From Memory to Memorial J. William Thompson, 2017-02-15 On September 11 2001 Shanksville Pennsylvania became a center of national attention when United Airlines Flight 93 crashed into a former strip mine in sleepy Somerset County killing all forty passengers and crew aboard This is the story of the memorialization that followed from immediate unofficial personal memorials to the ten year effort to plan and build a permanent national monument to honor those who died It is also the story of the unlikely community that developed through those efforts As the country struggled to process the events of September 11 temporary memorials from wreaths of flowers to personalized T-shirts and flags appeared along the chain link fences that lined the perimeter of the crash site They served as evidence of the residents' need to pay tribute to the tragedy and of the demand for an official monument Weaving oral accounts from Shanksville residents and family members of those who died with contemporaneous news reports and records J. William Thompson traces the creation of the monument and explores the larger narrative of memorialization in America He recounts the crash and its sobering immediate impact on area residents and the nation discusses the history of and controversies surrounding efforts to permanently commemorate the event and relates how locals and grief-stricken family members ultimately bonded with movers and shakers at the federal level to build the Flight 93 National Memorial A heartfelt examination of memory place and the effects of tragedy on small town America this fact-driven account of how the Flight 93 National Memorial came to be is a captivating look at the many ways we strive as communities to forever remember the events that change us Fighting Feelings Gulzar R. Charania, 2023-10-01 Racialized women and girls often feel racial injustice before they have the words to name it Sometimes they fight these feelings and sometimes they use these feelings to fight In this important and revealing book Gulzar Charania puts the experiences of women of colour at the centre of her investigation sharing how they endure everyday racism as well as its lasting impacts and exacting costs in their lives and educational trajectories Fighting Feelings highlights how the elasticity of white supremacy invites people of colour to be its accomplices how interlocking forms of oppression force racialized queer women to calibrate the risk of expressing their sexuality and how schools and the nation inform the development of racial literacy Charania traces the complex convergences and inseparability of race class gender and sexuality in women's lives and demonstrates the divergent political horizons that racism fosters The Freedom of

Virtue Tom Edwards, Cosimo Chiera, 2019-05-31 Come on a journey with two travellers not virtuous just trying to be Virtue is not for everyone and many people find their happiness in the green valleys of life But for those of us with a little chutzpah a summit looms high above and time is of the essence What makes a person no matter their background intelligence or resilience stand out from the crowd to display excellence in the art of living It was this question that led two friends a behavioural neuroscientist turned counsellor and a mathematician both experienced academics and educators to embark on a journey of discovery into the ingredients for human excellence The dish they found is called virtue Virtue sits in the background of daily life yet influences everything we say and do It is about a person's style and substance in spite of their physical strength or intellect Virtue is for us all not only for the strong and the smart So how do we attain a life of excellence amidst a modern world that has provided so many technical advances yet in which we still suffer so much anxiety depression obesity and conflict The authors argue our need to always feel comfortable if not happy has robbed us of achieving excellence in our own lives Taking an evidence based approach they examine research findings from positive psychology anthropology and biology and delve into the tenets of religion and philosophy to identify six virtues which are foundational to our humanity and which orientate each of us to our best lived life Cutting across cultural and religious barriers this unique book provides readers with practical tools in the daily art of living useful to parents teachers mental health professionals community workers and business leaders Create your own clear path to a life of excellence through virtue
