Dimensions of Managing Academic Affairs in the Community College Douglas Robillard, 2000-05-04 The contributors to this issue present a variety of strategies to help chief academic officers not only survive but excel while juggling their many and varied responsibilities They offer seasoned advice on fulfilling the CAO s academic duties and explore the CAO s faculty and administrative roles discussing how to balance the sometimes conflicting roles of faculty mentor advocate and disciplinarian and the importance of establishing a synergistic working relationship with the president They show how to resolve typical crises that arise in the course of the CAO s daily duties and demonstrate how conflict can actually be an opportunity to effect constructive change The issue also covers the important areas of resource and data management providing an introduction to resource management concepts and terminology and presenting a case study of an award winning data driven decision making process This is the 109th issue of the Jossey Bass series New Directions for Community Colleges Copyright Donna L. Ferullo,Dwayne K. Buttler,2023-09-03 An invaluable resource giving librarians the tools to assess copyright issues risks and approaches both domestically and internationally Library Journal Starred Review Finally a plain language guide to best practices for the complex world of copyright management in academic libraries Copyright issues continue to perplex librarians and educators The difficulties and confusion in applying the U S Copyright Act became especially apparent when Covid hit and many universities turned to remote learning as their primary method of instruction Librarians and educators struggled with applying the law for both remote learners and students who were on site This book provides advice on how to analyze and apply the copyright law to specific areas encountered by librarians and instructors Coverage includes Controlled digital lending is a very hot issue and confusing to many as to how copyright could apply in those situationsremote learning do s and don ts is at the forefront of copyright concerns which was highlighted during the pandemicThe application of copyright to music in light of recent changes to the U S Copyright Act has caused much confusion Analysis of the new law and strategies on how to include music in a curriculum as well as how libraries can provide access and preservation of musical works Open access initiatives have become increasingly popular However open access does not mean that there is no copyright attached to the works The use of data is exploding as are the copyright issues associated with it We will examine the issues and provide options Written by Donna L Ferullo the Director of the University Copyright Office at Purdue University who holds both law and library science degrees and Dwayne K Buttler the Evelyn J Schneider Endowed Chair for Scholarly Communication at the University of Louisville who also holds a law degree Both Ferullo and Buttler have many years of experience advising their universities on copyright law Q & A ,2003 The New Academic Librarian Rebeca Peacock,Jill Wurm,2014-01-23 The new essays on today s academic librarians examine above all their functions and responsibilities since these have greatly changed just in recent years especially in matters of technology These librarians essayists step away from yesterday s stereotypes and explain at length their new roles From digital resources and special collections to web development and new outreach initiatives the topics covered by the essays in this book will reassure new librarians and stimulate prospective librarians as they realize the enhanced and varied positions that are available in the 21st century academic library Your Library Is the Answer Christina T. Russo,Cathy Swan,2015-01-22 Today s tech savvy and digitally connected students present a new challenge for today s school librarians This book offers the 21st century tools and know how necessary for educators to appeal to and challenge students to learn and to want to learn What are the best ways to motivate students to become engaged and develop a passion for learning Can appealing to their desire for socialization and constant communication attributes of their lives outside of education via the integration of cutting edge technologies and new media in the library or classroom serve to ignite creativity curiosity and critical thinking This book shows how you can make use of non traditional tools such as popular social networks collaborative technologies and cloud computing to teach information and communications technologies integrated with the school curriculum to improve student learning and demonstrates how these same technologies can help you measure skills and mastery learning The book provides an easy to follow blueprint for using collaborative techniques innovation and teaching for creativity to achieve the new learning paradigm of self directed learning such as flipping the classroom or library Readers of this book will find concrete step by step examples of proven lesson plans collaborative models and time saving strategies for the successful integration of American Association of School Librarians AASL standards The authors both award winning teachers explain the quantitatively and qualitatively measurable educational value of using these technologies for core curricular and information and communications technologies instruction showing that they both enhance student learning outcomes and provide data for measuring their impact on learning The Ultimate Guide to Excellent Teaching and Training Dr. Jeffrey C.

Fox,2015-07-07 This book is for anyone interested or involved in teaching training or instructing whether you are just getting into the field or thinking about it or you have been teaching for decades It is for those who administer teaching training or instructing The book was written for academics and those who teach in academies and other professional adult learning environments The books contents are applicable to all types of colleges be they community colleges four year colleges or universities both private and public for profit or nonprofit Most professional practitioner type instructors go through some sort of instructor school teachers earn degrees in teaching but many who teach or instruct are never trained or taught how to teach or train Few professors are taught how to teach They have been taught so this is where they often draw their own teaching styles Regardless of where you teach train or instruct this book and its contents are for you The book goes into great detail regarding face to face classes as well as online and other delivery methods The lessons found in this book can be applied to new students undergraduate or graduate students The lessons apply equally to basic in service and specialized training My hope is that no matter how great of an instructor you are you will find many new nuggets of information that will add to your teaching toolbox One of my goals in life is to leave a positive lasting impact I want to help students and other instructors recognize and reach their full potential I want you to be the best instructor you can be I strongly believe we impact people all the time whether we know it or not You can and will make a big difference in your students lives

Copyright and Course Reserves Carla S. Myers,2022-10-05 With the guidance of this book academic librarians wishing to provide print electronic and streaming media music and film course reserve services for their campus communities can do so in compliance with U S copyright law Many academic libraries offer print and electronic course reserve services that encourage learning by connecting students and faculty with less expensive and supplementary educational materials Unfortunately there are many misconceptions regarding how U S copyright law affects course reserve services as a result many academic libraries restrict the scope of the services they provide or refrain from pursuing new options such as media reserves out of fear of violating the law or being sued for copyright infringement Copyright and Course Reserves addresses
