new technologies management employees and communities to form new patterns of local governance However despite the growing influence of New Regionalism in regional development policy in the West and increasingly in Australia there has been little debate about the relevance and application of these ideas in Australia Bringing together contributions from academics practitioners and policy makers this book redresses this imbalance by examining the theoretical and empirical foundations of this powerful and growing school of thought locating the debate firmly in the Australian context With an opening chapter by Kevin Morgan Cardiff University who has been at the heart of the New Regionalism debate the book provides important insights into the theory and practice of New Regionalism in this vibrant region Global Popular Music Clarence Bernard Henry, 2024-11-19 Global Popular Music A Research and Publication ,1980 Information Guide offers an essential annotated bibliography of scholarship on popular music around the world in a two volume set Featuring a broad range of subjects people cultures and geographic areas and spanning musical genres such as traditional folk jazz rock reggae samba rai punk hip hop and many more this guide highlights different approaches and discussions within global popular music research This research guide is comprehensive in scope providing a vital resource for scholars and students approaching the vast amount of publications on popular music studies and popular music traditions around the world Thorough cross referencing and robust indexes of genres places names and subjects make the guide easy to use Volume 2 Transnational Discourses of Global Popular Music Studies covers the geographical areas of North America United States and Canada Central America Caribbean and South America Latin America Europe Africa and Middle East Asia and areas of Oceania Aotearoa New Zealand Australia and Pacific Islands It provides over twenty four hundred annotated bibliographic entries covering discourses of extensive research that extend beyond the borders of the United States and includes annotated entries to books book series book chapters edited volumes special documentaries and programming scholarly journal essays and other resources that focus on the creative and artistic flows of global popular music Race. Nature and Culture Peter Wade, 2002-06-20 Since the controversial scientific race theories of the 1930s anthropologists have generally avoided directly addressing the issue of race viewing it as a social construct Challenging this tradition Peter Wade proposes that anthropologists can in fact play an important role in the study of race Wade is critical of contemporary theoretical studies of race formulated within the contexts of colonial history sociology and cultural studies Instead he argues for a new direction one which anthropology is well placed to explore Taking the study of race beyond Western notions of the individual Wade argues for new paradigms in social science in particular in the development of connections between race sex and gender An understanding of these issues within an anthropological context he contends is vital for defining personhood and identity Race is often defined by its reference to biology blood genes nature or essence Yet these concepts are often left unexamined Integrating material from the history of science science studies and anthropological studies of kinship and new reproductive technologies as well as from studies of race Peter Wade explores the meaning of such terms and interrogates
