Constitutional Law Cases in Context places primary emphasis on how constitutional law has developed its foundational principles and recurring debates rather than focusing simply on doctrinal details. Teachable, manageable, class-sized chunks of material are suited to one semester courses or reduced credit configurations. Generous case excerpts make the text flexible for most courses, no matter the ideology or interpretative method. Unique, concise coverage of the dormant commerce clause material helps clarify this often murky area. This allows the introduction of discriminatory intent and effects concepts in a less charged setting than race or gender material. Cases are judiciously supplemented with background readings from various sources. Providing additional context, the readings are long enough to help students understand the arguments and edited where necessary to prevent overwhelming them. Constitutional Law Cases in Context represents rival interpretations of the Constitution by founders, Presidents, and other critics of the Court's decisions better than do many other casebooks. Study guide questions help students focus on the salient issues, challenge them to consider the court's opinions from various perspectives, suggest comparisons or connections with other cases, and invite the student to think about recurring foundational principles and debates. The text is accompanied by an in-depth Teacher's Manual and an annual case supplement. The Second Edition welcomes Howard E. Katz of Elon University and co-author of Strategies and Techniques of Law School Teaching: A Primer for New and Not So New Professors. Greatly reduced and more tightly edited introductory material preserves and expands content while providing additional balance. The text is updated with the most recent cases throughout. A two-color design features an art program and boxed Study Guides, and the text is available in e-formats as well as print. The Second Edition is one of three volumes specifically tailored for the most common courses, replacing the common one-size-fits-all format. Constitutional Law Cases in Context is designed for use both in one semester courses and in two semester sequences devoted to structure and rights. Constitutional Structure Cases in Context covers Parts I and II of the parent book, and Constitutional Rights Cases in Context covers Parts I and III. Each specialized volume can be taught in its entirety in one semester. Con Law I or Con Law II courses. Features emphasis on how constitutional law has developed its foundational principles and recurring debates rather than on just doctrinal details. Teachable, class-sized chunks, manageable for professors and students, better suited to one semester courses or reduced credit configurations. Generous case excerpts for flexibility in teaching, no matter the approach. Unique, concise coverage of dormant commerce clause helps a normally murky area to be taught efficiently. Allows introduction of discriminatory intent and effects concepts in a less charged setting than race or gender material. Cases supplemented with judicious background readings. Various sources provide context. Readings are long enough to help students to understand arguments, edited where necessary to prevent overwhelming the reader. Represents rival interpretations of the Constitution by founders, Presidents, and critics of the Court's decisions. Includes study guide questions, challenge students to consider the court's opinions from various perspectives, direct the student to key aspects of the

Wasserman, 2023 This student-focused treatise provides a concise, accessible, comprehensive, and readable overview of the doctrine, policy, history, and theory of civil rights and constitutional litigation under Section 1983 and its Bivens federal counterpart. Race, Racism, and American Law Derrick A. Bell, Cheryl I. Harris, Justin Hansford, Amna A. Akbar, Atiba Ellis, Audrey G. McFarlane, 2023-01-31 Intended for use with the authors' forthcoming casebook Race, Racism, and American Law, Seventh Edition, forthcoming 2023. Race, Racism, and American Law: Leading Cases and Materials includes significant historical and contemporary cases and materials, edited with an aim to foreground the most relevant sections and passages to illustrate the crucial role of race in the formation of US law. This new edition of Derrick Bell's groundbreaking textbook Race, Racism, and American Law, like prior versions, eschews a traditional casebook format. The locus of analysis in this text is the struggle for racial justice and its underlying history and political context, as reflected in the ongoing contestation over law, legal reform, and transformation. As such, the supplement includes but is not limited to Supreme Court cases. We follow Bell's model of locating all edited cases and materials in the supplement, reserving the book's text to provide historical and political context for significant cases or legislative actions, along with hypothetical questions, comments, and other tools of analysis. Professors and students will benefit from both legal and non-legal primary source material. Leading Cases and Materials includes selected historical and contemporary cases, legislation, and other legal materials that foreground the crucial role of race and racism and the struggle for racial justice within and through US law. A carefully selected compilation of United States Supreme Court cases. Each case is chosen to guide readers through elements of US jurisprudence which reflect both reform and retrenchment of societal inequity as it relates to the question of race. Cases range from significant 18th-century cases such as Johnson v McIntosh (1823) (indigenous people cannot transfer full title to land) to contemporary civil rights decisions such as Brnovich v Democratic National Committee (2021) (further limiting the reach of the Voting Rights Act) and Comcast v National Association of African American Owned Media (2020) (limiting protections against racial discrimination in contracting). Doctrinally and theoretically significant cases from lower federal courts and state courts. Cases from lower courts are selected to provide critical race insights into how judicial institutions outside the US Supreme Court shape doctrine and debates over race and racial inequality Cases range from Acre v Douglass 9th Cir 2015 ban on teaching of Mexican American studies found unconstitutional to Lobato v Taylor Colo 2003 speculator attempts to divest Mexican American landowners with defective title derived from Mexico Significant legislative and executive legal documents This supplement includes materials going beyond traditional edited cases reflecting the insight that a critical race analysis necessitates a grasp of law beyond the courts Additional materials range from the United States Department of Justice Investigation of the Ferguson Police Department 2015 to the George Floyd Justice in Policing Act of 2020 Benefits for instructors and students Provokes discussion on contemporary and historical legal controversies cases and materials edited to address issues the lens of critical race theory s conceptual framework
