The Age of Questions Holly Case, 2018-07-10 A groundbreaking history of the Big Questions that dominated the nineteenth century In the early nineteenth century a new age began the age of questions In the Eastern and Belgian questions as much as in the slavery worker social woman and Jewish questions contemporaries saw not interrogatives to be answered but problems to be solved Alexis de Tocqueville Victor Hugo Karl Marx Frederick Douglass Fyodor Dostoevsky Rosa Luxemburg and Adolf Hitler were among the many who put their pens to the task The Age of Questions asks how the question form arose what trajectory it followed and why it provoked such feverish excitement for over a century Was there a family resemblance between questions Have they disappeared or are they on the rise again in our time In this pioneering book Holly Case undertakes a stunningly original analysis presenting chapter by chapter seven distinct arguments and frameworks for understanding the age She considers whether it was marked by a progressive quest for emancipation of women slaves Jews laborers and others a steady inexorable march toward genocide and the Final Solution or a movement toward federation and the dissolution of boundaries Or was it simply a farce a false frenzy dreamed up by publicists eager to sell subscriptions As the arguments clash patterns emerge and sharpen until the age reveals its full and peculiar nature Turning convention on its head with meticulous and astonishingly broad scholarship The Age of Questions illuminates how patterns of thinking move history

Learner Identity and Learner Beliefs in EFL Writing Olga Majchrzak, 2017-12-21 This book focuses on the concept of learner writer identity in the context of foreign language writing The author demonstrates that the process of writing in a foreign language is much more complex and personal than many writing instructors may assume The book's theoretical chapters address such concepts as bilingualism the process of L2 writing and identity in L2 writing The book's empirical section discusses the students' views on writing in L1 and in L2 the students' writing processes in both languages and the students' identities in L1 and L2 writing It is shown that writing in L2 poses problems of a linguistic nature however for the advanced EFL learners writing in L2 also creates opportunities they would never have when composing in their mother tongue

The Posing of Questions A. Wisniewski, 2013-11-27 This book is a study in the logic of questions sometimes called erotetic logic The central topics in erotetic logic have been the structure of questions and the question answer relationship This book doesn't neglect these problems but much of it is focussed on other issues The main subject is the logical analysis of certain relations between questions and the contexts of their appearance And our aim is to elaborate the conceptual apparatus of the inferential approach to the logic of questions Questions are asked for many reasons and for different purposes Yet before a question is asked or posed a questioner must arrive at it In many cases arriving at a question resembles coming to a conclusion there are some premises involved and some inferential thought processes take place If we agree that a conclusion need not be conclusive we may say that sometimes questions can play the role of conclusions But questions can also perform the role of premises we often pass from some initial question to another question In other words there are inferential thought processes we shall call them erotetic inferences in which questions play the roles of conclusions or conclusions and premises The inferential approach to the logic of questions focusses its attention on the analysis of erotetic inferences This book consists of eight chapters Buff and Polish Kathryn J.
