Rabbi Akiba and His Contemporaries Judah Nadich,1998-03 To find more information on Rowman Littlefield titles please visit www.rlpbooks.com     Philosophers and Religious Leaders Christian von Dehsen,2013-09-13 Philosophers and Religious Leaders provides a synopsis of the lives and legacies of 200 men and women from the areas of religion and philosophy who have changed the world These individuals have developed extended or exemplified ideas fundamental to the way human beings perceive the meaning and purpose of their own lives and of their societies Some have challenged prevailing convictions and worked for immediate change during their lifetimes others have proposed new modes of thinking that have flourished only after their passing     Jewish Mysticism and Kabbalah Frederick E. Greenspahn,2011-11-01 Over the past generation scholars have devoted increasing attention to the diverse forms that Jewish mysticism has taken both in the past and today what was once called nonsense by Jewish scholars has generated important research and attention both within the academy and beyond as demonstrated by the popular fascination with figures such as Madonna and Demi Moore and the growing interest in spirituality In Jewish Mysticism and Kabbalah leading experts introduce the history of this scholarship as well as the most recent insights and debates that currently animate the field in a way that is accessible to a broad audience From mystical outpourings in ancient Palestine to the Kabbalah Centre and from attitudes towards gender to mystical contributions to Jewish messianic movements this volume explores the various expressions of Jewish mysticism from antiquity to the present day in an engaging style appropriate for students and non specialists alike     Club Papers Chicago Literary Club,1905     The Proskynesis of Jesus in the New Testament Ray M. Lozano,2019-10-17 This book investigates the use of the Greek term proskuneo with Jesus as the object in the New Testament writings Ray M Lozano unpicks this interesting term and examines its capacity to express various degrees of reverence directed toward a superior from a respectful greeting of an elder to homage paid to a king to cultic worship paid to a god Lozano then looks at the term in reference to Jesus in the New Testament writings and carefully considers whether Jesus is portrayed as receiving such reverence in a relatively weak sense as a merely human figure or in a relatively strong sense as a divine figure Lozano highlights how scholars are divided over this issue and provides a fresh thorough examination of the New Testament material Mark Matthew Luke Acts John Hebrews and Revelation and in so doing shows that each of these New Testament writings in their own unique ways presents Jesus as a divine figure uniquely and closely linked to the God of Israel in making him an object of proskuneo     The History of the Jews Gotthard Deutsch,1921     The Power of Myth, or on the Meanders of Historical Writing Krzysztof A. Makowski,2023-09-25 This monograph presents a critical analysis of the body of historical writing on the history of the Jewish population in Poznan in the era of the Prussian rule 1772 1918 including the identification and verification of the attendant myths and stereotypes The interest in the Polish edition of this book was considerable Similarly noticeable was the academic response to the title despite its ostensibly local subject matter While this study was also noticed abroad the language barrier has severely impeded its impact This prompted the author to work towards the English edition of this book hoping it would find its way into global academic circulation Some changes and additions were made in the English version It includes an updated survey of scholarship on this subject of the past twenty years a response to reviews engaging with the Polish edition and some general reflections on the evolution of historiography in the recent years Apocalyptic Messianism and Contemporary Jewish-American Poetry R. Barbara Gitenstein, 2012-02-01 Focusing on the rich context of esoteric Jewish literature this collection presents in depth analyses of Jewish American poetry Gitenstein defines Jewish messianism and the literary genre of the apocalyptic describes historical movements and kabbalistic theories and analyzes their influence as part of the post Holocaust consciousness Represented are works by such poets as Irving Feldman Jack Hirschman John Hollander David Meltzer and Jerome Rothenberg Gitenstein recounts the lives of such spectacular eccentrics and holy men as the Abraham Abulafia thirteenth century Isaac Luria sixteenth century Shabbatai Zevi seventeenth century and Jacob Frank eighteenth century and identifies their theories as part of the history of the literary apocalyptic genre the literature of exile the literature of catastrophe The Jewish Mind Raphael Patai, 1996 A landmark exploration of Jewish history and culture First published in 1977 The Jewish Mind provides a penetrating insight into the complex collective reality of the Jewish people Raphael Patai examines how six great historical encounters spanning three millennia between the Jews and other cultures led to both change and continuity in Jewish communities throughout the global diaspora A timeless analysis by a prominent scholar Patai a noted cultural anthropologist and historian drew on a lifetime of research and personal experience to explore the contemporary Jewish mind in its many manifestations including an exploration of the notion of Jews as a race an investigation into Jewish intelligence and talents as discussion of Jewish self hate and a profile of Jewish personality and character An insightful new foreword by Ari L Goldman Bestselling author and journalist Ari L Goldman places the book in the context of recent turbulent events especially in the Middle East and confirms Patai's conclusion that Judaism remains enormous value to humankind Goldman calls the book a brilliant and absorbing survey of everything poured into the Jewish mind over the millennia The Jewish Mind is a towering work of scholarship that remains relevant to anyone trying to understand Jewish culture and society around the world today Book jacket The world of Qumran from within Talmon, 2024-02-26 Aspects of Jewish Life and Thought (The Letters of Benammi) Mortimer Epstein, 1922 The Menorah, 1889 Rabbis of Ancient Times Bear Leib Friedman, 1896 The Old Testament Canon of the New Testament Church Roger T. Beckwith, 2008-11-01 This new study of the Old Testament canon by Roger Beckwith is on a scale to match H E Ryle's classic work which was first published in 1892 But Beckwith has the advantage of writing after the Qumran and other discoveries and he has also made full use of all the available sources including biblical manuscripts and rabbinical and patristic literature taking into account the seldom studied Syriac material as well as the Greek and Latin material The result of many years of study this book is a major work of scholarship on a subject which has been neglected in recent times It is both historical and theological but Beckwith's first consideration has been to make a thorough and unprejudiced historical investigation One of his most important concerns and one that is crucial for all students of Judaism and Christians in particular is to decide when the limits of the Jewish canon were settled In the answer to this question lies an important key to the teaching of Jesus and his apostles and the resultant beliefs of the New Testament church Furthermore any answers to questions about the state of the canon in the New Testament period would help to open a way through the present ecumenical and interfaith impasse on the subject With its meticulous research and evenhanded approach this book is sure to become the starting point for study of the Old Testament canon in the years to come

In This Hour Abraham Joshua Heschel, Susannah Heschel, 2019-01-01 In This Hour offers the first English translations of selected German writings by Abraham Joshua Heschel from his tumultuous years in Nazi ruled Germany and months in London exile before he found refuge in the United States Moreover several of the works have never been published in any language Composed during a time of intense crisis for European Jewry these writings both argue for and exemplify a powerful vision of spiritually rich Jewish learning and its redemptive role in the past and the future of the Jewish people The collection opens with the text of a speech in which Heschel laid out with passion his vision for Jewish education Then it goes on to present his teachings a set of essays about the rabbis of the Mishnaic period whose struggles paralleled those of his own time the biography of the medieval Jewish scholar and leader Don Yitzhak Abravanel reflections on the power and meaning of repentance written for the High Holidays in 1936 and a short story on Jewish exile written for Hanukkah 1937 The collection closes with a set of four recently discovered meditations on suffering prayer spirituality and God in which Heschel grapples with the horrors unfolding around him Taken together these essays and story fill a significant void in Heschel's bibliography his Nazi Germany and London exile years These translations convey the spare elegance of Heschel's prose and the introduction and detailed notes make the volume accessible to readers of all knowledge levels As Heschel teaches history his voice is more than that of a historian the old becomes new and the struggles of one era shed light on another Even as Heschel quotes ancient sources his words address the issues of his own time and speak urgently to ours
