Racecourse For Andy:

I Own the Racecourse! Patricia Wrightson, 2013-05-22 Andy Hoddell was different from other boys. He never really understood the game they played in which they owned the factories, the library and the police station in their town but he longed to tell them he owned something too. Then he met an old tramp and paid him three dollars for Beecham Park Racecourse. When Andy's friends find out they are horrified Andy would have to be told he'd been taken for a ride. But how could they tell him without breaking his heart especially when all the staff at the racecourse were calling him the owner. How could anyone take away his racecourse. Kate Constable introduces this Text Classics edition of Patricia Wrightson's I Own the Racecourse. Patricia Wrightson was born in Lismore NSW in 1921. She was the author of twenty-seven children's novels including Nargun and The Stars The Ice is Coming and The Crooked Snake. She has been awarded CBCA Book of the Year four times and was also awarded the Hans Christian Andersen Award, Dromkeen Medal and Order of the British Empire for her contribution to literature. textclassics.com.au Children's Books from Other Countries Carl M. Tomlinson, 1998-01-15 Every child is entranced by the magic of story regardless of national boundaries. Many of the most memorable childhood stories have their origins in other countries. Exposing children to this multi-national body of literature introduces them to the great diversity of people and cultures that populate the world at a young age enabling them to become more thoughtful and generous individuals. Children's Books from Other Countries is a complete and current guide to international children's literature. The concept of a bibliography of international children's literature is not new. In the past many books have accomplished this task. The last two decades however have not yet produced a current reference source devoted to international children's books. Children's Books from Other Countries wonderfully rectifies this lack of attention. An introductory essay provides an overview of the field including a discussion on the rationale of sharing international books with children, a brief history of the children's literature movement, related books and awards and basic information about the International Board on Books for Young People (IBBY) and its American branch the United States Board on Books for Young People (USBBY). An annotated bibliography contains over 700 titles from 29 different countries printed between 1950 and 1996. All titles are available in English; many have been translated and others have originated in other English-speaking countries. The titles are organized by genre and have been selected for their high quality. They are primarily targeted for children ages 0-14 although a few outstanding young adult titles are included. Winners of the Mildred Batchelder Award and the Hans Christian Andersen Medal are listed in the appendix. Indexes include Author Title Index, Country of Origin Index and Subject Index. Affordable and readable, this timely resource is certainly a must for librarians and teachers and other professionals working with children. Sponsored by the United States People, Just Like You United States President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped, Committee on Youth Development, 1977 A Reader's Guide for Parents of Children with Mental, Physical, Or Emotional Disabilities Cory Moore, Kathryn Gorham Morton, Joni B. Mills, 1977 Written for Children John Rowe Townsend, 1996-05-01 This revised and updated edition provides children's and young adult librarians, teachers, literature classes, and library school classes with an authoritative history and analysis of the best British and American children's literature through 1994, with a new 2003 postscript including such recent phenomena as J. K. Rowling and Philip Pullman. Written for Children traces the development of children's literature from its origins through the beginnings of the multimedia revolution. In effortless and entertaining style, Townsend, a world-renowned authority in the field, examines the changing attitudes toward children and their literature and analyzes the various strands that make up this important field. While examining many well-known American classics, Townsend also looks at British works that American audiences may have overlooked. With illustrations and bibliography.

The Fiction Gateway Suzanne Eberlé, Noelle Williamson, 2009-04-01 In this guide to children's literature, two experienced school librarians set out to answer the question, "What's a good book for me to read next?" by providing a selection of books for librarians, teachers, and parents from which to choose the most appropriate book. The Fiction Gateway is an essential resource that supports individual, group, and social reading programs and provides an instant guide to matching children's interests with suitable reading material. Each entry contains: Brief synopsis of the plot; Publisher details; Theme correlations; Concepts and reading level; Questions for discussion; An excerpt; Range of post-reading activities.

Bon Marche Chet Hagan, 2015-03-17 It was a time of wonder and excitement, a time of beginnings. The British have just signed the surrender at Yorktown, and Charles Dupree, uncertain even of his age, has walked away from a French ship and into a new country. Here, no one will care about his background; here, in America, all things will be possible for the French street urchin. All he will have to do is work, and that does not frighten Charles. Growing with the nation, Charles moves west, and it is in the rough river town of Nashville that he finds his place and realizes his dream. Bon Marche, an estate devoted to the breeding of race horses, with a scope as broad as the country it portrays. Bon Marche is an epic novel as exciting as its time, filled with grand passion and abiding love. At the Publisher's request, this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software (DRM) applied.

The Skagway Kids Carl Nord, 2022-11-03 It is plenty cold in Skagway, home of the North Wind, as eleven-year-old Andy Seaberg and his schoolmates prepare for Christmas. They have the early morning ice skating races in the dark to school when the weather cooperates; a heating oil shortage is possible due to an iced-in oil tanker, and Andy's little brother is causing problems as usual. It will take some teamwork to set things right.

Richard Petty Tim Bongard, Robert Coulter, 2000-08 What were the first cars Richard Petty drove? Was his number always 43? When did he start painting the cars Petty Blue? How did Petty Enterprises end up with Pontiac? The list goes on and on. The more the authors researched, the more they realized that large portions of the King's career are obscure, a mystery to the legions of stock car racing fans and modelers who have discovered the sport in recent years. All this information and more is included for the die-hard race fan or modeler.
