

A large, diverse crowd of people is gathered for a protest or demonstration. In the center, a person holds a white sign with black and red text. The sign reads "CANADA IS NOT IMMUNE TO RACISM". The word "NOT" is underlined with two red lines, and "RACISM" is written in large, bold, red capital letters. The crowd consists of people of various ages and ethnicities, many wearing face masks. The background is slightly blurred, showing more people and trees.

The African Diaspora in the United States and Canada at the Dawn of the 21st Century John W. Frazier, Joe T. Darden, Norah F. Henry, 2010-09-01 Drawing on the work of social scientists from geographic historical sociological and political science perspectives this volume offers new perspectives on the African Diaspora in the United States and Canada It has been approximately four centuries since the first Africans set foot in North America and although it is impossible for any text to capture the complete Black experience on the continent the persistent legacy of Black inequality and the winds of dramatic change are inseparable parts of the current African Diaspora experience In addition to comparing and contrasting the experiences and geographic patterns of the African Diaspora in the United States and Canada the book also explores important distinctions between the experiences of African Americans and those of more recent African and Afro Caribbean immigrants      Racial Discrimination Tanya Katerí Hernández, 2019-03-19 This fifth volume in the Brill Research Perspectives in Comparative Discrimination Law surveys the field of comparative race discrimination law for the purpose of providing an introduction to the nature of comparing systems of discrimination and the transnational search for effective equality laws and policies This volume includes the perspectives of racialized subjects subalterns in the examination of the reach of the laws on the ground It engages a variety of legal and social science resources in order to compare systems across a number of contexts such as the United States Canada France South Africa Brazil Colombia Peru Hong Kong Japan Korea Israel India and others The goal is to analyze the strengths and weaknesses of various kinds of anti discrimination legal devices to aid in the study of law reform efforts across the globe centered on racial equality Other titles published in this series Comparative Discrimination Law Historical and Theoretical Frameworks Laura Carlson isbn 9789004345447 International Human Rights Law and Discrimination Protections A Comparison of Regional and National Responses Mpoki Mwakagali isbn 9789004345461 Comparative Discrimination Law Age as a Protected Ground Lucy Vickers isbn 9789004345539 Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity Discrimination Holning Lau isbn 9789004345485      Racism and Paid Work Tania Das Gupta, 2008-12-04 This book explicitly addresses racism in the paid workplace showing how racism and by corollary sexism are systemic to society Based on extensive research on workers in both the Health Care sector and in the Garment Manufacturing sector the author succeeds in capturing the daily lived realities in the workplace      Cross-Border Cosmopolitans Wendell Nii Laryea Adjete, 2022-12-06 African American history from 1900 to 2000 cannot be told without accounting for the significant influence of Pan African thought just as the story of twentieth century U S foreign policy cannot be told without accounting for fears of an African World In the early 1900s Marcus Garvey and his followers perceived the North American mainland particularly Canada following U S authorities deportation of Garvey to Jamaica as a forward operating base from which to liberate the Black masses from colonialism After World War II Vietnam War resisters Black Panthers and Caribbean students joined the throngs of cross border migrants to denounce militarism imperialism and capitalism In time as urban uprisings proliferated in northern U S cities the prospect of coalitions among the Black Power Red Power and Quebécois Power movements inspired U S and Canadian intelligence services to collaborate infiltrate and sabotage Black organizations across North America Assassinations of Black messiahs further radicalized revolutionaries rekindling the dream for an African World from Washington D C to Toronto to San Francisco to Antigua to Grenada and back to Africa Alarmed Washington s national security elites invoked the Cold War as the reason to counter the triangulation of Black Power in the Atlantic World funneling arms clandestinely from the United States and Canada to the Caribbean and then to its proxies in southern Africa By contending that twentieth century global Black liberation movements began within the U S Canadian borderlands as cross border continental struggles Cross Border Cosmopolitans reveals the revolutionary legacies of the Underground Railroad and

America's Great Migration and the hemispheric and transatlantic dimensions of this history      Canadian Critical Race Theory Carol A. Aylward, 2025-07-17T00:00:00Z The growth of the Critical Race Theory genre began in Canada when scholars of colour in Canada began to articulate a dissatisfaction with the existing Canadian legal discourse which failed to include an analysis of the role that race and racism has played in the political and legal structures of Canadian society This book is about the role that race and racism play in the theory and practice of law It shows how Canadian Black lawyers and others are beginning to seriously consider the role of race in litigation and to develop critical race litigation strategies to address the issue The author documents how a growing body of work designed to move us beyond theory to practical application is being developed to help recognize the complex relationships among race racism and the law      New Framings on Anti-Racism and Resistance Joanna Newton, Arezou Soltani, 2017-09-12 Using a critical anti racism approach contributors to this volume demonstrate and document the resistance and futurity possible when students educators administrators policymakers and community members engage in critical anti racism education Relying on contemporary educational issues and personal political reflections this collection of essays brings together a variety of new insights on anti racism praxis This volume speaks to readers who are working with or seeking new conceptual framings of race white supremacy and Indigeneity in order to work towards a politics of decolonization New Framings on Anti Racism Resistance and the New Futurity provides new theoretical directions and practical applications for people engaged in the field of anti racism      A Space for Race Kathy Hogarth, Wendy L. Fletcher, 2018-04-24 A Space for Race engages in a critical examination of some of the major discourses related to original settler immigrant and particularly racialized belonging In the course of this examination the book explores the various themes of racism multiculturalism and post colonialism and the ongoing tensions challenges and inconsistencies around race relations embedded within policy and practice in Canada It traces the history of race relations and ensuing tensions from encounter to modern day and offers a broad yet nuanced historical sketch of Indigenous and racialized ethnic groups that make up the Canadian landscape The text also offers rich case examples to draw the reader's attention to the lived experiences of the Other As a whole it engages with history in a particular way that challenges the historical records that has informed our imaginings      Who Pays for Canada? E.A. Heaman, David Tough, 2020-09-17 Canadians can never not argue about taxes From the Chinese head tax to the Panama Papers from the National Policy to the Canada United States Mexico Agreement tax grievances always inspire private resentments and public debates But if resentment and debate persist the terms of the debate have continually altered and adapted to reflect changing social economic and political conditions in Canada and the wider world The centenary of income tax is the occasion for Canadian scholars to wrestle with past and present debates about tax equity efficiency and justice Who Pays for Canada explores the different ways governments can and should tax their peoples and evaluates how well Canada has done so It brings together a diverse group of perspectives from academia law economics political science history geography philosophy and accountancy and from the wider world of activists and public servants It asks how Canada compares to other countries and how other countries especially the United States influence Canadian tax policies It also surveys internal tax tensions and politics through the lenses of region and jurisdiction as well as race class and gender Reasoning from tax perplexities and reforms in the past and the present it argues that fair taxation requires an informed populace and a democratically inclined public will Above all this book serves as a reminder that it is not only what counts as fair that is important but how fairness is evaluated Revealing how closely tax policy is tied to mainstream politics human rights and morality Who Pays for Canada represents new perspectives on a matter of tremendous national urgency     Racial Profiling in Canada Carol Tator, Frances Henry, Charles Smith, Maureen Brown, 2006-01-01 Informed by a wealth of research and theoretical approaches from a wide range of disciplines Racial Profiling in Canada makes a major contribution to the literature and debates on a topic of growing concern     Policing Black Lives Robyn Maynard, 2025-08-22 This revised and expanded edition of Robyn Maynard's bestselling Policing Black Lives offers a comprehensive account of policing Black life in Canada Maynard documents how a half a century of police reforms have expanded the scope and scale of policing and perpetuated anti Black violence Offering a compelling vision for making policing obsolete in the wake of global Black uprisings in 2020 this essential text will guide and inspire activists students scholars and all those working toward Black futures beyond surveillance and confinement     Ontario's African-Canadian Heritage Fred Landon, 2009-01-19 This illustrated collection offers a wealth of data on slavery abolition the Underground Railroad providing unique insights into the African Canadian heritage in Ontario
