Historicizing the Embodied Imagination in Early Modern English Literature Mark Kaethler, Grant Williams, 2024-07-07 Commonly used as a rallying cry for general approaches to literary studies the imagination has until recently been overwritten with romantic and modernist inflections that impede our understanding of literature's intimate involvement in early modern cognition To recover the pre Cartesian imagination this collection of essays takes a historicist approach by situating literary texts within the embodied and ensouled faculty system Image making and fantasizing were not autonomous activities but belonged to a greater cognitive ecosystem which the volume's four sections reflect The Visual Imagination Sensory and Affective Imaginings Artifice and the Mnemonic Imagination and Higher Imaginings Together they accentuate the imagination's interdependency and friction with other faculties Ultimately the volume's attention to the embodied imagination gives scholars new perspectives on literary and image production in the writings of Spenser Shakespeare Donne and their contemporaries

A Manual for Preaching Abraham Kuruvilla, 2019-10-15 Abraham Kuruvilla's A Vision for Preaching offered an integrated biblical and theological vision for preaching A Manual for Preaching addresses the practical and perennial issue of how to move from the biblical text to an effective sermon The author a well respected teacher of preachers shows how to discern the text's theological meaning and let that meaning shape the development of the sermon Clearly written and illustrated with Old Testament and New Testament examples the book helps preachers negotiate larger swaths of Scripture and includes two annotated sermon manuscripts from Kuruvilla

The Fontane Workshop Petra S. McGillen, 2019-07-25 Winner of the Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Prize for Studies in Germanic Languages and Literatures Awarded by the MLA With an innovative approach that combines material media history media theory and literary poetics this book reconstructs the great German writer Theodor Fontane's creative process Petra McGillen follows Fontane into the engine room of his text production Analyzing a wealth of unexplored archival evidence which includes a collection of the author's 67 extant notebooks along with an array of other paper tools such as cardboard boxes envelopes and slips McGillen demonstrates how Fontane compiled his realist prose works That is he assembled them from premediated sources literally with scissors and glue in an extraordinarily inorganic and radically intertextual manner that turned writing into a process of ongoing remix By exploring the far reaching implications of Fontane's creative practices for our understanding of his authorship originality and poetics this book opens up a completely new way to think about his works and by extension 19th century literary realism This conceptualization of authors notebooks as creative tools makes a substantial contribution to scholarship on the history of writing media in several disciplines from German studies and literary studies to media history and to our understanding of the relationship between mass media and literary creativity in the late 19th century

Conflicts Liron Mor, 2024-01-02 Liron Mor's book queries what conflict means in the context of Palestine Israel Conflict has long been seen as singular and primary as an original sin that necessitates the state and underwrites politics This book problematizes this universal notion of conflict revealing its colonial implications and proposing that conflicts are always politically constructed after the fact and are thus to be understood in their various specific forms The book explores sites of poetic and political strife in Palestine Israel by combining a comparative study of Hebrew and Arabic literature with political and literary theory Mor leverages an archive that ranges from the 1930s to the present from prose and poetry to film and television to challenge the conception of the Palestinian Israeli context as a conflict delineating the colonial history of this concept and showing its inadequacy to Palestine Israel Instead Mor articulates locally specific modes of theorizing the antagonisms and mediations colonial technologies and anticolonial practices that make up the fabric of this site The book thus offers five figurative conflictual concepts that are derived from the poetics of the works conflict judgment ishtib k leva im disorienting dilemmas ikhtif anti colonial disappearance o mediating law and inqis m hostile severance In so doing Conflicts aims to generate a historically and geographically situated mode of theory making which defies the separation between the conceptual and the poetic comprehensive training program in twelve books he draws on his own rich experience. It provides not only insights on oratory but also a picture of Roman education and social attitudes. Quintilian, born in Spain about 35 CE, became a widely known and highly successful teacher of rhetoric in Rome. The Orator's Education (Institutio Oratoria), a comprehensive training program in twelve books, draws on his own rich experience. It is a work of enduring importance not only for its insights on oratory but for the picture it paints of education and social attitudes in the Roman world. Quintilian offers both general and specific advice. He gives guidelines for proper schooling, beginning with the young boy; analyzes the structure of speeches; recommends devices that will engage listeners and appeal to their emotions; reviews a wide range of Greek and Latin authors of use to the orator; and counsels on memory, delivery, and gestures. Donald Russell's new five-volume Loeb Classical Library edition of The Orator's Education, which replaces an eighty-year-old translation by H. E. Butler, provides a text and facing translation fully up to date in light of current scholarship and well-tuned to today's taste. Russell also provides unusually rich explanatory notes which enable full appreciation of this central work in the history of rhetoric. Quintilian's Institutes of Oratory
