Race And Racism In Modern Philosophy:

Race and Racism in Modern Philosophy Andrew Valls, 2005 An innovative substantial intervention in critical race theory this book brings together an impressive roster of thinkers to trace the question of race in modern philosophical inquiry and explore its influence on contemporary philosophy

Nature, Human Nature, & Human Difference Justin E. H. Smith, 2015-06-30 People have always been xenophobic but an explicit philosophical and scientific view of human racial difference only began to emerge during the modern period Why and how did this happen Surveying a range of philosophical and natural scientific texts dating from the Spanish Renaissance to the German Enlightenment Nature Human Nature and Human Difference charts the evolution of the modern concept of race and shows that natural philosophy particularly efforts to taxonomize and to order nature played a crucial role Smith demonstrates how the denial of moral equality between Europeans and non Europeans resulted from converging philosophical and scientific developments including a declining belief in human nature s universality and the rise of biological classification The racial typing of human beings grew from the need to understand humanity within an all encompassing system of nature alongside plants minerals primates and other animals While racial difference as seen through science did not arise in order to justify the enslavement of people it became a rationalization and buttress for the practices of trans Atlantic slavery From the work of Francois Bernier to G W Leibniz Immanuel Kant and others Smith delves into philosophy s part in the legacy and damages of modern racism With a broad narrative stretching over two centuries Nature Human Nature and Human Difference takes a critical historical look at how the racial categories that we divide ourselves into came into being

Kant and the Concept of Race Jon M. Mikkelsen, 2013-08-01 Late eighteenth century writings on race by Kant and four of his contemporaries Kant and the Concept of Race features translations of four texts by Immanuel Kant frequently designated his Racenschriften race essays in which he develops and defends an early theory of race Also included are translations of essays by four of Kant s contemporaries E A W Zimmermann Georg Forster Christoph Meiners and Christoph Girtanner which illustrate that Kant s interest in the subject of race was part of a larger discussion about human differences one that impacted the development of scientific fields ranging from natural history to physical anthropology to biology

Kant and the Systematicity of the Sciences Gabriele Gava, Thomas Sturm, Achim Vesper, 2025-04-29 This book provides the first comprehensive discussion regarding the role that Kant ascribes to systematicity in the sciences It considers not only what Kant has to say on systematicity in general but also how the systematicity requirement for science is specified in different fields of knowledge The chapters are divided into three thematic sections Part I is devoted to historical context The chapters explore precursors of Kant s account of the systematicity of the sciences Part II addresses the application of systematicity to the special sciences cosmology physics chemistry logic mathematics the life sciences and history Finally Part III explores the systematicity of philosophy Kant and the Systematicity of the Sciences will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working on Kant and the history and philosophy of science Black Rights/White Wrongs Charles W. Mills, 2017-03-01 Liberalism is the political philosophy of equal persons yet liberalism has refused equality to those it saw as sub persons Liberalism is the creed of fairness yet liberalism has been complicit with European imperialism and African slavery Liberalism is the classic ideology of Enlightenment and political transparency yet liberalism has cast a dark veil over its actual racist past and present In sum liberalism's promise of equal rights has historically been denied to blacks and other people of color In Black Rights White Wrongs The Critique of Racial Liberalism political philosopher Charles Mills challenges mainstream accounts that ignore this history and its current legacy in self conceived liberal polities today Mills argues that rather than bracket as an anomaly the role of racism in the development of liberal theory we should see it as shaping that theory in fundamental ways As feminists have urged us to see the dominant form of liberalism as a patriarchal liberalism so too Mills suggests we should see it as a racialized liberalism It is unsurprising then if contemporary liberalism has yet to deliver on the recognition of black rights and the correction of white wrongs These essays look at racial liberalism past and present white ignorance as a guilty ignoring of social reality that facilitates white racial domination Immanuel Kant's role as the most important liberal theorist of both personhood and sub personhood the centrality of racial exploitation in the United States and the evasion of white supremacy in John Rawls's ideal theory framing of social justice and in the work of most other contemporary white political philosophers Nonetheless Mills still believes that a deracialized liberalism is both possible and desirable He concludes by calling on progressives to Occupy liberalism and develop accordingly a radical liberalism aimed at achieving racial justice

(Un)Doing History Vanita Seth, 2025-03-31 Against the grain of much contemporary scholarship within medieval studies this work emphasizes the radical alterity and historical rupture that the Middle Ages represents in European history Through an engagement with three contentious debates in medieval studies historiography race and individuated subjectivity Vanita Seth's work employs postcolonial and postmodern theorizing to explore questions of ontology epistemology facial privileging and emotion and identity in the European Middle Ages and early modern period While the subject matter of this book is historical the stakes are contemporary and political Seth's contention is that it is the very alterity that the medieval represents that enables contemporary scholars and activists to recognize as historical that which is so often posited as natural Writing a history of absence while also engaging radically different ways of being in the world this book argues helps to disrupt the self evident naturalization of the face to contest knee jerk celebrations of individuality tethered to the human visage and to recognize racism not as an age old nemesis but as a distinctly modern form of organizing power This work is interdisciplinary engaging scholarship in science studies philosophy feminist theory anthropology race studies and literature and postmodern and postcolonial theory It presumes no prior specialized knowledge in medieval studies and or history This book is an essential reading for scholars and students in the fields of medieval and early modern history race historiography identity and emotion studies Confucian Feminism Li-Hsiang Lisa Rosenlee, 2024-08-22 In Confucian Feminism Li

Hsiang Lisa Rosenlee expands the theoretical horizons of feminism by using characteristic Confucian terms methods and concerns to interrogate the issue of gender oppression and liberation With its theoretical roots in the Confucian textual tradition this is the first re imagining of Confucianism that enriches and is enriched by feminism Incorporating distinctive Confucian conceptual tools such as ren benevolent governance xiao filial care you friendship li ritual and datong great community Rosenlee creates an ethic of care that is feminist and Confucian At the same time she confronts the issue of gender inequity in Confucian thought Her hybrid feminist theory not only broadens the range of feminist understandings of the roots of gender oppression but opens up what we believe constitutes gender liberation for women transnationally and transculturally Here is a practical ethic that uses Confucianism to navigate the contours of inequality in everyday life The Oxford Handbook of Philosophical Methodology Herman Cappelen,Tamar Szabó Gendler,John Hawthorne,2016-06-23 This is the most comprehensive book ever published on philosophical methodology A team of thirty eight of the world s leading philosophers present original essays on various aspects of how philosophy should be and is done The first part is devoted to broad traditions and approaches to philosophical methodology including logical empiricism phenomenology and ordinary language philosophy The entries in the second part address topics in philosophical methodology such as intuitions conceptual analysis and transcendental arguments The third part of the book is devoted to essays about the interconnections between philosophy and neighbouring fields including those of mathematics psychology literature and film and neuroscience The Burdens of Empire Anthony Pagden,2015-03-16 The entire course of modern Western history has been shaped by the rise and fall of the great European empires The Burdens of Empire examines different aspects of this long history focusing on how political theorists jurists historians and others sought to explain what an empire is and to justify its very existence

Utilitarianism as a Way of Life Bart Schultz,2024-08-20 Utilitarianism a commitment to the greatest happiness for the greatest number has been the target of endless opposition According to its critics it ignores the separateness of persons cannot secure the protections of basic rights demands extreme sacrifice can justify anything the list goes on It has been implicated in the horrors of settler colonialism imperialism and racial capitalism both historically and today as the neoliberal world order faces a profound legitimization crisis Bart Schultz argues that utilitarian philosophy must be decolonized and reimagined for the current moment a time of new and looming existential threats in a world desperate for social change Where dominant ethical and political approaches have failed to adequately deal with the enormous challenges we face utilitarianism as a set of lived practices not simply a theoretical construction may hold out some hope of seriously addressing them Drawing on alternatives to the well known Eurocentric story of utilitarianism and an extensive review and critique of that story and incorporating the works of Peter Singer Katarzyna de Lazari Radek Derek Parfit Martha Nussbaum and other major philosophers Schultz crafts a groundbreaking new framework of utilitarianism born of struggle and resistance Utilitarianism as a Way of Life is an essential text for scholars and students of philosophy political science economics

S. Stager, 2022-12-15 The remains of ancient Mediterranean art and architecture that have survived over the centuries present the modern viewer with images of white the color of the stone often used for sculpture Antiquarian debates and recent scholarship however have challenged this aspect of ancient sculpture There is now a consensus that sculpture produced in the ancient Mediterranean world as well as art objects in other media were in fact polychromatic Color has consequently become one of the most important issues in the study of classical art Jennifer Stager's landmark book makes a vital contribution to this discussion Analyzing the dyes pigments stones earth and metals found in ancient art works along with the language that writers in antiquity used to describe color she examines the traces of color in a variety of media Stager also discusses the significance of a reception history that has emphasized whiteness revealing how ancient artistic practice and ancient philosophies of color significantly influenced one another The Human in a Dehumanizing World Coblenz, Jessica, Horan, OFM, Daniel P., 2022-04-20 CTS annual volume focusing on dehumanization and theological anthropology in such areas as sexual harassment racial justice and decolonization Becoming Human Zakiyyah Iman Jackson, 2020-05-19 Winner 2021 Gloria E Anzaldá Book Prize given by the National Women's Studies Association Winner 2021 Harry Levin Prize given by the American Comparative Literature Association Winner 2021 Lambda Literary Award in LGBTQ Studies Argues that Blackness disrupts our essential ideas of race gender and ultimately the human Rewriting the pernicious enduring relationship between Blackness and animality in the history of Western science and philosophy Becoming Human Matter and Meaning in an Antiracist World breaks open the rancorous debate between Black critical theory and posthumanism Through the cultural terrain of literature by Toni Morrison Nalo Hopkinson Audre Lorde and Octavia Butler the art of Wangechi Mutu and Ezra Leary and the oratory of Frederick Douglass Zakiyyah Iman Jackson both critiques and displaces the racial logic that has dominated scientific thought since the Enlightenment In so doing Becoming Human demonstrates that the history of racialized gender and maternity specifically anti Blackness is indispensable to future thought on matter materiality animality and posthumanism Jackson argues that African diasporic cultural production alters the meaning of being human and engages in imaginative practices of world building against a history of the bestialization and thingification of Blackness the process of imagining the Black person as an empty vessel a non being an ontological zero and the violent imposition of colonial myths of racial hierarchy She creatively responds to the animalization of Blackness by generating alternative frameworks of thought and relationality that not only disrupt the racialization of the human animal distinction found in Western science and philosophy but also challenge the epistemic and material terms under which the specter of animal life acquires its authority What emerges is a radically unruly sense of a being knowing feeling existence one that necessarily ruptures the foundations of the human

Enlightened Colonialism Damien Tricoire, 2017-08-11 This book further qualifies the postcolonial thesis and shows its limits To reach these goals it links text analysis and political history on a global comparative scale Focusing on imperial agents their narratives of progress and their political aims and strategies it asks whether Enlightenment gave birth to a new colonialism between 1760 and 1820 Has Enlightenment provided the cultural and intellectual origins of modern colonialism For decades historians of political thought philosophy and literature have debated this question On one side many postcolonial authors believe that enlightened rationalism helped delegitimize non European cultures On the other side some historians of ideas and literature are willing to defend at least some eighteenth century philosophers whom they consider to have been anti colonialists Surprisingly enough both sides have focused on literary and philosophical texts but have rarely taken political and social practice into account

Grounds for Respect Kristi Gisellson, 2012-01-01 Grounds for Respect broaches a question that is of vital importance to all namely what grounds do we need in order to justify respect for others In exploring this question the author provides not only a critical overview of traditional and contemporary approaches to and critiques of the concept of a common humanity but also offers a distinctively new approach as to what it might mean to be human

Beyond the Pale Miguel A. De La Torre, Stacey M. Floyd-Thomas, 2011-01-01 How should Augustine Aquinas Bonhoeffer Kant Nietzsche and Plato be read today in light of postcolonial theory and twenty first century understandings This book offers a reader friendly introduction to Christian liberationist ethics by having scholars from the margins explore how questions of race and gender should be brought to bear on twenty four classic ethicists and philosophers Each short chapter gives historical background for the thinker describes that thinker s most important contributions then raises issues of concern for women and persons of color Contributors include George Tink Tinker Asante U Todd Traci West Darryl Trimiew Ada Mar a Isasi D az Robyn Henderson Espinoza and many others Critiques for Transformation Lorenzo DuBois Baber, Heather McCambly, 2023-04-01 To sustain contemporary movements towards educational equity postsecondary leaders at all levels need resources that connect evidence based critiques of structural inequities to forward thinking visions for a more socially just academy To address this critical challenge we bring together scholars to deconstruct oppressive norms of theory and practice and provide a direction towards reconsiderations across various postsecondary contexts Each chapter identifies a normative practice that reinforces material and cultural oppression of student populations from minoritized identities challenge underlying assumptions that support current norms and make recommendations for redeveloping practices that center the well being and success of underserved student populations In presenting a range of expertise and disciplinary foci in the study of higher education this volume contributes to a holistic re envisioning of colleges and universities as transformational spaces for social change The book provides insights and recommendations from scholars to a wide ranging audience including federal and state policymakers postsecondary administrators and leaders philanthropists researchers and graduate students The primary audience are graduate students enrolled in various educational leadership programs including educational policy studies higher education student affairs curriculum and instruction or learning sciences This book will be especially valuable for increasing the focus on generative critique in research practice and policy in graduate programming curriculum This volume will also be a valuable resource for policymakers involved in shaping postsecondary initiatives at the local state and federal levels Finally this book will appeal to current practitioners at colleges and universities as they seek additional professional development and cross institutional collegiality around practices related to social justice and equity ENDORSEMENTS This book opens with an account of Ronald Reagan s draconian policies and practices to silence political dissenters and demonstrators within the University of California Horrifyingly we now have politically ambitious governors using Reaganesque tactics to shut down critical race theory the teaching of authentic Black history the use of terms like Latinx Critiques For Transformation Reimagining Colleges Communities For Social Justice is the essential antidote to the antidemocratic Orwellian practices that are bent on disempowering advocates for racial justice Estela Bensimon University of Southern California Critiques for Transformation Reimagining Colleges and Universities for Social Justice provide impressive examinations and posit modes to envision reimagining ways for universities to move toward authentic diversity equity and inclusion DEI The senior mid career and emerging professionals tackle DEI from a variety of conceptual frameworks that contribute to rich discussions of challenges and opportunities By examining some classic writings from education and social sciences the chapters elucidate how contemporary scholarly activities and research can be linked to the integrative roles of public engagement for both internal university communities and external audiences The volume will be quite helpful to a range of constituents within the United States i e a nation that has some of the most diverse structures and systems of colleges and universities Beverly Lindsay Pennsylvania State University To offer a scholarly critique is often uneven with little attention dedicated to altering the most troubling patterns in this case in higher education This book brings rigorous critique but also engages in world building taking up what we can do today to make higher education break with its exclusionary and profit seeking ways Every chapter focuses on a particular facet of higher education and carefully imagines it as a space for possibility rather than arbitrary rules for the sake of hierarchy As higher education wrings its hands about its place in the pandemic this book is the guide Leigh Patel University of Pittsburgh

Philanthropy and Race in the Haitian Revolution Erica R. Johnson, 2018-06-19

This book examines the ways in which a minority of primarily white male French philanthropists used their social standing and talents to improve the lives of peoples of African descent in Saint Domingue during the crucial period of the Haitian Revolution They went to great lengths to advocate for the application of universal human rights through political activities academic societies religious charity influence on public opinion and fraternity in the armed services The motives for their benevolence ran the gamut from genuine altruism to the selfish pursuit of prestige which could on occasion lead to political or economic benefit from aiding blacks and people of color This book offers a view that takes into account the efforts of all peoples who worked to end slavery and establish racial equality in Saint Domingue and challenges simplistic notions of the Haitian Revolution which lean too heavily on an assumed strict racial divide between black and white
