into the twentieth Mrinalini Rajagopalan argues that the modern construction of the history of these monuments entailed the careful selection manipulation and regulation of the past by both the colonial and later postcolonial states Although framed as objective archival truths these histories were meant to erase or marginalize the powerful and persistent affective appropriations of the monuments by groups who often existed outside the center of power By analyzing these archival and affective histories together Rajagopalan works to redefine the historic monument far from a symbol of a specific past the monument is shown in Building Histories to be a culturally mutable object with multiple stories to tell

Reuse Value Richard Brilliant, Dale Kinney, 2016-04-08 This book offers a range of views on spolia and appropriation in art and architecture from fourth century Rome to the late twentieth century Using case studies from different historical moments and cultures contributors test the limits of spolia as a critical category and seek to define its specific character in relation to other forms of artistic appropriation Several authors explore the ethical issues raised by spoliation and their implications for the evaluation and interpretation of new work made with spolia The contemporary fascination with spolia is part of a larger cultural preoccupation with reuse recycling appropriation and re presentation in the Western world All of these practices speak to a desire to make use of pre existing artifacts objects images expressions for contemporary purposes Several essays in this volume focus on the distinction between spolia and other forms of reused objects While some authors prefer to elide such distinctions others insist that spolia entail some form of taking often violent and a diminution of the source from which they are removed The book opens with an essay by the scholar most responsible for the popularity of spolia studies in the later twentieth century Arnold Esch whose seminal article Spolien was published in 1969 Subsequent essays treat late Roman antiquity the Eastern Mediterranean and the Western Middle Ages medieval and modern attitudes to spolia in Southern Asia the Italian Renaissance the European Enlightenment modern America and contemporary architecture and visual culture Africa and India-Me & the Kids Shaun Donovan, 2015-05-18 Having completed their overland journey of twenty thousand kilometers twelve thousand miles from Cardiff to Singapore Shaun and his daughter Hayley have now flown over to India to meet up with her two brothers and also Hayley's boyfriend for a ten day exploratory tour of Goa's finest beaches During this time our infamous five also pay a visit to an amazing spice plantation go on an unforgettable crocodile safari have a stupendous swim under a spectacular waterfall and ride a gigantic elephant before the lads finally returned home to the United Kingdom while Shaun and Hayley continued on with their overland journey Mumbai was their next port of call where they visited Elephanta Island the home of the third largest caves in the world before moving on to Aurangabad to pay homage to the incredible Ellora and Ajanta Caves the two largest caves on the planet Delhi was next in line including a visit to the breathtakingly beautiful Taj Mahal in Agra before flying over to Abu Dhabi for a short visit and then on to South Africa After taking a cable car to the top of Table Mountain and enjoying panoramic views over Cape Town our intrepid explorers indulged themselves in a fabulous bus tour around this bustling city before going scuba diving with a handful of sharks Next in line was a thousand mile bus ride across the plains of South Africa before crossing borders into Zimbabwe and standing on top of the world in the Matobo Safari Park before being mesmerized by the magnificence of Victoria Falls To keep the adrenaline flowing our two adventurers then embarked on a zip slide across the incredible gorge which separates Zimbabwe from Zambia before finishing off their visit with a death defying white water rafting trip over the rapids of the Mighty Zambezi River Apart from paying their respects at the David Livingstone Museum and Shaun having his toenail ripped off in Kipiri Mposhi our weary travelers then traversed another thousand miles of African soil which included two of the hardest journeys of their lives until they finally reached the city of Arusha in Northern Tanzania At this point our perilous pair took off on an unbelievable three day safari to Tarangire National Park Lake Manyara and the Ngorongoro Crater where they came face to face with the infamous Maasai Warriors before rounding off their incredible journey with a day trip to the mystical island of Zanzibar
