Indy 500 Recaps—The Short Chute Edition Pat Kennedy, 2017-03-24 This book started as a self-serving exercise to personally organize the major details and interesting facts of each Indianapolis 500 over the hundred-plus year history of the greatest race in the world. For many of us passionate racing fans who have attended a multitude of 500s there is a tendency for the details of the races to somewhat blend together. I hope this book will help to provide clarity in this regard as well as educate. During high school many of us chose to use CliffsNotes to assist in the education process. This book is somewhat patterned after that concept. It falls somewhere between Donald Davidson and Rick Schaffer, the best and by far the most detailed book on the history of the Indianapolis 500 and a multitude of pictorial books with limited information. I hope it will prove to be an easy read with entertaining and educational information      Racing Calendar for ..., 1853      Off-road Racing Sue Mead, 2005 Racing off the beaten path is one of the most popular forms of motor sport in the U.S. and around the world. This nostalgic journey through the career of a rock n' roll legend chronicles every album and each stage of Springsteen's career. It's all here: Dave Marsh's Rolling Stone review of Springsteen's ten sold-out Bottom Line shows in 1975 in New York City; Jay Cocks's and Maureen Orth's dueling Time and Newsweek cover stories; George Will's gross misinterpretation of Springsteen's message on his Born in the USA tour; and Will Percy's 1999 interview for Double Take plus much, much more      Sixty Years of Jump Racing Robin Oakley, 2017-03-09 Robin Oakley brings alive the colourful world of those who ride and train jumping horses. With elegant production and gripping images, Sixty Years of Jump Racing chronicles the social and economic changes which have brought the sport's ups and downs like the development of sponsorships and syndicate ownership, the near loss of the Grand National the growing domination of the Cheltenham Festival and the growth of all weather racing to meet the bookies demands for betting shop fodder Pace and colour is provided by stories of the horses who have been taken to the heart of racing crowds like the Irish trained hurdler Istabraq and Best Mate the three times winner of the Cheltenham Gold Cup for England Famous rivalries and memorable races are re lived and key victories revisited in portraits of and interviews with the owners jockeys and trainers who have dominated the sport The emphasis will be largely on the past fifty years from Arkle to Tony McCoy but a significant introduction by Edward Gillespie encapsulates the past history of what was previously known as National Hunt Racing and sets the stories in context
