Nikki Giovanni Virginia C. Fowler,2013-01-24 This book offers a comprehensive examination of the life and work of Nikki Giovanni one of the most prolific and well known poets to emerge during the Black Arts Movement Nikki Giovanni A Literary Biography focuses on one of the most widely read poets to emerge from the Black Arts Movement providing a thorough examination of Giovanni s life and work from her earliest volume of poetry Black Feeling Black Talk to the recent Bicycles The book addresses Giovanni s preoccupation with historical themes and the past and demonstrates the pervasiveness of music in Giovanni s poetry Drawing on extensive interviews with Giovanni s friends and family this book offers biographical information not previously available in other publications It references material from Giovanni s prose works to illuminate and contextualize the analysis of her poetry examining its highly allusive and topical nature The book also shows the intersections of Giovanni s biography and the public history of the United States from the 1960s to the present making it of interest to general readers as well as those studying American and African American poetry or black feminism

The End of Blackness Debra J. Dickerson,2008-12-10 Debra Dickerson pulls no punches in this electrifying manifesto Outspoken journalist and author of the critically acclaimed memoir An American Story she challenges black Americans to stop obsessing about racism and start focusing on problems they can fix The way out of the ghetto she asserts is to take a good hard look in the mirror Get angry Dickerson says but use that anger to fuel excellence and civic participation rather than crime or drug addiction Drawing richly on black history and thought as well as her own hard won wisdom she urges blacks to let go of the past and claim their full freedom It s only by shaping their own future she argues that blacks will finally abolish the myth of white superiority American Ethnic Writers ,2009 Covers numerous ethnic writers and their works All major American ethnicities are covered African American Asian American Jewish American Hispanic Latino and Native American

New Criticism and Pedagogical Directions for Contemporary Black Women Writers LaToya Jefferson-James,2022-03-03 New Criticism and Pedagogical Directions for Contemporary Black Women Writers is a collection of critical and pedagogical essays that shed new light on the creative depths of Black women writers On the one hand some Black women writers have been heavily anthologized they have more often than not been restricted by critical metanarratives Some of their works have been lionized while others remain neglected On the other hand some Black women writers have been ignored and understudied This collection corrects the gaps in our critical thinking about Black women writers by introducing them to a new generation of undergraduate and graduate students and by presenting pedagogical essays to our colleagues currently working in the field
