Questions This Modern Age Puts To Islam:

Questions this Modern Age Puts to Islam Fethullah Gülen, 1998 The Gülen Movement Gürkan Çelik, 2010 The existence of social conflicts and the lack of social cohesion are at the center of public debates in many societies In recent years these issues have often been linked to Muslims and their religious beliefs The Islamic response to these allegations and the social problems evoking them has been diverse this book concerns the reply of a transnational movement of volunteers inspired by the teachings of Fethullah Gülen a Turkish Muslim scholar This study represents an attempt to incorporate the Gülen Movement also called the Volunteers Movement into a social movement theory approach In pluralist societies there are different communication structures and different ways of conflict resolution The Gülen Movement proposes and practices dialogue and education as two means to establish peace by maintaining social cohesion and mending the social cleavages dividing Muslims and non Muslims It is not only Gülen's spiritual message that has inspired people to pursue these ideals but also his leadership By focusing on its spiritual intellectual and practical dimension and its social background this book contributes to a comprehensive understanding of one of the most promising contemporary social movements Publisher's description back cover Conversations on Fethullah Gülen and the Hizmet Movement Peter Barnes, Gregory Baum, 2015-12-16 This book entitled Conversations on Fethullah Gülen and the Hizmet Movement Dreaming for a Better World is intended to represent an open perspective on the influence of the Hizmet Movement including Fethullah Gülen in particular on the theme of dreaming for a better world based on a variety of Christian and Muslim world views This theme is approached from three specific perspectives education and an emphasis on interfaith and intercultural dialogue a comparison of various spiritualities and a consideration of the shared dreams of the two religions The essays in this volume are adapted from talks presented by eleven authors from Canada and the United States at the Gülen Symposium at Carleton University in October 2009 The panel discussion that followed the individual presentations enhanced the overall theme of dreaming for a better world The symposium as a whole represented the positive potential that there is for the organization of forums of sharing that focus on this theme and on the three sub themes Turkey and the World Sedat Laçiner, 2001

Contemporary Islamic Conversations Nevval Sevindi, 2008-01-01 Discusses the ideas of the most important living Muslim thinker and leader in contemporary Turkey Slavery, Abolition, and Islam Haroon Bashir, 2024-12-02 Does the Qur'an promote the abolition of slavery If so why had the slave trade been allowed to operate across the Muslim world for over a millennium And why had Muslim scholars not attempted to eradicate slavery previously These were the questions that Islamic abolitionist scholars explored as they sought to challenge the slave trade throughout the nineteenth century The abolition of slavery remains a relatively new concept in human history and scholars from all religious traditions have attempted to navigate the religious and ethical questions raised by the historical acceptance of slavery In this book Haroon Bashir tells the story of how scholars promoting abolition in the name of Islam transformed the debate around Islam and slavery The book explores how abolitionism became the hegemonic position within contemporary Islamic thought and highlights the journey behind the current consensus Abolitionist arguments were not simply accepted with defenders of the slave trade using the weight of historical tradition to emphasise the legitimacy of slavery The strongly contested debates that ensued had huge ramifications for understandings of authority tradition and modernity within Islamic thought that are as present as they are past Through an exploration of these various discourses and contestations Slavery Abolition and Islam highlights how both slavery and abolition were historically challenged within the Islamic context and demonstrates how those debates continue to impact contemporary discussions In doing so the book also explores broader themes of religious traditions continuity and transformation Turkish Islam and the Secular State M. Hakan Yavuz, John L.

Esposito, 2003-11-01 In the first book of its kind M Hakan Yavuz and John L Esposito explore recent reformations of Islam and culture in Turkey and the successful Islamist modernist Fethullah G len movement As one of the most significant religious movements to emerge in Turkey in the past fifty years the G len movement combines a devotion to Islam with love for modern learning especially modern science This groundbreaking work focuses on and explains the nexus of complex historical and political developments that have contributed to the transformation of Islam in Turkey and to the movement s sphere of influence stretching into the Balkans and central Asia through the establishment of schools outside Turkey The book cogently traces the origin of G len s ideology and his early efforts to propagate his views through educational activities It details the various strategies employed by G len s followers to put his ideas into practice both in Turkey and around the world Contributors describe its intellectual and religious formation its spread across Turkey and Central Asia and its influence on citizens outside the movement including leading Turkish politicians Peace and Dialogue in a Plural

Society Thomas Michel, 2014-12-07 In a world that is too often seen as a clash of civilizations some believe there is another way a path that involves engagement dialogue and respect In Thomas Michel s new book Peace and Dialogue in a Plural Society he explores how Fethullah Gulen is one of those speaking most vocally in favor of a world community where different faiths and nations can come together at one table to solve the multitude of problems facing today s world Exploring the spiritual roots of Gulen and the Hizmet Movement as well as drawing parallels between his own work as a Catholic priest Michel shows how Hizmet has helped build a blueprint for intercultural communication in a time when too many voices are trying to stoke the fires of discord Through education dialogue and a respect for basic human dignity Michel finds a foundation in Gulen s faith and Hizmet s service upon which a healthy diverse society can be built Transnational Crime and Global Security Philip L. Reichel, Ryan Randa, 2018-01-12 This two volume work offers a comprehensive examination of the distressing topics of transnational crime and the implications for global security National security is a key concern for individual nations regions and the global community yet globalism has led to the perfusion of transnational crime such that it now poses a serious threat to the national security of governments around the world Whether attention is concentrated on a particular type of transnational crime or on broader concerns of transnational crime generally the security issues related to preventing and combatting transnational crime remain of top priority concern for many governments Transnational Crime and Global Security has been carefully curated to provide students scholars professionals and consultants of criminal justice and security studies with comprehensive information about and in depth analysis of contemporary issues in transnational crime and global security The first volume covers such core topics as cybercrime human trafficking and money laundering and also contains infrequently covered but nevertheless important topics including environmental crime the weaponization of infectious diseases and outlaw motorcycle gangs The second volume is unique in its coverage of security issues related to such topics as the return of foreign terrorist fighters using big data to reinforce security and how to focus efforts that encourage security cooperation

Rethinking Islam and Human Rights Ozcan Keles,2023 In Rethinking Islam and Human Rights leading Islam and human rights scholar Ozcan Keles examines how social movement practice unknowingly and unintentionally produces Islamic knowledge on human rights i e change in both scriptural reinterpretation and societal disposition through a focus on the interaction between the two

Islamic Religious Authority in a Modern Age Shaheen Amid Whyte,2024-01-22 This book situates Australian Muslim experiences of religious authority within the global context of Islam in the modern world While drawing on examples of Muslim majority states new empirical findings indicate the growing diversity of Muslim religious actors in Australia as well as the contextual realities shaping the way religious authority is legitimised and contested in democratic and authoritarian environments In particular the study challenges homogenous articulations of Islamic religious authority in unearthing new voices epistemologies and socio political factors shaping Muslim attitudes and experiences of religious authority The book fills important gaps in the field such as intra Muslim relations female religious authority digital Islam and the relationship between traditional ulama reformists and Muslim intellectuals in the West

Essentials of The Islamic Faith M. Fethullah Gülen,2006-04-01 Essentials of the Islamic Faith is a selection from some of the speeches M Fethullah Glen has given to large audiences over a life time of dedicated service In these speeches he explains the principal elements of Islamic belief belief in the existence and Unity of God in Resurrection and the Day of Judgment in Divine Scriptures and other familiar themes of Islamic discourse What is special and unique about the presentation of them in this book is that the author is constantly aware of the encroachment and the seductive appeal of cultural attitudes which are hostile not to Islam only but to any religious and contemplative way of life

Did Muhammad Exist? Robert Spencer,2021-07-13 Is there any sound historical evidence that the prophet of Islam actually existed or is the entire story of Muhammad fable or fiction It is a question that few have thought or dared to ask Virtually everyone Muslim and non Muslim alike takes for granted that the prophet of Islam lived as a prophet as well as a political and military leader in seventh century Arabia But this widely accepted story begins to crumble on close examination In his blockbuster New York Times bestseller The Truth about Muhammad historian and Islam expert Robert Spencer revealed the often shocking contents of Islamic teachings about Muhammad Now in this newly revised and expanded version of Did Muhammad Exist he lays bare those teachings surprisingly shaky historical foundations This updated and enlarged version of this acclaimed book examines even more striking and compelling evidence that the story of Muhammad who for so long was assumed to have lived in the full light of history could be more myth and legend than historical fact Spencer meticulously examines historical records and archaeological findings pioneering new scholarship to reconstruct what we can know about Muhammad the Qur'an and the early days of Islam The evidence he presents challenges the most fundamental assumptions about Islam's origins

Questions this Modern Age Puts to Islam Fethullah Gülen, 1993 Delving into a variety of important religious issues this guide will help those who are embarking on their own personal exploration of Islam by examining the wisdom of the Qur'an the virtues of service ethics and spirituality and the anticipation of Mahdi and Messiah The Message, 1998

Islamic Ethics and the Genome Question, 2018-12-24 Islamic Ethics and the Genome Question is one of the very first academic works which examine the field of genomics from an Islamic perspective This twelve chapter volume presents the results from a pioneering seminar held in 2017 at the Research Center for Islamic Legislation Ethics College of Islamic Studies Hamad Bin Khalifa University in Qatar The contributors to this volume coming from different disciplines and specializations approached the key ethical questions raised by the emerging field of genomics viz the Genome Question GQ from various angles and perspectives Their shared thesis is that the breadth and depth of both the GQ and the Islamic tradition necessitate going beyond just producing quick answers in response to immediate questions In order to accommodate the complexity and wide scope of the GQ the volume included critical analyses of the ethical discourse on genomics from outside the Islamic tradition Within the Islamic tradition the contributing authors explored how the QG can be better explored by involving insights from various disciplines including Quran exegesis Islamic jurisprudence philosophy and theology Besides its interest for researchers and students specialized in ethics bioethics and Islamic studies this volume will be a source of important information for geneticists genomicists and social scientists who are interested in the ethical discourse about genomics in the Muslim world Contributors include Arzoo Ahmed Abbas Amir Saadia Bendenia Mohammed Ghaly Mutaz al Khatib Amara Naceur Aasim I Padela Ayman Shabana Trevor Stammers Mehrunisha Suleman and Hub Zwart

Defining Islam Andrew Rippin, 2016-04-08 Ever since a group of people came into existence who called themselves Muslims and followed Islam questions of what it means to be a member of this group who is to be included excluded and what the requirements for membership are have proven to be both divisive and defining For scholars and critics the issue of what constitutes or defines Islam whether examining the history of the religion its specific traditions sectarian politics or acts of terrorism is central to any understanding of issues cultures and ideas Defining Islam brings together key classic and contemporary writings on the nature of Islam to provide student readers with the ideal collection of both primary and critical sources The Minaret, 1998 Islam in the Modern World Jeffrey T. Kenney, Ebrahim Moosa, 2013-08-15 This comprehensive introduction explores the landscape of contemporary Islam Written by a distinguished team of scholars it provides broad overviews of the developments events people and movements that have defined Islam in the three majority Muslim regions traces the connections between traditional Islamic institutions and concerns and their modern manifestations and transformations How are medieval ideas policies and practices refashioned to address modern circumstances investigates new themes and trends that are shaping the modern Muslim experience such as gender fundamentalism the media and secularisation offers case studies of Muslims and Islam in dynamic interaction with different societies Islam in the Modern World includes illustrations summaries discussion points and suggestions for further reading that will aid understanding and revision Additional resources are provided via a companion website Islam, Orientalism and Intellectual History Mohammad R. Salama, 2011-03-30 Debates on the relationship between Islam and the West rage on from talk of clashing civilizations to political pacification from ethical and historical perspectives to distrust xenophobia and fear Here Mohammad Salama argues that the events of 9 11 force us to engage ourselves fully without preconditions in understanding not just the history of Islam as a religion but of Islam as a historical condition that has existed in relationship to the West since the seventh century Salama compares the Arab Islamic and European traditions of historical thought since the early modern period focusing on the watershed moments that informed the two traditions ideas of intellectual history and perceptions of one another He draws attention to European intellectual history's entangled links with the Islamic philosophy of history especially the complexities of orientalism and modernity Recent critical reflections on the work of Ibn Khaldun confirm this intertwined and troubled relationship reflecting major disparities and contradictions At the same time recent Arab writings on Europe's intellectual history reveal a struggle against erasure and intellectual superiority Calling for a new understanding of the relationship between Islam and the West Salama argues that Islam has played a major role in enabling and positioning various paths of Western historiography at crucial moments of its development leaving palpable imprints on Islamic historiography in the process He proposes an answer to a fundamental question how to make sense of the mechanics of production in Arab Islamic and Western historiographies or how to identify the ways in which they have both failed to make sense of themselves and of each other in an increasingly disenchanted postnationalist world Spanning an impressive array of recent writings on these themes as well as older foundational texts in both traditions including al Tabar Ibn Khaldun Hegel al Jabart Toynbee Foucault Edward Said and Hourani this book is both timely and crucial for all those interested in Islamic and Middle Eastern studies Western and Islamic philosophies of history modernity and the relationship between Islam and the West
