Race Of Angels The Genesis Of U:

Music and Identity in Ireland and Beyond Mark Fitzgerald, John O'Flynn, 2016-04-29 Music and Identity in Ireland and Beyond represents the first interdisciplinary volume of chapters on an intricate cultural field that can be experienced and interpreted in manifold ways whether in Ireland The Republic of Ireland and or Northern Ireland among its diaspora s or further afield While each contributor addresses particular themes viewed from discrete perspectives collectively the book contemplates whether music in Ireland can be regarded as one interrelated plane of cultural and or national identity given the various conceptions and contexts of both Ireland geographical political diasporic mythical and Music including a proliferation of practices and genres that give rise to multiple sites of identification Arranged in the relatively distinct yet interweaving parts of Historical Perspectives Recent and Contemporary Production and Cultural Explorations its various chapters act to juxtapose the socio historical distinctions between the major style categories most typically associated with music in Ireland traditional classical and popular and to explore a range of dialectical relationships between these musical styles in matters pertaining to national and cultural identity The book includes a number of chapters that examine various movements and moments of traditional music revival from the late eighteenth century to the present day as well as chapters that tease out various issues of national identity pertaining to individual composers performers art music popular music and their audiences Many chapters in the volume consider mediating influences infrastructural technological political and or social categories class gender religion ethnicity race age in the interpretation of music production and consumption Performers and composers discussed include U2 Raymond Deane Afro Celt Sound System E J Moeran Samus Ennis Kevin O Connell Stiff Little Fingers Frederick May Arnold University of Illinois Studies in Language and Literature ,1919 Rock Music in Performance D. Pattie, 2007-10-23 In this new study David Pattie examines the apparent contradiction between authenticity and theatricality in the live performance of rock music and looks at the way in which various performers have dealt with this paradox from rock music s early development in the 1960s up to the present day Blackness and Transatlantic Irish Identity Lauren Onkey, 2011-02-09 Blackness and Transatlantic Irish Identity analyzes the long history of imagined and real relationships between the Irish and African Americans since the mid nineteenth century in popular culture and literature Irish writers and political activists have often claimed and thereby created a black identity to explain their experience with colonialism in Ireland and revere African Americans as a source of spiritual and sexual vitality Irish Americans often resisted this identification so as to make a place for themselves in the U S However their representation of an Irish American identity pivots on a distinction between Irish Americans and African Americans Lauren Onkey argues that one of the most consistent tropes in the assertion of Irish and Irish American identity is constructed through or against African Americans and she maps that trope in the work of writers Roddy Doyle James Farrell Bernard MacLaverty John Boyle O Reilly and Jimmy Breslin playwright Ned Harrigan political activists Bernadette Devlin and Tom Hayden and musicians Van

Morrison U2 and Black 47 Race, Ethnicity and Publishing in America C. Cottenet, 2014-06-26 Race Ethnicity and Publishing in America considers American minority literatures from the perspective of print culture Putting in dialogue European and American scholars and spanning the slavery era through the early 21st century they draw on approaches from library history literary history and textual studies Across the margins Glenda Norquay, Gerry Smyth, 2018-07-30 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license The concept of margins denotes geographical economic demographic cultural and political positioning in relation to a perceived centre This book aims to question the term marginal itself to hear the voices talking across borders and not only to or through an English centre The first part of the book examines debates on the political and poetic choice of language drawing attention to significant differences between the Irish and Scottish strategies It includes a discussion of the complicated dynamic of woman and nation by Aileen Christianson which explores the work of twentieth century Scottish and Irish women writers The book also explores masculinities in both English and Scottish writing from Berthold Schoene which deploys sexual difference as a means of testing postcolonial theorizing A different perspective on the notion of marginality is offered by addressing Englishness in relation to migrant writing in prose concerned with India and England after Independence The second part of the book focuses on a wide range of new poetry to question simplified margin centre relations It discusses a historicising perspective on the work of cultural studies and its responses to the relationship between ethnicity and second generation Irish musicians from Sean Campbell The comparison of contemporary Irish and Scottish fiction which identifies similarities and differences in recent developments is also considered In each instance the writers take on the task of examining and assessing points of connection and diversity across a particular body of work while moving away from contrasts which focus on an English norm Notes Music Library Association, 1996 Cosmogogenesis Helena Petrovna Blavatsky, 1888

Scriptures of Giza Jason Breshears, 2006-07-26 After exploring every part of the Great pyramid both inside and out the author reveals how it connects to history and predicts future events He advances the idea that major cataclysms of the past occurred at specifically predicable times and when the next world wide catastrophe will come If his predictions are accurate we need to prepare Indiana University Alumni Quarterly ,1921 Voices from the University Heidi Szpek, 2002 In this collection more than twenty student essays and papers are brought together to celebrate the legacy of the Hebrew Bible Within such diverse disciplines as art literature philosophical thought gender studies prophecy the nature of God mysticism and the unimaginable domains of the American Frontier and The Jerry Springer Show the students of Central Washington University have revealed that the sacred literature of the Hebrew Bible the Old Testament in Christian tradition has not only imparted its wisdom on the western world of past centuries but is still a vibrant source of inspiration and knowledge speaking to those within contemporary society Joyce, Race, and Empire Vincent J. Cheng, 1995-05-25 In this first full length study of race and colonialism in the works of James Joyce Vincent J Cheng argues that Joyce wrote insistently from the perspective of a colonial subject of an oppressive empire and that Joyce s representations of race in its relationship to imperialism constitute a trenchant and significant political commentary not only on British imperialism in Ireland but on colonial discourses and imperial ideologies in general Exploring the interdisciplinary space afforded by postcolonial theory minority discourse and cultural studies and articulating his own cross cultural perspective on racial and cultural liminality Professor Cheng offers a ground breaking study of the century s most internationally influential fiction writer and of his suggestive and powerful representations of the cultural dynamics of race power and empire Drawing Down the Moon Radcliffe G. Edmonds III, 2021-12-07 An unparalleled exploration of magic in the Greco Roman world What did magic mean to the people of ancient Greece and Rome How did Greeks and Romans not only imagine what magic could do but also use it to try to influence the world around them In Drawing Down the Moon Radcliffe Edmonds one of the foremost experts on magic religion and the occult in the ancient world provides the most comprehensive account of the varieties of phenomena labeled as magic in classical antiquity Exploring why certain practices images and ideas were labeled as magic and set apart from normal kinds of practices Edmonds gives insight into the shifting ideas of religion and the divine in the ancient past and later Western tradition Using fresh approaches to the history of religions and the social contexts in which magic was exercised Edmonds delves into the archaeological record and classical literary traditions to examine images of witches ghosts and demons as well as the fantastic powers of metamorphosis erotic attraction and reversals of nature such as the famous trick of drawing down the moon From prayer and divination to astrology and alchemy Edmonds journeys through all manner of ancient magical rituals and paraphernalia ancient tablets spell books bindings and curses love charms and healing potions and amulets and talismans He considers the ways in which the Greco Roman discourse of magic was formed amid the cultures of the ancient Mediterranean including Egypt and the Near East An investigation of the mystical and marvelous

Drawing Down the Moon offers an unparalleled record of the origins nature and functions of ancient magic The Forging of Races Colin Kidd,2006-09-07 This book revolutionises our understanding of race Building upon the insight that races are products of culture rather than biology Colin Kidd demonstrates that the Bible the key text in Western culture has left a vivid imprint on modern racial theories and prejudices Fixing his attention on the changing relationship between race and theology in the Protestant Atlantic world between 1600 and 2000 Kidd shows that while the Bible itself is colour blind its interpreters have imported racial significance into the scriptures Kidd s study probes the theological anxieties which lurked behind the confident facade of of white racial supremacy in the age of empire and race slavery as well as the ways in which racist ideas left their mark upon new forms of religiosity This is essential reading for anyone interested in the histories of race or religion Medieval Exegesis and Religious Difference Ryan Szpiech,2015-05-01 Jews Christians and Muslims all have a common belief in the sanctity of a core holy scripture and commentary on scripture exegesis was at the heart of all three traditions in the Middle Ages At the same time because it dealt with issues such as the nature of the canon the limits of acceptable interpretation and the meaning of salvation history from the perspective of faith exegesis was elaborated in the Middle Ages along the faultlines of interconfessional disputation and polemical conflict This collection of thirteen essays by world renowned scholars of Judaism Christianity and Islam explores the nature of exegesis during the High and especially the Late Middle Ages as a discourse of cross cultural and interreligious conflict paying particular attention to the commentaries of scholars in the western and southern Mediterranean from Iberia and Italy to Morocco and Egypt Unlike other comparative studies of religion this collection is not a chronological history or an encyclopedic guide Instead it presents essays in four conceptual clusters Writing on the Borders of Islam Jewish Christian Conflict The Intellectual Activity of the Dominican Order and Gender that explore medieval exegesis as a vehicle for the expression of communal or religious identity one that reflects shared or competing notions of sacred history and sacred text This timely book will appeal to scholars and lay readers alike and will be essential reading for students of comparative religion historians charting the history of religious conflict in the medieval Mediterranean and all those interested in the intersection of Jewish Christian and Muslim beliefs and practices
