Questions to All Your Answers Roger E. Olson,2009-05-26 Many Christians faith exists as a loose collection of unexamined clich s and slogans borrowed from songs devotional books sermon illustrations and even the internet Too often this belief system if it can be called a system lacks coherence and intelligibility it can hardly be expressed let alone defended to others The problem with folk religion is that it too easily withers under the onslaughts of secularism or seemingly reasonable answers provided by cults and new religions Christianity has a long tradition of intellectual examination of other faiths and its own beliefs Socrates said that the unexamined life is not worth living great Christian minds of all the ages have believed the unexamined faith is not worth believing Reflective Christianity is Christian faith that has subjected itself to the rigorous questioning of Scripture tradition reason and experience It is mature Christian faith that goes on believing even as it questions what it believes The goal of this book is not to destroy anyone s faith but to build it up by placing it on a firmer foundation of critical examination Ten popular Christian clich s are subjected to critical inquiry and interrogated to discover whether they contain truth or are in error In most cases the conclusion is both The aim is not to tear down straw men but to demonstrate a path toward stronger more mature Christian belief

Jewish Socratic Questions in an Age without Plato Yehuda Halper,2021-11-01 Winner of the 2022 Goldstein Goren Book Award from the Goldstein Goren International Center for Jewish Thought at Ben Gurion University of the Negev Yehuda Halper examines Jewish depictions of Socrates and Socratic questioning of the divine among European and North African Jews of the 12th 15th centuries Without direct access to Plato their understanding of Socrates is indirect based on legendary material on fragmentary quotations from Plato or on Aristotle Out of these sources Jewish authors of this period formed two distinct views of Socrates one as a wise ascetic monotheist and the other as a vocal skeptic The latter view has its roots in Plato s Apology where Socrates describes his divine mandate to question all knowledge including knowledge of the divine After exploring how this and similar questions arise in the works of Judah Halevi and the Hebrew Averroes Halper traces how such open questioning of the divine arises in the works of Maimonides Jacob Anatoli Gersonides and Abraham Bibago

Challenging Christian Questions Angah Cedric,2024-04-04 The word of God is God s infallible word true and self sufficient However the Christian community faces a lot of divisions and diverse interpretations on biblical interpretations doctrines and matters of the faith Sometimes people come up with doctrines from portions of Scripture and some identify portions of Scripture as controversial to others However Scripture cannot be sectioned or and Scripture is never divided Scripture is self complementary wherein every section mostly a portion of the entire truth which added together fits to give the ultimate harmonious message of scriptural revelation Scripture is therefore not self contradictory but self complementary that is all Scriptures work together in giving the ultimate picture or message With this in mind it s important to deeply study Scripture starting with contextual implications to inter scriptural connection in order to rightly divide the word of Truth as 2 Timothy 2 15 In this book we will review some major challenging questions in the body of Christ with divided opinions exploring different perspectives doing an encompassing scriptural analysis and giving a conclusive Scripture focused perspective from these studies
