Neff, 1987 A Quiet Revolution Terry A. Neff, 1987 British Art of the Long 1980s Imogen Racz, 2020-11-26 The sculptural history of the long 1980s has been dominated by New British Sculpture and Young British Artists Arguing for a more expansive history of British sculpture and its supporting infrastructures these twenty three vivid and enthralling interviews with artists curators dealers and facilitators working then demonstrate the interconnected networks diversity of ideas and practices energy imagination and determination that transformed British art from being marginal to internationally celebrated With a substantial introduction this timely volume provides valuable new insights into the education work careers studios infrastructures and exhibitions of the artists and facilitators substantially enlarging our understanding of the era Alchemy in Contemporary Art Urszula Szulakowska, 2017-07-05 Alchemy in Contemporary Art analyzes the manner in which twentieth century artists beginning with French Surrealists of the 1920s have appropriated concepts and imagery from the western alchemical tradition This study examines artistic production from c 1920 to the present with an emphasis on the 1970s to 2000 discussing familiar names such as Andre Breton Salvador Dali Yves Klein Joseph Beuys and Anselm Kiefer as well as many little known artists of the later twentieth century It provides a critical overview of the alchemical tradition in twentieth century art and of the use of occultist imagery as a code for political discourse and polemical engagement The study is the first to examine the influence of alchemy and the Surrealist tradition on Australian as well as on Eastern European and Mexican art In addition the text considers the manner in which women artists such as Leonora Carrington Remedios Varo and Rebecca Horn have critically revised the traditional sexist imagery of alchemy and occultism for their own feminist purposes A Dictionary of Modern and Contemporary Art Ian Chilvers, John Graves-Smith, 2009 This unique and authoritative reference work contains more than 2 000 clear and concise entries on all aspects of modern and contemporary art Its impressive range of terms includes movements styles techniques artists critics dealers schools and galleries There are biographical entries for artists worldwide from the beginning of the 20th century through to the beginning of the 21st from the Finnish architect Alvar Aalto to the French sculptor Jacques Zwobada With international coverage indications of public collections and publicly sited works and in depth entries for key topics for example Cubism and abstract art this dictionary is a fascinating and thorough guide for anyone with an interest in modern and contemporary culture amateur or professional Formerly the Dictionary of 20th Century Art the text has been completely revised and updated for this major new edition 300 entries have been added and it now contains entries on photography in modern art With emphasis on recent art and artists for example Damien Hirst it has an exceptionally strong coverage of art from the 1960s which makes it particularly ideal for contemporary art enthusiasts Further reading is provided at entry level to assist those wishing to know more about a particular subject In addition this edition features recommended web links for many entries which are accessed and kept up to date via the Dictionary of Modern Art companion website The perfect companion for the desk bedside table or gallery visits A Dictionary of Modern and Contemporary Art is an essential A Z reference work for art students artists and art lovers The Cultural Devolution Neil Mulholland, 2017-10-23 Title first published in 2003 What happened to art in Britain when the balance began to shift from public to private subsidy following the IMF crisis in 1976 In this polemical book Neil Mulholland charts the political and cultural shifts in art in Britain from the mid 1970s to the end of the twentieth century His account covers the key trends and artists of this extraordinarily diverse period including critical postmodernism feminism neoconservatism object sculpture the new image Brit Art and Scottish neoconceptualism and traces the development of critical thinking from the opinions of critics such as Richard Cork John Roberts and Matthew Collings to tabloid press art scandals The Cultural Devolution offers a broad critical and historical framework within which to understand public debate on the merits of young British artists such as Damien Hirst while looking beyond such celebrities to re-discover the wealth and range of work produced Essential reading for anyone interested in contemporary art in Britain The History in Literature Herbert Lindenberger, 1990 Herbert Lindenberger was one of the first literary critics to call for some kind of return to historical thinking in literary criticism His ten essays cover canon formation the historical status of genres and the ways that art and criticism are embedded within institutional frameworks Lindenberger argues that what we label historical assumes strikingly different shapes in different historical situations and that present shape empowers new kind of knowledge He writes We may well discover that our century old form of organization within the humanities no longer fits the type of knowledge we are producing The lively and topical essays of The History in Literature demonstrate Lindenberger's capacious and diverse knowledge his incisive wit and his formidable critical skills Facing Eden Steven A. Nash, Bill Berkson, 1995-01-01 The San Francisco Bay Area boasts one of the richest and most continuous traditions of landscape art in the entire country Looking back over the past one hundred years the contributors to this in depth survey consider the diverse range of artists who have been influenced by the region's compelling union of water and land peaks and valleys and fog and sunlight Paintings sculpture graphic arts photography landscape architecture earthworks conceptual art and designs in city planning and architecture are all represented The diversity reflects not just the glories of nature but also an exploration of what constitutes landscape in its broadest most complete sense Among the more than two hundred works of art are those by well known artists and designers such as Bernard Maybeck Diego Rivera Dorothea Lange Ansel Adams Richard Diebenkorn Joan Brown Lawrence Halprin and Christo Lesser known artists are here as well resulting in an exceptional array of approaches to the natural environment The essays also explore key themes in the Bay Area's landscape art tradition including the ethnic perspectives that have played an essential role in the region's art. The inexhaustible ability of the land to stimulate different personal meanings is made clear in this volume and the effect yields a deeper understanding of how art can shape our lives in ways both spiritual and practical: how the landscape without constantly merges with the landscape within. Published in association with The Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco. The San Francisco Bay Area boasts one of the richest and most continuous traditions of landscape art in the entire country. Looking back over the past one hundred years, the contributors to this in-depth survey consider the diverse range of artists who have been influenced by the region's compelling union of water and land, peaks and valleys and fog and sunlight. Paintings, sculpture, graphic arts, photography, landscape architecture, earthworks, conceptual art and designs in city planning and architecture are all represented. The diversity reflects not just the glories of nature but also an exploration of what constitutes landscape in its broadest, most complete sense. Among the more than two hundred works of art are those by well-known artists and designers such as Bernard Maybeck, Diego Rivera, Dorothea Lange, Ansel Adams, Richard Diebenkorn, Joan Brown, Lawrence Halprin and Christo. Lesser-known artists are here as well, resulting in an exceptional array of approaches to the natural environment.
