Race Identity And Representation In Education

Ruth Arber

Race Identity And Representation In Education:

Race, Identity, and Representation in Education Cameron McCarthy, 1993 Despite differing orientations the contributors here all share a common concern for stressing the importance of social context nuance and language in understanding the dynamics of race relations Race, Identity, and Representation in Education Cameron McCarthy, 2005 First Published in 2005 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Race, Identity, and Representation in Education Warren Crichlow, 2013-05-13 This stunning new edition retains the book's broad aims intended audience and multidisciplinary approach New chapters take into account the more current backdrop of globalization particularly events such as 9 11 and attendant developments that make a reconsideration of race relations in education quite urgent Playing the Race Card George Jerry Sefa Dei, Leeno Luke Karumanchery, Nisha Karumanchery-Luik, 2004 Playing the Race Card reflects and engages the dynamic nature of racialized experience in Western contexts It examines today's anti racism project to discern how it might benefit from integrating strategies that work toward the development of critical consciousness as its main goal So that the privileged and the oppressed alike may reflexively examine their own subject positions this book identifies and addresses the need to develop a working model for anti racism strategies Given the need to understand and move beyond static conceptions of race and racism Playing the Race Card offers both a critique of mainstream privileged perceptions of racial oppression as well as a direction forward within a more organic approach to social reform

Comparative and Global Pedagogies Joseph Zajda, Lynn Davies, Suzanne Majhanovich, 2008-06-26 A major aim of Comparative and Global Pedagogies Equity Access and Democracy in Education which is the second volume in the 12 volume book series Globalisation Comparative Education and Policy Research edited by Joseph Zajda and his team is to present a global overview of recent trends in equity and access in education globally By examining some of the major education policy issues particularly in the light of recent shifts in education and policy research dealing with equity and access the editors aim to provide a comprehensive picture of the intersecting and diverse discourses of globalization education and policy driven reforms The impact of globalization on education policy and reforms is a strategically important issue for us all More than ever before there is a need to understand and analyse both the intended and the unintended effects of globalization on educational systems the state and relevant policy changes especially in terms of equity and access as they affect individuals educational bodies such as universities policy makers across the globe Current education policy research dealing with equity and social inequality reflects a rapidly changing world where citizens and consumers are experiencing a growing sense of uncertainty exclusion and loss of flexibility Yet globalization exposes us also to opportunities generated by a fast changing world economy Race, Ethnicity and Education in Globalised Times Ruth Arber, 2008-02-12 What is the specificity of contemporary racism And what happens to questions of race in a context where multiculturalism is taken for granted Few authors address these kinds of questions with subtlety For the most part questions of racism are treated either as self evident or alternatively as self evidenced The rst approach accentuated in everyday life and played out in media exposures is the tendency to treat racism as manifestly self evident We just know what racism is in principle and we just know what it looks like when we see it in practice Dualistic assumptions dominate this sense of identity relations persons are racist or they are not an act is racist or it is not However despite the obviousness of racism in contexts where different people have different seating arrangements on a bus or somebody says I am better than you because your skin colour is different this approach barely comes to terms with the depth of embodied politics and the elusiveness of structures of racism in the contemporary world

Innovations in Educational Ethnography George Spindler, Lorie Hammond, 2012-10-12 This volume focuses on and exemplifies how ethnography a research tool devoted to looking at human interaction as a cultural process rather than individual psychology can shed light on educational processes framed by the complex internationalized societies in which we live today Part I offers theoretical chapters about ethnography and examples of innovative ethnography from particular perspectives In Part II the emphasis is on the application of ethnographic approaches to educational settings Each contribution not only takes the reader on a thoughtful and enlightening journey but raises issues that are important to both educators and ethnographers including the relationship of researcher to subject the meaning of participant in participant observation and ways to give voice to disenfranchised players and on the complex ways in which all parties experience identities such as race in the modern world Innovations in Educational Ethnography Theory Methods and Results is a product of both continuity and change It presents current writings from mentors in the field of ethnography and education as well of the work of their students and of educators engaged in cultural studies of their work In many ways it provides fresh new vistas on the old questions that have always guided ethnographic research and can be used as a survey both of what ethnography has been and what it is becoming This book is the work of many hands and provides excellent examples of trends in both basic and applied ethnography of education These two kinds of work augment and reinforce each other and also represent important current research directions in depth reflection on the process of ethnography itself and an application of its insights to teaching and learning in schools universities and communities No one philosophy guides the contributions to this volume nor were they chosen as exemplary of a particular approach yet foundational understandings and principles of ethnography shine through the work in both predictable and unexpected ways Slavery, Memory and Identity Douglas Hamilton, Kate Hodgson, Joel Quirk, 2015-10-06 This is the first book to explore national representations of slavery in an international comparative perspective Contributions span a wide geographical range covering Europe North America West and South Africa the Indian Ocean and Asia Identity and Belonging B. Singh Bolaria, Sean Patrick Hier, 2006 As Canada's ethno racial composition becomes more complex critical understandings of race ethnicity identity and belonging are increasingly important goals for social justice fairness and inclusion This edition addresses these concerns

Advancing Equity and Achievement in America's Diverse Schools Camille M. Wilson, Sonya Douglass

Horsford,2013-09-05 Advancing Equity and Achievement in America's Diverse Schools illustrates how educators students families and community partners can work in strategic ways to build on social cultural and ethnic diversity to advance educational equity and achievement By drawing on the latest data on demographic change constructions of culture and cultural difference and the politics of school reform in urban rural and suburban school communities this volume looks toward solutions and strategies for meaningful educational improvement Contributors consider both the diversity of youth and families served in public schools and the culture of U S schooling highlighting the influence of policy and reform agendas students identities and agency experiences and approaches of diverse educators and the workings of effective school partnerships Chapters also focus on those often overlooked in educational scholarship such as Native Americans students experiencing poverty and or homelessness Muslim students students with special needs and students and educators who are lesbian gay bisexual transgender intersex or queer In all this edited collection stresses the need for high quality education that is inclusive culturally responsive and unifying so all students can experience academic success This book is a meaningful resource for educators policymakers and community based leaders interested in doing such transformative work

Speaking the Unpleasant Rudolfo Chávez Chávez,Rudolfo Chavez Chavez,James O'Donnell,1998-01-01 Discusses the issue of engagement and nonengagement of students in multicultural education programs Standing Outside on the Inside Olga M. Welch,Carolyn R. Hodges,1997-03-20 At a time when increased emphasis is placed on pre college preparation of disadvantaged students the number of African American students entering colleges and universities continues to decline and the achievement gaps between these students and their White peers persist While many enrichment programs report impressive gains little research on these programs contains the perspective of the Black students This book presents the results of a longitudinal study of academic achievement and pre college enrichment of disadvantaged African American adolescents in two inner city high schools Through its presentation and analysis of the students perceptions of pre college enrichment seen in relation to their definitions of scholarship and the discussion of findings related to parent and teacher involvement this book provides fresh perspectives on the school experiences of Black adolescents and offers important insights for those involved in both the development and evaluation of enrichment programs Popular Culture and Representations of Literacy Bronwyn Williams,Amy Zenger,2007-11-13 Movies are filled with scenes of people of all ages sexes races and social classes reading and writing in widely varied contexts and purposes Yet these scenes go largely unnoticed despite the fact that these images recreate and reinforce pervasive concepts and perceptions of literacy This book addresses how everyday literacy practices are represented in popular culture specifically in mainstream widely distributed contemporary movies If we watch films carefully for who reads and writes in what settings and for what social goals we can see a reflection of the dominant functions and perceptions that shape our conceptions of literacy in our culture Such perceptions influence public and political debates about literacy instruction teachers expectations of what will happen in their classrooms and student s ideas about what reading and writing should be

Critical Multiculturalism Stephen May,2005-08-18 This book aims to bring together two movements multiculturalism and anti racism which though having aims in common have been at arms length in the past Differences of emphasis have meant that classroom practice has been the natural realm of multiculturalism while anti racism has been dissatisfied with an approach that accentuates life style at the expense of challenging or changing the racism that minority students experience In these debates there has been a concentration on culturally specific topics and this book goes beyond national boundaries to find how international concerns and contexts might provide answers to problems faced in single countries Leading figures in the USA Canada South Africa the UK and Australasia write on the issues

Class Reunion Lois Weis,2005-01-15 Noted scholar Lois Weis first visited the town of Freeway in her 1990 book Working Class Without Work In that book we met the students and teachers of Freeway s high school to understand how these working class folks made sense of their lives Now fifteen years later Weis has gone back to Freeway for Class Reunion This time her focus is on the now grown up students who are for the most part still working class and now struggling to survive the challenges of the global economy Class Reunion is a rare and valuable longitudinal ethnographic study that provides powerful provocative insight into how the lives of these men and women have changed over the last two decades and what their prospects might be for the future

Education and Hope in Troubled Times H. Svi Shapiro,2009-03-04 Bringing together a group of the best and most creative educational thinkers to reflect on the purpose and future of public education this collection of original essays by leading social and educational commentators in North America attempts to articulate a new vision for education especially public education and begin to set an alternative direction

Academic Motivation and the Culture of School in Childhood and Adolescence Cynthia Hudley,Adele E. Gottfried,2008-07-30 Schools as one form of complex organizational settings are regulated by often invisible expectations understandings and values that comprise the culture of the institutions This volume moves beyond important and well studied relational and personal variables to an examination of school culture and motivation

Adolescent Identity and Schooling Cynthia Hudley,2015-07-24 Adolescent Identity and Schooling Diverse Perspectives examines a range of issues related to student adjustment and achievement through research on student identity Drawn from leading experts in psychology and sociology it attends to important contemporary topics in educational and developmental psychology With special attention to how students assess and relate to their own identities this book features chapters on pertinent but under represented identities such as parental identity immigrant identity and model minority identity It blends these new topics with chapters containing the most current perspectives on traditionally covered topics such as race and social class In ten chapters this book provides readers with a comprehensive set of perspectives on the relationship between student identity and success in school making it ideal for education courses on identity in education educational psychology and human development

years have generated a huge increase in the number of research and scholarly works concerned with teachers and teaching and this effort has generated new and important insights that are crucial for understanding education today This handbook provides a host of chapters written by leading authorities that review both the major traditions of work and the newest perspectives concepts insights and research based knowledge concerned with teachers and teaching Many of the chapters discuss developments that are international in scope but coverage is also provided for education in a number of specific countries Many chapters also review contemporary problems faced by educators and the dangers posed by recent politically inspired attempts to reform schools and school systems The Handbook provides an invaluable resource for scholars teacher educators graduate students and all thoughtful persons concerned with the best thinking about teachers and teaching current problems and the future of education

Identity and Lifelong Learning in Higher Education Jo Ann Gammel, Sue L. Motulsky, Amy Rutstein-Riley, 2019-12-01 Learning and identity development are lifetime processes of becoming The construction of self of interest to scholars and practitioners in adult development and adult learning is an ongoing process with the self both forming and being formed by lived experience in privileged and oppressive contexts Intersecting identities and the power dynamics within them shape how learners define themselves and others and how they make meaning of their experiences in the world I Am What I Become Constructing Identities as Lifelong Learners is an insightful and diverse collection of empirical research and narrative essays in identity development adult development and adult learning The purpose of this series is to publish contributions that highlight the intimate connections between learning and identity Our aim is to promote reflection and research at the intersection of identity and adult learning at any point across the adult lifespan and in any space where learning occurs in school at work or in community The series aims to assist our readers to understand and nurture adults who are always in the process of becoming Adult educators adult development scholars counselors psychologists and sociologists along with education and training professionals in formal and informal learning settings will revel in the rich array of qualitative research designs methods and findings as well as autobiographies and narrative essays that transform and expand our understanding of the lived experience of people both like us and unlike us from the U S and beyond Volume One Identity and Lifelong Learning in Higher Education contains chapters by and about post secondary educators and students Together these chapters enhance our understanding of the inextricable link between learning and identity
