Qumran and History Olive Kuntz Gilliam, 1974      History and Memory in the Dead Sea Scrolls Travis B.

Williams, 2019-05-16 Charts a new methodological course in Dead Sea Scrolls scholarship by employing memory theory to inform historical research This is an instructive resource for scholars who are seeking an alternative to currently constructed approaches to the subject and will be of appeal to those interested in the Dead Sea Scrolls more generally      The

Cambridge Guide to Jewish History, Religion, and Culture Judith R. Baskin, Kenneth Seeskin, 2010-07-12 This book provides a comprehensive and accessible overview of the Jewish experience from its ancient origins to its impact on contemporary popular culture      Jewish Studies on Premodern Periods Carl S. Ehrlich, Sara R. Horowitz, 2023-05-22 This volume examines new developments in the fields of premodern Jewish studies over the last thirty years The essays in this volume written by leading experts are grouped into four overarching temporal areas the First Temple Second Temple Rabbinic and Medieval periods These time periods are analyzed through four thematic methodological lenses the social scientific history and society the textual texts and literature the material art architecture and archaeology and the philosophical religion and thought Some essays offer a comprehensive look at the state of the field while others look at specific examples illustrative of their temporal and thematic areas of inquiry The volume presents a snapshot of the state of the field encompassing new perspectives directions and methodologies as well as the questions that will animate the field as it develops further It will be of interest to scholars and students in the field as well as to educated readers looking to understand the changing face of Jewish studies as a discipline advancing human knowledge      History of the World Christian Movement Dale T.

Irvin, Scott Sunquist, 2002-01-10 This thorough lucid solidly researched book the first of two volumes charts the history of global Christianity      From Sacred Story to Sacred Text James A. Sanders, 2000-06-14      A History of Religious Ideas,

Volume 2 Mircea Eliade, 2011-12-16 In volume 2 of this monumental work Mircea Eliade continues his magisterial progress through the history of religious ideas The religions of ancient China Brahmanism and Hinduism Buddha and his contemporaries Roman religion Celtic and German religions Judaism the Hellenistic period the Iranian syntheses and the birth of Christianity all are encompassed in this volume      History and Religion Bernd-Christian Otto, Susanne Rau, Jörg

Rüpke, 2015-08-31 History is one of the most important cultural tools to make sense of one's situation to establish identity define otherness and explain change This is the first systematic scholarly study that analyses the complex relationship between history and religion taking into account religious groups both as producers of historical narratives as well as distinct topics of historiography Coming from different disciplines the authors of this volume ask under which conditions and with what consequences religions are historicised How do religious groups employ historical narratives in the construction of their identities What are the biases and elisions of current analytical and descriptive frames in the History of Religion The volume aims at initiating a comparative historiography of religion and combines disciplinary competences of Religious

Studies and the History of Religion Confessional Theologies History History of Science and Literary Studies By applying literary comparison and historical contextualization to those texts that have been used as central documents for histories of individual religions their historiographic themes tools and strategies are analysed The comparative approach addresses circum Mediterranean and European as well as Asian religious traditions from the first millennium BCE to the present and deals with topics such as the origins of religious historiography the practices of writing and the transformation of narratives

Text as Revelation Hanna Tervanotko, Jonathan Stökl, 2023-12-28 Text as Revelation analyses the shift of revelatory experiences from oral to written that is described in ancient Jewish literature including rabbinic texts The individual essays seek to understand how why and for whom texts became the locus of revelation While the majority of the contributors analyze ancient Jewish literature for depictions of oral and written revelation such as the Hebrew Bible and the literature of the Second Temple era a number of articles also investigate textualization of revelation in cognate cultures analyzing Egyptian Mesopotamian and Greek sources With subjects ranging from Ancient Egyptian and Sibylline oracles to Hellenistic writings and the books of Isaiah Deuteronomy and Jeremiah the studies in this volume bring together established and new voices reflecting on the issues raised by the interplay between writing and divinatory revelation The Dead Sea Scrolls in Scholarly Perspective: A History of Research Devorah Dimant, Ingo Kottsieper, 2012-01-20 This book contains an exhaustive survey of past and present Qumran research outlining its particular development in various circumstances and national contexts For the first time perspectives and information not recorded in any other publication are highlighted studies in the history of religions Bentley Layton, Scripture as Social Discourse Todd Klutz, Casey Strine, Jessica M. Keady, 2018-06-14 Throughout the last several decades professional biblical scholars have adapted concepts and theories from the social sciences particularly social and cultural anthropology in order to cast new light on ancient biblical writings early Jewish and Christian texts that circulated with the Scriptures and the various contexts in which these literatures were produced and first received The present volume of essays draws much of its inspiration from that same development in the history of biblical research while also offering insights from other newer approaches to interpretation The contributors to this volume explore a wide range of broadly social scientific disciplines and discourses cultural anthropology sociology archaeology political science the New Historicism forced migration studies gender studies and provide multiple examples of the ways in which these diverse methods and theories can shed new and often fascinating light on the ancient texts The fruit of scholarly work that is both international in flavour and truly collaborative this volume provides fresh perspectives not only on familiar portions of Jewish and Christian Scripture but also on select passages from the Dead Sea Scrolls the Nag Hammadi library and previously untranslated French texts The Early Enoch Literature Gabriele Boccaccini, John John Joseph Collins, 2007 This book provides an overview of the current debate about the early Enoch literature and its place in ancient Judaism especially in relation to the Torah of Moses and to the Dead Sea Scrolls Jewish and Christian Scriptures

James H. Charlesworth, Lee Martin McDonald, 2010-05-27 Over the past four decades many scholars have focused on the expanding collection of alleged extra canonical documents that were deemed inspired by God in numerous early Jewish and Christian groups Eventually these texts ceased to have an authoritative role in Judaism and Christianity and were branded extra canonical Now these documents once considered sacred are recognized as fundamental in understanding antiquity and the development of the canon Many scholars are now according an authority to some of these texts This volume draws attention to these ancient religious texts especially the so called non canonical texts by focusing on how they were used or functioned in early societies The contributors also warn us about the assumed barriers between canon and extra canon texts and traditions and they suggest that we should be careful with labels such as Jewish and Christian The contributors also indicate intermittently or implicitly the importance of combining disciplines that had been isolated especially the study of texts the exploration of the canonical process and the relevance of sociology in studying ancient groups The Religious World of Jesus Frederick James Murphy, 1991 This textbook provides a basic introduction to the pivotal era in biblical history known as the Second Temple period 520 B C E to 70 C E the formative milieu of Jesus and the earliest Christians Designed for maximum convenience for students and teachers it contains suggestions for primary readings a bibliography glossary full index and chronology Qumranica Minora I Florentino García Martínez, 2007-05-31 Qumranica Minora I Qumran Origins and Apocalypticism brings together the author's much discussed articles on the so called Groningen Hypothesis an hypothesis about the origins of the Qumran Community in relation to the parent Essene movement and Palestinian apocalyptic movements as well as a selection of his most important essays on Early Jewish and Qumran apocalypticism The third part of the book consists of surveys of the history of research on the Dead Sea Scrolls The volume includes English translations of essays that were originally written in Spanish and French One Teacher John Yueh-Han Yieh, 2012-08-06 A literary critical analysis is embarked to show how Matthew highlights the primacy authority and exclusivity of Jesus role as the Teacher of God's will and how he features five long discourses in the narrative Two cultural parallels the Teacher of Righteousness and Epictetus are studied for comparison The ways in which they are remembered in the literature and in which they shape the lives of their followers provide proper historical perspectives and useful frames of reference Finally a social historical reading of the three teachers and their followers in the light of pertinent sociological theories sociology of knowledge group formation indicates that Jesus the One Teacher serves four crucial functions for his readers in Matthew's church polemic apologetic didactic and pastoral Religion in the Dead Sea Scrolls John Joseph Collins, Robert A. Kugler, 2000-07-17 Eight European and North American scholars explore the concept of divinity in the Scrolls monotheism vs a host of divine beings and the efficacy of prayer the Scrolls relation to important halakic issues the interpretation of sacrifice and the continuity of halakic tendencies the question of Hellenistic influence especially the Greek language and the Scrolls apocalypticism and messianism Included is one index of ancient literature and one of modern authors Collins is professor of
