Race For Sanctions:

Race for Sanctions Francis Njubi Nesbitt, 2004-05-11 An important contribution to the political history of this period and a must for those interested in the influence of the great pan Africanists Elliott P Skinner This study traces the evolution of the anti apartheid movement from its origins in the 1940s through the civil rights and black power eras to its maturation in the 1980s as a force that transformed U S foreign policy The movement initially met resistance and was soon repressed only to reemerge during the civil rights era when it became radicalized with the coming of the black freedom movement The book looks at three important political groups TransAfrica the black lobby for Africa and the Caribbean the Free South Africa Movement and lastly the Congressional Black Caucus and its role in passing sanctions against South Africa over President Reagan s veto It concludes with an assessment of the impact of sanctions on the release of Nelson Mandela and his eventual election as president of South Africa

Race and US Foreign Policy Mark Ledwidge, 2012-02-06 African Americans analysis of and interest in foreign affairs represents a rich and dynamic legacy and this work provides a cutting edge insight into this neglected aspect of US foreign affairs In addition to extending the parameters of US foreign policy literature to include race and ethnicity the book documents case specific analyses of the evolutionary development of the African American foreign affairs network AAFAN Whilst the examination of race in regard to the construction of US foreign policy is significant this book also provides a cross disciplinary approach which utilises historical and political science methods to paint a more realistic appraisal of US foreign policy Including analysis of original archival evidence this theoretically informed work seeks to transcend the standard mono disciplinary approach which overestimates the separation between domestic and foreign affairs The unique approach of this work will add an important dimension to a newly emerging field and will be of interest to scholars in ethnic and racial studies American politics US foreign policy and US history

Between Homeland and Motherland Alvin B. Tillery, Jr., 2011-03-15 In Between Homeland and Motherland Alvin B Tillery Jr considers the history of political engagement with Africa on the part of African Americans beginning with the birth of Paul Cuffe s back to Africa movement in the Federal Period to the Congressional Black Caucus struggle to reach consensus on the African Growth and Opportunity Act of 2000 In contrast to the prevailing view that pan Africanism has been the dominant ideology guiding black leaders in formulating foreign policy positions toward Africa Tillery highlights the importance of domestic politics and factors within the African American community Employing an innovative multimethod approach that combines archival research statistical modeling and interviews Tillery argues that among African American elites activists intellectuals and politicians factors internal to the community played a large role in shaping their approach to African issues and that shaping U S policy toward Africa was often secondary to winning political battles in the domestic arena At the same time Africa and its interests were important to America s black elite and Tillery s analysis reveals that many black leaders have strong attachments to the motherland Spanning two centuries of African American engagement with Africa this book shows how black leaders continuously balanced national transnational and community impulses whether distancing themselves from Marcus Garvey's back to Africa movement supporting the anticolonialism movements of the 1950s or opposing South African apartheid in the 1980s Encyclopedia of Race and Crime Helen Taylor Greene, Shaun L.
